FOREWORD

Believing that a brief history of our State Society and roll of our members should be published, the State Conference of 1923 directed the compilation and printing of this volume. It is hoped that by it our members will be drawn closer together and will gain a clearer comprehension of our ideals and purposes as well as a deeper realization of the strong bond that binds us together as descendants of the patriotic men and women, who by their devotion and magnificent self-sacrifice, won our liberty and established our government on a firm foundation. We have also included such genealogical information and reference books as we have been able to obtain; a History of the National Society; the Flag Code; and the State Flag Law.

Owing to unavoidable delays the roster, which contains some two thousand names, may not be without errors, but we feel it to be the most complete one which has been compiled. The preparation has been a labor of love for your Committee; arduous but often enjoyable and always instructive.

In writing the History of the State Society, all available original sources, such as Conference Minutes and Programs, Reports of State Officers and letters written by the founders of our organization were consulted. The facts used in the History of the National Society were obtained from pamphlets issued by the National Society and the Magazine.

Our thanks are tendered for invaluable assistance, courteously and cheerfully rendered to: the Editor of the Magazine; New York State Society D. A. R., for the use of the Flag Code cuts; Lowman & Hanford; Western Engraving Company; Mrs. H. W. Patton; and the members of the Chapters who have so kindly submitted reports and photographs and to all others who have loaned photographs which otherwise we could have been unable to obtain.

We feel that this History will be of inestimable value to the members and will supply a record so complete as to be authoritative in making out application papers.

If the volume accomplishes any portion of the hopes with which it has been prepared, the effort devoted to its compilation will be amply rewarded.

PRINTING COMMITTEE.

MRS. ELIZA FERRY LEARY
V. P. G. N. S. D. A. R. 1914-1920

Much of the prestige and good standing the Daughters of the American Revolution of the State of Washington enjoy at the present time is due to the efforts and constant attendance at the sessions of the National Congress of its former Vice President General, Mrs. Eliza Ferry Leary.

A charter member, and the first Vice Regent of Rainier Chapter, and three times Regent of this largest Chapter in the State, Mrs. Leary has from the very first taken her place at the front in a forceful effort to place her State where it belonged by right of its name, and to her sterling honesty and singleness of purpose belong the results.

Mrs. Leary served as Chairman of the National Credential Committee twice—efficient, as always.

Whether on the winning side or the losing (and she is a good loser) no one has ever doubted for a moment where she stood. A fighter for the right and the best—coming from good old Mayflower and Revolutionary stock on the maternal side, and from a noted French officer on Napoleon's staff on the paternal side, she could not be other than she is—a simple, modest, unassuming woman, but full of that force that talks but seldom, and proves its faith by its works.

Whatever of honors have come to her have been unsolicited on her part and in a way thrust upon her, but when honored she has accepted the tribute of her co-workers with that simplicity of manner so characteristic of her, and few outside of her most intimate friends have realized what such an acceptance meant. Year after year she has made the long journey from Seattle to Washington, D. C.—often at serious inconvenience to herself, but unsparing of herself, her time, and her means when it came to the support of her State and her Chapter. If there was a deficit in anything that her State was expected to do, she paid it. If there was something special to be done that others of her delegation overlooked, she did it quietly but thoroughly. "The good name of the State of Washington must be upheld."

And right nobly has it been upheld in all the years that have passed and splendid, capable women have arisen and followed in the footsteps of this one, who really blazed the trail from this Washington to that.

MRS. ADDISON G. FOSTER

MRS. ADDISON W. FOSTER
V. P. G. N. S. D. A. R. 1901-1904

The first Vice-President General to the National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution, from the State of Washington was Mrs. Martha Ann Weatherbee Foster, a member of Mary Ball Chapter, Tacoma. Mrs. Foster was born in Covington, Tioga County, Pennsylvania, March 21st, 1841, and married Addison G. Foster March 19th, 1863, at Wabasha, Minnesota. Their home was in St. Paul, Minn., until 1889 when they removed to Tacoma.

From 1899 to 1905 Mr. Foster served as United States Senator from Washington, and Mrs. Foster represented the D. A. R. as Vice-President General 1901-02-03 and 04. Her husband's office gave her the unusual advantage of a home in Washington, D. C., and enabled her to attend almost every National Board meeting during her term of office. In reports of those early Board meetings and Congresses Mrs. Foster's name appears constantly as an interested and valuable member who lost no opportunity of advancing the interests of the western Chapters.

Mrs. Foster was a woman of high ideals and unalloyed patriotism; a woman whose gracious presence shed pleasantness and sunshine wherever she went; and a woman whose wise counsel in D. A. R. and all good works was sought, as her principles and high ideals made her counsel most valuable. Mrs. Foster was an active worker in the Congregational Church and also a prominent Colonial Dame.

Mr. A. G. Foster died January 16th, 1917, and Martha A. W. Foster, January 30th, 1923, leaving to carry on the patriotic ideals they so upheld, two sons, members of the Sons of the American Revolution—Harrison Foster and Charles A. Foster. Mrs. Foster's life was an example of unselfish service, and the members of the local and State Daughters of the American Revolution will ever honor and love her memory.

MRS. HENRY McCLEARY

MRS. HENRY McCLEARY
V. P. G. N. S. D. A. R. 1920-1923

Mrs. Ada L. McCleary, Vice President General from April, 1920, to April, 1923, was born in Winchester, Ohio, January 5, 1861. She was the daughter of Samuel B. Johnson and his wife Mary E. Allen, and claimed her right of membership among the Daughters of the American Revolution through John Baldwin, Captain of the 8th Regiment, Co. L, Virginia. She was married to Mr. Henry McCleary at Winchester, Ohio, October 29, 1885.

She became a member of Mary Ball Chapter, D. A. R., in 1905 and from that time worked unceasingly for the benefit of the Organization, believing with all her heart in the building up and perpetuating of American ideals and the prompting of patriotism in the highest sense. She twice served her Chapter as Regent, from 1910 to 1912, and was again elected for a term of one year in May, 1917. She was State Regent for Washington for the term 1913-1915, during which time she was untiring in her efforts to better the State Organization. As the duties of her office took her from Chapter to Chapter throughout the State, all felt the stimulus of her zeal and enthusiasm for the cause, and all benefitted from her keen insight into the workings of the Society. Any knotty point of procedure was always referred to Mrs. McCleary with the utmost confidence in her ability to render a wise solution of the case. It was this same clearsightedness which made her of such value on the National Board, and her wisdom, honest decisions, and perfect loyalty was as much appreciated in Continental Hall as in her own State of Washington.

Mrs. McCleary passed away September 25, 1923, leaving a vacancy among the Daughters which can never be filled. A beautifully gracious woman, kindly in word, thought and deed, a devoted Christian, being a member of the First Congregational Church of Tacoma, and a most loyal American Citizen.

I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands; one nation, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

THE AMERICAN'S CREED

I believe in the United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people, whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic; a sovereign Nation of many sovereign States; a perfect Union, one and inseparable, established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes.

I therefore believe it is my duty to my country to love it; to support its Constitution; to obey its laws; to respect its flag; and to defend it against all enemies.

UNITED STATES FLAG CODE

Days on which the Flag should be displayed:

January 17—Benjamin Franklin Day
February 12—Lincoln's Birthday
April 19—Patriot's Day
May, Second Sunday—Mother's Day
June 14—Flag Day
July 4—Independence Day
September, First Monday—Labor Day
September 17—Constitution Day
October 12—Columbus Day
November, First Tuesday after First Monday—General Election Day
November 11—Armistice Day
November, Last Thursday—Thanksgiving Day

The National Flag Conference convened at the call of the American Legion in Memorial Continental Hall, Washington, D. C., on Flag Day, June 14, 1923, composed of delegates from the principal national patriotic, fraternal, educational, and civic organizations, and adopted a Flag Code, based on the U. S. War Department Flag Circular. The Flag Code Committee comprised Mr. Gridley Adams, Chairman; Mrs. Anthony Wayne Cook, Vice Chairman, President General, N. S., D. A. R.; Major O. C. Luxford, Secretary, D. C. S. A. R.; Mr. E. S. Martin, Boy Scouts of America; Mrs. Henry Osgood Holland, National Congress of Mothers; Mr. John L. Riley, American Legion, N. Y. Department; Lt. Col. H. S. Kerrick, American Legion, Ohio Department; Mrs. Livingston Rowe Schuyler, President General, U. D. C.; Capt. Chester Wells, U. S. Navy; and Capt. George M. Chandler, U. S. Army, advisors.

There is but one Federal Statute which protects the Flag throughout the country from desecration. This law provides that a trade-mark cannot be registered which consists of or comprises the Flag, coat-of-arms or other insignia of the United States or any simulation thereof. Congress has also enacted legislation providing certain penalties for the desecration, mutilation or improper use of the Flag within the District of Columbia.

In adopting the Flag Code, at the Flag Conference, emphasis was laid on the following suggestions for State legislation regarding the Flag.

"Based upon opinion of the Supreme Court of the United States rendered by Justice John Marshall Harlan, every State should enact adequate laws for the protection of the National Flag. State Flag laws should include the following:

1. That June 14th, Flag Day, be set apart by proclamation of the Governor recommending that Flag Day be observed by people generally by the display of the Flag of the United States and in such other ways as will be in harmony with the general character of the day.

2. That the Flag of the United States be displayed on the main administration building of each public institution.

3. That the Flag of the United States with staff or flag pole be provided for each school house and be displayed during school days either from a flag staff or in inclement weather within the school building.

4. That the Flag of the United States be displayed in every polling place.

5. That the use of the Flag of the United States as a receptacle for receiving, holding, carrying or delivering anything be prohibited.

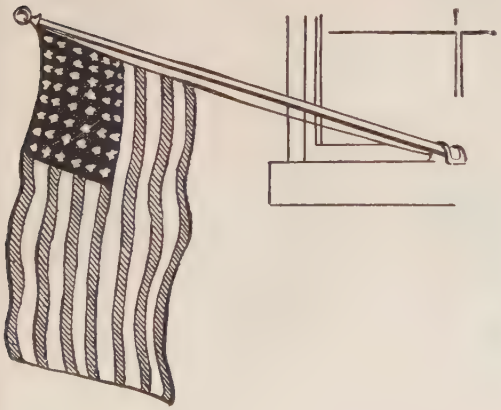
6. That the use of the Flag for advertising purposes in any manner be prohibited.

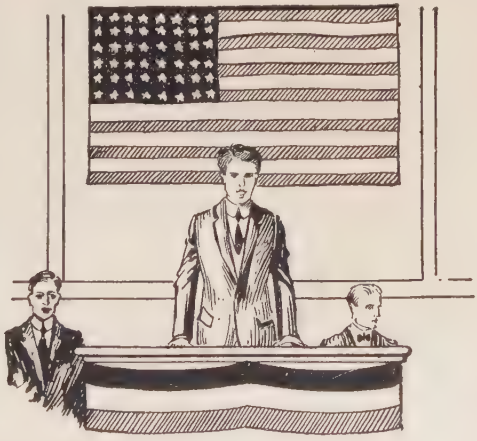
7. That penalty (fine and imprisonment) be provided for public mutilation, abuse, or desecration of the Flag.

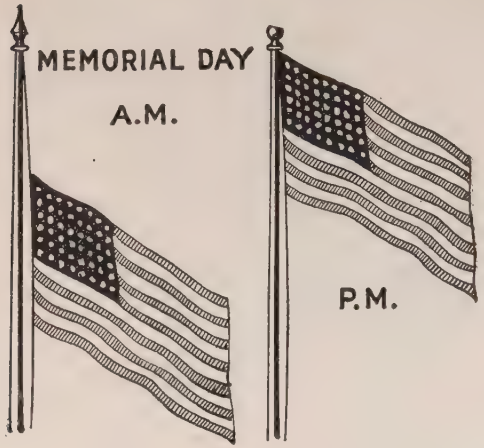
The Code recommends that bunting of the national colors should be used for covering speakers' desks, draping over the front of platform and for decoration in general. Bunting should be arranged with the blue above, the white in the middle, and the red below.

During the ceremony of hoisting or lowering the Flag or when the Flag is passing in review, the code recommends that all persons present shall stand at attention facing the Flag. Men's headdress should be removed with the right hand and held at the left shoulder. Those present in uniform should salute with the right hand salute. Women should stand at attention, facing the Flag as the Flag is passing in parade, salute by placing the right hand over the heart. If the National Anthem is played and no flag is present, all stand at attention when uncovered and salute at the first note of the Anthem, retaining the position until the last note of the Anthem is played. If in civilian dress and covered, men should uncover and salute at attention, facing the music. Women should stand at attention and salute.

The Pledge to the Flag is as follows:







"I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

"The Star Spangled Banner" is recommended for universal recognition as the National Anthem.

The code rules for the proper manner of displaying the Flag are as follows:

1. The Flag should be displayed from sunrise to sunset only or between such hours as designated by proper authority on National and State Holidays, and on historic and special occasion. The Flag should always be hoisted briskly and lowered slowly and ceremoniously.

2. When carried in a procession with another flag or flags the place of the Flag of the United States is on the right, i. e., the Flag's own right, or when there is a line of other flags, the Flag of the United States should be in the center or centre of that line.

3. When displayed with another flag, against a wall from crossed staffs, the Flag of the United States should be on the right, the Flag's own right, and its staff should be in front of the staff of the other flag.

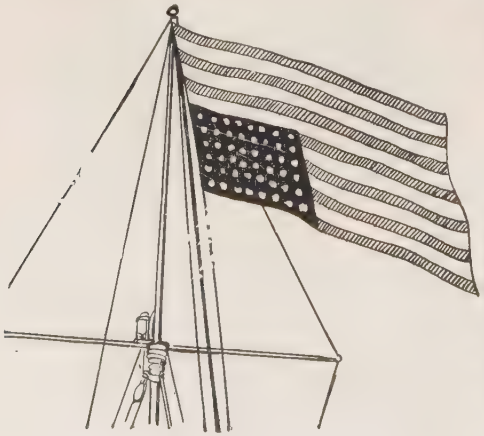
4. When a number of flags are grouped and displayed from staffs the Flag of the United States should be in the center or at the highest point of the group.

5. When flags of States or Cities or pennants of societies are flown on the same halyard with the Flag of the United States, the Flag of the United States must always be at the peak. When flown from adjacent staffs the Flag of the United States should be hoisted first. No flag or pennant should be placed above or to the right of the Flag of the United States.

6. When the flags of two or more Nations are to be displayed they should be flown from separate staffs of the same height and the flags should be of equal size. International use forbids the display of the flag of one nation above that of any other nation in time of peace.

7. When the Flag is displayed from a staff projecting horizontally or at an angle from the window sill, balcony or front of building the union of the Flag should go clear to the head of the staff unless the Flag is at half-staff.

8. When the Flag of the United States is displayed other than flown from a staff, it should be displayed flat, whether indoors or out. When displayed either horizontally or vertically against a wall, the union should be uppermost and to the flag's right, i. e., to the observer's left. When displayed in a window it should be displayed the same way, that is, with the union or blue field to the left of the observer in the street. When festoons or drapings, of blue, white and red are desired, bunting should be used, but never the Flag.



DISTRESS SIGNAL

9. When displayed over the middle of the street as between buildings, the Flag of the United States should be suspended vertically with the union to the north in an east and west street or to the east in a north and south street.

10. When used on a speaker's platform the Flag should be displayed above and behind the speaker. It should never be used to cover the speaker's desk nor drape over the front of the platform. If flown from staff it should be on the speaker's right.

11. When used in unveiling a statue or monument the Flag should not be allowed to fall to the ground but should be carried aloft to wave out, forming a distinctive feature during the remainder of the ceremony.

12. When flown at half-staff the Flag is first hoisted briskly to the peak and then lowered to the half-staff position, but before lowering the Flag for the day it is raised again to the peak. On Memorial Day, May 30th, the Flag is displayed at half-staff from sunrise until noon and at full-staff from noon until sunset for the Nation lives and the Flag is the symbol of the Living Nation.

13. When used to cover a casket the Flag should be placed so that the union is at the head and over the left shoulder. The Flag should not be lowered into the grave nor allowed to touch the ground. The casket should be carried foot first.

14. When the Flag is displayed in Church it should be from a staff placed on the congregation's right as they face the clergyman with the service flag, State flag or other flag on the left wall. If in the chancel the Flag of the United States should be placed on the clergyman's right as he faces the congregation.

15. When the Flag is in such a condition that it is no longer a fitting emblem for display, it should not be cast aside or used in any way that might be viewed as disrespectful to the National colors, but should be destroyed as a whole, privately, preferably by burning or by some other method in harmony with the reverence and respect we owe to the emblem representing our Country.

Other regulations are:

The Flag should never be used as a whole or a part of a costume; as a badge, it should be worn over the left breast.

When the Flag is used as a decoration for cars or floats in a parade it should always be attached to a pole so it floats in the breeze and should never be draped on the car—use bunting. Nor should it be placed where it will become soiled or disfigured.

The Flag should never be used as a cover for a table, box, or desk, but may be used as a covering for a Pulpit or Altar, and nothing should ever rest upon it, unless it be a Bible.

The Flag should never be struck with a gavel. It should never be placed below a person sitting.

"I pledge allegiance to my Flag and to the Republic for which it stands.

One nation, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

STAR-SPANGLED BANNER

When the "Star-Spangled Banner" is played, all present and within hearing should rise and stand at attention until the end. The "Star-Spangled Banner" should never be played as part of a medley or as a march.

THE NATIONAL SOCIETY DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION

So much has been said and written concerning the organization of our Society that before endeavoring to tell of the vast work accomplished by the National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution, the official report N. S. D. A. R., to the Smithsonian Institution, U. S. Document No. 164, Fifty-Fifth Congress is quoted in part:

"* * * The immediate cause of this great patriotic movement was a vote cast in Louisville, Ky., April 30, 1890, by the Sons of the American Revolution. The question arose in their convention whether women should be excluded from their society and the decision was in the affirmative.

"On July 13, 1890, a stirring article appeared in The Washington Post, entitled "Women Worthy of Honor," being the reproduction of a story printed in 1876 by Miss Henrietta Holdrich, the great granddaughter of Hannah Arnett, the Revolutionary heroine. Mrs. Mary Lockwood, of Washington, D. C., roused by the action of the Sons at Louisville, repeated the thrilling history, and asked: "Were there no mothers of the Revolution? Where will the Sons and Daughters of the Revolution place Hannah Arnett?" * * *

Mr. William O. McDowell, a great grandson of Hannah Arnett, who had assisted in organizing the Sons of the American Revolution in New York City, and who from the first voted against the exclusion of women, was contemplating a call to all who were descended from Revolutionary heroes, offering to assist them in forming a society. He immediately wrote a letter to the Washington Post embodying his idea, and concluding with a formal "call for the organization of the Daughters of the American Revolution."

"Five Washington women, each unknown to the others, responded to this call. They were Miss Eugenia Washington, Miss Mary Desha, Mrs. Hannah McL. Wolff, Mrs. Louise Knowlton Brown, and Mrs. Mary Morris Hallowell. Mr. McDowell replied to Miss Desha, suggesting that a meeting be called at once of these five women (whose addresses he inclosed to her), for preliminary organization, election of officers, etc., and that arrangements be made for a grand meeting on Columbus Day, namely, October 11, 1890. Acting upon this suggestion the others were notified by Miss Desha, and by invitation of Mrs. Louise Knowlton Brown the first meeting was held at her residence during the last week of July 1890. Five were present at this meeting—Miss Washington, Miss Desha, Mrs. Wolff, Mrs. Brown, and Mrs. Ellen Hardin Walworth. Owing to the small attendance it was concluded to defer formal action till autumn, and Mr. McDowell was informed of the decision. On July 30, he wrote again, strongly urging that another meeting be called at once, and sending a number of application blanks of the "Sons," a proposed constitution, and an application for membership, with a check for his initiation fee and annual dues. These are kept among the archives of the society.

"Upon the receipt of this letter it was decided to hold another meeting and organize at once. It was called in Mrs. Walworth's apartment at the Langham, Washington, D. C., on August 9, 1890. Many were still absent from the city, and after waiting some time for others who had been notified, the three present, Miss Washington, Miss Desha, and Mrs. Walworth, proceeded with the preliminary organization. The first step taken was to declare the basis of the society a national one, and the name of Mrs. Benjamin Harrison was proposed for president general. On August 10, application papers were sent to her, with the request that she accept that office. The constitution sent by Mr. McDowell was revised and adopted. A board of management was appointed as follows: Mrs. Mary Orr Earle, Mrs. Hannah McL. Wolff, Mrs. Flora Adams Darling, Mrs. Louise Knowlton Brown, Miss Sophonisba P. Breckinridge, Miss Virginia Grisby, and Miss Mary Desha. Mrs. Walworth was chosen secretary and Miss Washington registrar. The last three named began active work at once. Notices of appointment were sent and acceptances received. Letters were written to representative women of different sections of the country inviting them to join the society. In order to give further impetus to the movement a notice was published in The Washington Post of August 18, 1890, by Miss Desha, stating the purposes of the society, the eligibility clause, and requesting that women of Revolutionary descent send in their names to the registrar, 813 Thirteenth Street, Washington, D. C. * * * A meeting was held, as proposed, at the Strathmore Arms on Saturday, October 11, 1890, when a full organization was effected.

"During the congress of 1897, in compliance with a resolution offered by Mrs. B. O. Wilbour, of Rhode Island, four medals were awarded—three founders' medals, one each to Miss Eugenia Washington, Mrs. Ellen H. Walworth, and Miss Mary Desha, and a separate medal to Mrs. Mary S. Lockwood for special service through the press in July, 1890. As the meeting of August 9, 1890, was one of preliminary organization, where officers were appointed and a constitution adopted, it is a simple matter of law that the existence of the society began at that time. This was recognized by the congress of 1898, which declared Miss Eugenia Washington, Mrs. Ellen H. Walworth, and Miss Mary Desha the founders of the organization, awarding them medals as such.

MEMORIAL CONTINENTAL HALL AND ADMINISTRATION BUILDING, WASHINGTON, D. C.

"Realizing the fact that before many years the first workers in this great society will pass away, and with them all opportunity for securing the true history of these early days, we, the officers of the first national board, desire to declare the truth of the foregoing history, and herewith sign our names."

"EUGENIA WASHINGTON,

MRS. MARY V. E. CABELL,
MARY E. MacDONALD,
MARY S. LOCKWOOD,

ALICE M. CLARKE,
MARY H. L. SHIELDS,

Mrs. Lockwood, whose pen was instrumental in the founding of the Society, was unable to attend the first meeting, at which three were present, being at that time in Chicago serving as one of the Lady Managers of the Columbian Exposition. On October 11, 1890, at the Strathmore Arms, then Mrs. Lockwood's home, the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution completed organization, eighteen women signing the formal draft that evening. (Page 710, December 1922 Magazine.)

At a meeting on October 18, 1890, Mrs. Lockwood made the motion to erect a "fire proof building in which to deposit Revolutionary relics and historic papers," and thus started the project to build Memorial Continental Hall, the most magnificent building ever erected by women. The Memorial Continental Hall Committee at a meeting held June 4, 1902, decided to purchase the site on which the building stands. On June 4, 1903, the Building Committee selected Mr. Edward Pearce Casey of New York City to be the architect. On January 8, 1904, his plans and preliminary sketches were approved. The contracts for "Excavation and building foundation" were approved and signed March 18, 1904. On April 19, 1904, during the Thirteenth Continental Congress, the cornerstone was laid under the auspices of the Masonic fraternity—the gavel used being the one with which George Washington laid the cornerstone of the National Capitol in 1793. By the following April work on the central part of the building had progressed sufficiently for the Fourteenth Continental Congress to be held within its walls. The building was completed February 22, 1910. At the Twenty-sixth Continental Congress in April, 1917, final payment was made and Memorial Continental Hall was dedicated free of debt by Mrs. William Cummings Story, then President General.

In 1914 plans were begun for the purchase of the ground directly back of the building and at the present time the Society owns the entire block extending from 17th to 18th Street and C to D Street. This tract of land was loaned to the Government for the use of the Council of National Defense during the World War which erected temporary office buildings thereon. It was through a resolution passed in the 28th Continental Congress that the project of an Administration Building, the need of which had been long felt, was launched. Work was begun immediately and the cornerstone laid on October 19th, 1921, and on February 5, 1923, the working staff and administration equipment of the organization was moved into the new building. The Library and Museum remain in Memorial Continental Hall, together with the offices of the Librarian General and Curator General.

Memorial Continental Hall and the Administration Building, together with furnishings and the land on which they stand represent a value of $1,248,620.19.

Among the many noteworthy gatherings which have been held in the Auditorium of Memorial Continental Hall there have been none greater in the World's History than that of the Limitation of Armament Conference held in 1921-1922, the Auditorium being loaned the Government for that purpose.

Besides our buildings in Washington, D. C., the Daughters of the American Revolution own much property that is historic—chapters having purchased it to prevent its desecration by people with mistaken ideas of progress.

Mrs. Caroline Scott Harrison, wife of Benjamin Harrison then President of the United States was elected the first President General, which position she held until her death, October 25, 1892. Since then the office has been held successively by Mrs. Adlai E. Stevenson (Second and Fourth President General), Mrs. John W. Foster, Mrs. Daniel Manning, Mrs. Charles W. Fairbanks, Mrs. Donald McLean, Mrs. Matthew Scott, Mrs. William Cumming Story, Mrs. George Thacher Guernsey, Mrs. George Maynard Minor, and the present President General, Mrs. Anthony Wayne Cook.

A Committee on Insignia was appointed at one of the early meetings and a design drawn by Dr. George Brown Goode, husband of Mrs. Goode, a member of the Committee, was accepted May 26, 1891, by the Board of Management, which was sent to J. E. Caldwell & Co., and by them constructed in metal. The members of the Board made themselves responsible for a certain number and the first Insignia to go to a member of the Society left Caldwell's July 1, 1891. The design was suggested to Dr. Goode by an old spinning wheel belonging to his grandmother, which is now deposited in the Museum. Thus it was that the Insignia of the greatest women's organization in the world was designed by a mere man. The design was patented September 22, 1891, Serial No. 401584.

The first Chapter was formed in Chicago, March 20, 1891, followed by a Chapter in Atlanta and one in New York. From this time on, chapter formation was rapid and up to November 1, 1923, 1,956 Chapters had been formed in the United States; and one each in Cuba, Mexico, the Philippines, Hawaii, and Paris, France; 194,020 persons had been admitted to membership and included residents of every state and territory of the United States, as well as most of the countries of Europe, and some in Asia and Africa. 748 Real Daughters of Revolutionary Patriots have been admitted to membership in the Society, of whom 29 are living. Since the above figures were obtained there have been over 7,980 admitted to membership and includes one Real Daughter and many new chapters formed.

The 816 persons whose applications were approved on or before October 11, 1891, are Charter Members.

The first Continental Congress was held in the Church of Our Father, February 22, 1892, with Mrs. Harrison presiding and making the speech of welcome. While as early as the spring of 1891 State Regents were appointed, Pennsylvania, New York, Connecticut, Rhode Island, and Virginia being the first five states to have such officers, State Conferences were not officially recognized or mentioned in the Constitution until 1902, in the same year that the office of State Vice Regent was created.

The services of the National Society were offered the President of the United States and the Surgeons General for the Army and Navy for the War with Spain. Organized but eight years, over $65,000.00 was disbursed and 1,700 nurses certified. A steam launch was purchased and presented as tender to the hospital ship, Missouri.

For the part we took in the World War I quote from Report of War Relief Service Committee, April, 1919:

Cash and priced gifts.....$3,730,385.60

One million seven hundred eleven thousand, three hundred seventy-two miscellaneous gifts unpriced. (This does not include 3,562,499 surgical supplies.)

WAR INVESTMENTS

Liberty Loans, Thrift and War Savings Stamps taken by Daughters	$37,032,732.81
N. S. D. A. R. Liberty Loan	100,000.00
Total War Expenditures of Daughters	40,863,118.41
Total Sales of War Investments by Daughters	52,019,379.00

"That the American girl is worthy of all the advantages that can be given her is proved by the splendid answer to the "Call to Colors" made by 279 of our Daughters who enlisted for service in the United States, their services being recognized and paid for by the United States Government.

"One hundred and twenty-five of our Daughters enlisted for foreign service but were not called; but honor is due them because, forgetting self, they answered to roll call for service on foreign soil when the crisis came.

"Two hundred and sixty-two of our Daughters joined that great crusade of women who, the first in the history of the world, left native shores to help struggle on foreign soil with disease and death in the presence of the most horrible war of all time in order that the world might be kept a decent place for the children of men.

"Were there a Service Flag for women, the Service Flag of the Daughters of the American Revolution would have on it today two gold stars, for two of our members have made the supreme sacrifice that Freedom might live.

"We now come to that portion of our report which seems 'the holy of holies' to womanhood today. We greet 7,482 of our Daughters who have given to the world as heroes the child who has lain next their hearts. Daughters representing 9,506 sons and daughters.

"Before 286 of our Daughters whose stars in their Service Flags have turned to gold, we 'spiritually uncover' and pray that they may be given that 'Peace which passeth all understanding'."

$157,000 was raised for Belgian Relief Work by the Daughters.

As an aftermath to the War the National Society installed a water works system at Tilloloy, France, at a cost of $50,000.00, which was completed and water turned on for the first time August 23, 1921. The President General, Mrs. George Maynard Minor, making a special trip to France to attend the dedication.

Perhaps the most telling work the Daughters have undertaken is the gathering in of children from among the foreign elements in our population and teaching them about this country, its institutions, its aims, its general greatness, and above all teaching them a love and reverence for the Flag. Most gratifying results have been achieved from this work, and today there is no small amount of genuine patriotism among Uncle Sam's little citizens of foreign birth. Indeed it is true that there are many instances where the young foreigner is already more deeply rooted in the facts relating to the history of this country than some of our own native born boys and girls. The night schools maintained by our Daughters among the foreigners; the Manual for Immigrants; and our work at Ellis Island are of incalculable value in making worthy citizens of those who seek our shores. 102,860 copies of the Manual were sent out by the National Chairman in charge of the Manual during the year April 15, 1922-April 14, 1923.

There are twelve schools endorsed by the National Society. With the exception of the American Indian Institute all are located in the Southern States. In one year alone over $80,000 passed through the hands of the Treasurer General for Patriotic Education.

The Daughters of the American Revolution were the first in many of our states to begin the preservation of records, and now other patriotic organizations and the states themselves are helping in this most important work.

The office of Librarian General was created in 1896. We owned at that time only 125 books and it has now grown to over 13,000 titles. The character of the library is historical, with special reference to Americana in its subdivisions of genealogy, biography, and local histories. Here throng many students of genealogical data and there has been a great increase of interest in the study of such matters since the World War and the emphasizing of 100% Americanism.

In the museum, which is devoted to the collection of relics of the Colonial and Revolutionary period, there are more than 1,200 historical relics on exhibition in the museum cases.

It would be too huge a task to even attempt to write of the magnificent work in all its ramifications accomplished by the National Society and Chapters since organization. They are "carrying on" in the fullest sense the objects of the Society:

(1) To perpetuate the memory of the Spirit of the men and women who achieved American Independence, by the acquisition and protection of historical spots, and the erection of monuments; by the encouragement of historical research in relation to the Revolution and the publication of its results; by the preservation of documents and relics and of the records of the individual services of the Revolutionary Soldiers and patriots, and by the promotion of celebrations of all patriotic anniversaries.

(2) To carry out the injunction of Washington in his farewell address to the American people, "to promote, as an object of primary importance, institutions for the general diffusion of knowledge," thus developing an enlightened public opinion, and affording to young and old such advantages as shall develop in them the largest capacity for the performing the duties of American Citizens.

(3) To cherish, maintain, and extend the institutions of American freedom, to foster true patriotism and love of country, and to aid in securing for mankind all the blessings of liberty.

MEMORIAL CONTINENTAL HALL, N. S. D. A. R., WASHINGTON, D. C.

WASHINGTON STATE SOCIETY

WASHINGTON STATE PIN

The first State Regent of Washington was Mrs. Edwin George Crabbe (Harriette Palmer), who was appointed in 1894 by Mrs. Adlai E. Stevenson, President General. Mrs. Crabbe, then a resident of Tacoma, was the daughter of United States Senator John M. Palmer of Illinois, and spent much of her time in Washington, D. C. She served 1894-1897. During her administration the pioneer chapter of the State—Mary Ball—was organized, June 22, 1894, in Tacoma—mainly through the efforts of Mrs. Chauncey W. Griggs (Martha Gallup) and Mrs. Edwin F. Jacobs (Clara Ball). The thirteen charter members who met that afternoon at the home of Mrs. Griggs were Mrs. C. W. Griggs, regent; Mrs. Hugh Wallace, vice regent; Mrs. T. F. Hardenbergh, registrar; Mrs. C. B. Jacobs, secretary; Mrs. J. C. Harvey, treasurer; Mrs. John Stallcup, historian; Mrs. Frank Allyn, Mrs. Harrison Foster, Mrs. C. E. Hale, Mrs. E. C. Sherman, Mrs. J. C. Gribble, Mrs. G. S. Gowey, and Mrs. Nellie L. Lehman.

"Thus giving that State, which bears the name of the 'Father of His Country,' representation in that great organization of women whose purpose it is to commemorate and make to be a living, vital force the spirit and the deeds of that brave and inspired body of men who, under his leadership, gave to the world a new concept of liberty—and to us, freedom." (From Miss Delia Keeler's report —1917.)

This little band of patriotic women, in the far northwest corner of these United States, remembered that the mother of Washington had once borne another name in the days of her girlhood—so this first Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution in the state of Washington had the honored privilege of taking that name—Mary Ball—and the Chapter, like the mother of Washington of sterling worth, has ever been foremost in the good works of patriotism and charity—a worthy model and guide for the Chapters following.

Mary Ball Chapter has given the organization two State Regents—the late Mrs. C. W. Griggs (Martha Gallup) and the late Mrs. Henry McCleary (Ada Johnson), also two Vice Presidents General—the late Mrs. Addison G. Foster and Mrs. Henry McCleary.

On September 20, 1895, Rainier Chapter in Seattle was organized—mainly through the efforts of Mrs. John C. Cole, its first Regent.

The first elected State Regent, Mrs. Chauncey W. Griggs (Martha Gallup), Mary Ball Chapter, served as State Regent 1897-1900, during the administrations of Mrs. Adlai E. Stevenson and Mrs. Daniel Manning, Presidents General.

To Mrs. Griggs fell the task of arousing interest and making membership in the D. A. R. valuable and desirable. She says in her second report: "We are assured by the increasing interest manifested by the public in our Society that its formation was a wise and patriotic movement." The Spanish-American War occurred during this administration and much aid was given to the Red Cross and Emergency Corps.

The Chapter of Virginia Dare, Tacoma, was formed January 12, 1900, during Mrs. Griggs' administration.

The late Mrs. George W. Bacon (Ellen D. Bartlett), Rainier Chapter, succeeded Mrs. Griggs and served as State Regent 1900-1903, during the administrations of Mrs. Daniel Manning and Mrs. Chas. W. Fairbanks, Presidents General.

During Mrs. Bacon's term the building of Memorial Continental Hall was decided upon by the National Board and Mrs. Bacon was present in Washington when the plans were discussed and the present one chosen. Mrs. Bacon was the sole objector (so she told the writer) to the narrow hall. She worked enthusiastically and faithfully for the Continental Hall fund. Mrs. Chas. W. Fairbanks visited Seattle in June, 1901, and the Daughters were given the pleasure of meeting her at the home of Mrs. Bacon.

Mrs. Bacon (to quote from her third report in the Magazine of April, 1903, page 630), "called the first State Conference of Washington on June 26, 1902, at the Queen Anne Club house, Seattle, ably seconded by both local chapters who gave a luncheon to their guests, after which came the session. Tacoma was well represented from both chapters (twenty). Mrs. Kuhn, the new Regent from Hoquiam, still raising her Chapter, was present. Thus was instituted the first coming together of state chapters to discuss matters pertaining to them. The question of state organization came up but was deferred until another year, and it depends upon the coming Congress to decide whether there is any use in such an organization."

QUEEN ANNE CLUB HOUSE

At the close of Mrs. Bacon's term there were six Chapters: Esther Reed, Spokane, June 14, 1900; Lady Stirling, Seattle, November 16, 1901; and Robert Gray, Hoquiam, March 7, 1903, were organized during her administration.

Mrs. John A. Parker (Blanche Burnett), Virginia Dare Chapter, served as State Regent 1903-1905, during the administration of Mrs. Charles W. Fairbanks, President General.

Mrs. Parker made the first visit of a State Regent to Eastern Washington, to Esther Reed Chapter. Quoting from Mrs. Parker's first report in the Magazine of June, 1904, page 775: "The Second Annual Conference was held in Tacoma June 16, 1903," (at 1022 North I Street, the beautiful home of Mrs. Parker), "when each Chapter was represented and a State Organization effected." The name of the Organization was changed to "Assembly" instead of "Conference" and the Assembly was to be held at the call of the State Regent. Hostess Chapter, Virginia Dare.

Mrs. Parker also presided over the Third Annual State Assembly held in Tacoma at the Tacoma hotel, June 18, 1904, with Mary Ball Chapter as hostess.

At the laying of the corner-stone of Memorial Continental Hall in Washington on April 19, 1904, the anniversary of the Battle of Lexington, Mrs. Parker was present and, as State Regent, seated on the platform with the other National Officers. By each Daughter in the State responding to the request of the State Regent for a dollar per member the necessary amount of $500.00 was almost raised to place a portrait bust of Washington in Memorial Continental Hall as a gift from the D. A. R. in the State of Washington. Mrs. Parker mentions in her report to the National Congress (1905), "Rainier Chapter has taken the initiative in raising money for the erection of a statue to Washington on the campus of the State University at Seattle."

On the program of the Third Annual Assembly was "A Plan for the Election of State Regent," presented by Virginia Dare Chapter of Tacoma. Also "Tenure of Office of State Regent, limited to two terms of one year each," presented by Rainier Chapter and Lady Stirling Chapter of Seattle.

Mrs. Parker effectively worked during her entire administration towards reducing the debt on Memorial Continental Hall.

Mrs. Moses A. Phelps (Netta W.), Esther Reed Chapter, served as State Regent 1905-1908, during the administration of Mrs. Donald McLean, President General.

Mrs. Phelps served three years, although the by-laws providing for two terms of one year each had been adopted in 1904, as the candidate presented failed to qualify according to the by-laws.

Mrs. Phelps presided over the Fourth Annual State Assembly held at the old Washington hotel, June 10, 1905, Lady Stirling Chapter as hostess. Over the Fifth Annual State Assembly at the Hotel Lincoln, June 23, 1906, hostess chapter, Rainier. A distinguished visitor at this Assembly was Mrs. Eleanor Washington Howard of Virginia. Over the Sixth Annual State Assembly held at the Hotel Westminster, Spokane, May 31 and June 1, 1907, hostess chapter, Esther Reed.

It is to be noted that the Sixth Assembly was the first to hold a one and one-half day session, this having been authorized by the Fifth Assembly as the interest and attendance had increased to such an extent that one day was inadequate. The State Regent mentioned the need of printed reports of the Assembly proceedings with the names and addresses of all D. A. R. Members in the State—and the first State Directory bears the date of 1906.

Mrs. Phelps presided over the Seventh Annual State Assembly, April 11, 1908, held in the Immanuel Presbyterian Church, Tacoma, hostess chapter, Virginia Dare. It is to be noted that the date of the Assembly had been changed to early in April, with the idea of voting upon any National amendments which were to be acted upon at the National Congress meeting the middle of April. Thus it came about that Mrs. Phelps presided over a greater number of our state meetings than any other State Regent—four.

On the program of the Seventh Annual Assembly is the question: "What part shall the D. A. R. take at the A. Y. P. Exposition?" The result of the discussion which followed was that Mrs. Phelps appointed an Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition Committee, Mrs. Eliza Ferry Leary, Rainier Chapter, chairman; Mrs. A. J. Trumbull, Lady Stirling Chapter; Mrs. Theodore F. Hardenbergh, Seattle Chapter; Mrs. Wilbur Todd, Mary Ball Chapter; Mrs. Beverly W. Coiner, Virginia Dare Chapter; Mrs. M. J. Gordon, Esther Reed Chapter; Mrs. J. B. Bridges, Robert Gray Chapter; and Mrs. George E. Filley, Sacajawea Chapter.

Mrs. Phelps appointed Mrs. John A. Parker to represent the D. A. R. at the unveiling of a monument erected by the Pierce County Pioneers on July 5, 1906, at Sequalitchew, to commemorate the first public celebration of the Fourth of July ever held in the State of Washington, 1841. Mrs. Phelps, as State Regent, helped the Governor of the State and all the rest of Mrs. Leary's friends to put Mrs. Leary on the Mount Vernon Ladies' Association, feeling that that was a real service to our State. Mrs. Phelps also says: "The plan of rotation of Chapters in selection of State Regent was the child of my brain." The by-law was largely the work of Virginia Dare Chapter. As completed, this plan of electing the State Regent has been of the utmost importance to the State of Washington—preserving harmony and preventing heart-burnings. She endeavored to promote an interest in the Flag Salute in the schools and Chapters, and the proper hanging of the National Emblem—these were comparatively new ideas at that time—and also promoted the work begun by Mrs. Parker, of placing the portrait bust of Washington in Memorial Continental Hall. During the whole of Mrs. Phelps' administration the by-laws were under discussion.

Chapters organized: Sacajawea, Olympia, November 18, 1905; Seattle, Seattle, May 31, 1906.

Mrs. Albert H. Kuhn (Ida Soule), Robert Gray Chapter, served as State Regent 1908-1909, and declined to serve a second term. She served during the administration of Mrs. Matthew T. Scott, President General. Mrs. Kuhn presided over the Eighth Annual State Assembly, held in the hotel at beautiful Moclips-by-the-Sea, April 1-3, 1909, hostess chapter, Robert Gray.

The enjoyment of this Assembly has lingered long and pleasantly in the memories of those in attendance. The address of welcome by Mrs. J. S. McKee was a marvel of interesting history of the shores on which the Assembly met, and the diction was unusually beautiful. Much of the effort during Mrs. Kuhn's term was directed towards raising funds for the D. A. R. cottage at the A. Y. P. Exposition, and the statue of Washington on the campus of the University.

While in attendance at the Eighteenth Continental Congress, Mrs. Kuhn placed in nomination for Corresponding Secretary General, the name of Mrs.

Elinor Ingersoll Thorne. The State of Washington had not sufficient influence, however, at that time to elect a candidate.

Mrs. Kuhn closed the report of her brief regime with this beautiful sentiment: "I pass the work on to my beloved successor, Mrs. David A. Gove of Seattle Chapter, knowing she will accomplish much of what I only attempted."

Mrs. Kuhn had the unusual assistance of her sister, Mrs. Sarah Soule McMillan Patton, who seldom missed a State Conference (which record she has still maintained during all the passing years) and was constantly among the early delegates to Continental Congress where she upheld the honor of the State of Washington whenever a call was made upon the delegates, and where she made a record for efficient service on the National Credential Committee.

Mrs. David Albert Gove (Eva Weed), Seattle Chapter, served as State Regent 1909-1911, during the administration of Mrs. Matthew T. Scott, President General. She presided over the Ninth Annual State Assembly held at the Woman's Club House in Olympia, April 7, 1910, hostess chapter, Sacajawea. The D. A. R. Ritual was used for the first time in the State at this Assembly. The report of the building, furnishing, and maintenance of the State of Washington D. A. R. cottage at the A. Y. P. Exposition was given by Mrs. Eliza Ferry Leary, chairman of the committee.

D. A. R. COTTAGE, A. Y. P. E.

Mrs. Gove in her report as State Regent gives some space to a charming description of the cottage. She says in part: "To most of us our little cottage at the Exposition proved a gratifying experiment. It served to instruct and entertain about five thousand visitors and furnished a convenient rallying point for Daughters from far and near. Within its walls old ties were strengthened and new ones formed. From it there radiated a spirit of hospitality and friendliness which has contributed much to the prosperity and popularity of the organization while the charm of its simplicity and restfulness, so manifestly enjoyed by many a weary sightseer proves that most satisfactory results may be sometimes accomplished with a small expenditure of money. * * * From the time its doors opened June 1st until they closed in October there was but one day when some hostess from the different Chapters was not present to 'welcome the coming or speed the parting guest.' Much credit is due the committee for the efficient manner in which the business affairs of the building were conducted. * * * The Chapters also merit hearty commendations for their loyal and helpful assistance. * * * The thanks of this Assembly are especially due to Mrs. Eliza Ferry Leary, through whose generosity we were enabled to retain a caretaker, Mrs. Aura Putnam, during the entire period of the Fair. During the summer many prominent Daughters visited the state and cottage."

Also in regard to the Washington Statue, Mrs. Gove says: "Of the various days in which the Daughters figured prominently at the Exposition the one accorded them and the Sons by the A. Y. P. Exposition, June 14—Flag Day, stands out most prominently. On this occasion the statue of General Washington was unveiled with impressive ceremonies and presented to the University by Rainier Chapter, assisted by the Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution, the school children of the State, and the A. Y. P. Commission. Then followed a reception in the Washington State Building—the first and one of the largest given during the Fair."

Three mottoes were presented for consideration for a State Motto. The one chosen, "Patriotism—Reverence—Remembrance," was presented by Mrs. A. J. Trumbull of Lady Stirling Chapter, First State Vice Regent. The Badge Committee, Mrs. Edmund Bowden, chairman, Mrs. W. B. Chandler, and Mrs. J. M.

Vallentine, reported the selection of a badge, which was adopted. (NOTE: This same badge is still in use—1923.) By-laws and directory were ordered printed—Mrs. Leary pledging the money for printing the books.

It was reported that on the advice of Mrs. Sara Howard Caldwell (granddaughter of John Augustine Washington) the portrait bust of Washington, pledged during the regime of Mrs. Parker, was to be a copy of the Houdon Statue at Richmond, Virginia, as it was considered by the family to be the best likeness of Washington. It was ordered, since Continental Hall was ready to place it, and Mrs. Gove presented it in April to Continental Congress.

Mrs. Gove presided over the Tenth Annual State Assembly held in Bagley Hall, University of Washington, Seattle, April 8, 1911, hostess Chapter, Seattle. At the election of officers nominations by ballot proved very tedious.

Chapters organized: Narcissa Whitman, Yakima, June 19, 1909.

Mrs. Walter James Reed (Lydia MacMillan), Narcissa Whitman Chapter, served as State Regent 1911-1913, during the administration of Mrs. Matthew T. Scott, President General.

Mrs. Reed presided over the Eleventh Annual Assembly, held in the Taocma Hotel, Tacoma, April 6, 1912, hostess chapter, Mary Ball. An amendment was presented at the Assembly to simplify the method of nominating state officers and was carried. The question of Immigration was taken up and the Immigrants' Manual used by the National Society was introduced by Mrs S. J. Chadwick, chairman, under the name of "The Little Green Book," a project of the Connecticut Daughters. The Book was strongly endorsed by the Assembly and copies ordered.

Mrs. Reed also presided over the Twelfth Annual Assembly held in the Commercial Hotel, North Yakima, April 2-3, 1913, hostess chapter, Narcissa Whitman. Immigration was again an important topic and for the first time was on the program under that head. A proposed change in the grouping of the stars in the flag was quickly rejected. The elections were without contest, only one name being placed in nomination for each position to be filled, and were made unanimous. "Ladies, your officers are all elected," said Mrs. Reed at the conclusion of a half hour of harmonious balloting, "and I doubt if any mere man's convention could match the neatness and dispatch with which we have taken care of this part of the forenoon's business."

Each State Regent's administration has had some special work presented and about the time Mrs. Reed took office a great interest in "Good Roads" developed, which naturally brought in our D. A. R. work of the Old Trails Roads. Mrs. Reed attended the first Good Roads meeting held in the State of Washington. It was held in Tacoma and she there explained what the D. A. R. of Washington "were after"—to make the Old Trails Roads the National Highway. The National Old Trails Roads bill was being presented while Mrs Reed was attending the National Congress in 1912, and she was asked by Miss Gentry of the Missouri Daughters to go with her before the Agricultural committee and talk for our state's portion of it, viz.: the "Old Oregon Trail" which runs through the western part of our State to Olympia. Senator Borah of Idaho had charge of the meeting and after the adjournment Miss Gentry and Mrs. Reed called on Champ Clark, then speaker of the House and asked him to present this bill so that the State of Washington could get its portion of the Good Roads appropriation. He said he would do what he could for us.

At this Assembly the report of the Jurisprudence committee, Mrs. Francette P. Maring, Chairman, dealt largely with the apportionment of delegates from the Chapters to the State Assembly, as in accordance with the rulings of the National Society it must be, in part at least, a delegated body for the next Assembly.

Also at this Assembly Virginia Dare Chapter asked the endorsement of a bill to be presented to the next Legislature making the Flag Salute a part of the opening exercises in every school room in the state. This later became a part of the State Flag Law.

Chapters organized: Marcus Whitman, Everett, June 14, 1911; Kennewick, Kennewick, May 15, 1912; Chief Whatcom, Bellingham, October 20, 1912.

Mrs. Henry McCleary (Ada Johnson), Mary Ball Chapter, served as State Regent, 1913-1915, during the administration of Mrs. William Cummings Story, President General.

Mrs. McCleary served during a time of great stress—the beginning of the World War in Europe; the menace of the I. W. W. in this country; the necessity of making a good American of the foreigner in our midst lest he become a disturbing element; were all problems of her administration, and she arose to every requirement as few women are able to do.

Her keen, judicial mind was ever alive to the best interests of the organization, both in the State and on the National Board. Her unusual ability soon became apparent and her views on the menace of the red flag were widely noted; Justice for the workers; fairness for the employer; and protection for our Republic and her citizens.

She placed a great value on our organization and the worth of its influence in national and civic affairs (not politics). She found nearly nine hundred Daughters in the state when she became State Regent, and she felt that we should become a power for good, and to that end she employed all her time, and strength, of mind and body.

Mrs. McCleary presided over the Thirteenth Annual Assembly held in the East room of Davenport's, Spokane, April 3-4, 1914, hostess chapter Esther Reed. At this Assembly for the first time delegates presented their credential cards.

The Old Oregon Trail became a vital interest. Sacajawea Chapter had erected a monument at Olympia to mark the end of the Old Oregon Trail and Mrs. McCleary had appointed a Committee, composed of Mrs. O. G. Ellis, Virginia Dare Chapter, Chairman; Mrs. C. J. Lord, Mrs. Eliza Ferry Leary, Mrs. William Irvine, Mrs. H. W. Patton, and Mrs. Herbert Hunt, to trace the Trail from Olympia down the western part of the State to the Columbia, and there at the boundary between the States of Oregon and Washington on the inter-state bridge to place a suitable monument. The style of marker and the financing of the work were discussed at this Assembly. Besides the Oregon Trail another committee reported for the first time; "Historic Spots" of the State, Mrs. Willard Smith, Chairman.

Mrs. Eliza Ferry Leary was heartily endorsed by the Assembly for Vice President General

The following is a portion of a remarkable address given by Mrs. McCleary at this Assembly:

"One cannot keep in touch with the work of this organization without becoming impressed with the vastness of its opportunities, the extent of its responsibilities. Consecrated to the patriotic endeavor to 'perpetuate the memory of the men and women who achieved American Independence,' and the conservation of the great principles for which they contended, we believe them to be of inestimable value to the youth of today. Yet, we believe in progress and with true patriotism we want to apply the spirit of the Revolution to the changed conditions of modern life.

"We want to remember our obligations to the present as well as to the past, and inheriting the spirit as well as the blood of the ancestry we honor, we desire to do well our part in our beloved land. And all the monuments and tablets and reverence which we give our forefathers will count for little if we fail to measure up to our responsibilities and to live so that the future generations may honor us. In this spirit our work has reached out further and still further until its influence is felt in almost every avenue of woman's work; patriotic education, to prevent the desecration of the Flag, and the welfare of women and children.

"Serious-minded women everywhere are concerned over what seems to be the careless tendencies of today. The immodest dance, the immodest dressing, the problem plays, the suggestive songs, and the class of fiction largely read, demand the attention of thoughtful women; and one of the hopeful signs of the times is the fact that such organizations as ours do not hesitate to voice their disapproval of these things and encourage work along whatsoever lines are lovely, pure, and of good report."

Mrs. McCleary also presided over the Fourteenth Annual Assembly held in the Ball room of the New Washington Hotel, Seattle, March 26-27, 1915, hostess chapter, Rainier. This was one of the most elaborate programs ever given at a State Assembly—in honor of our "coming of age," as Mrs. McCleary said. Twenty-one years since the first chapter was organized in this state. For the first time on a program were: A greeting from the State President of the Sons of the American Revolution, a message from our sister state, Oregon, by the State Regent, Mrs. John F. Beaumont, and an address by the late Governor Ernest Lister.

The Old Oregon Trail—its progress and financing—was presented by Mrs. Ellis. Unfortunately it was not possible to place the markers during Mrs. McCleary's administration.

In 1914 a request came to Mrs. McCleary from the National Society for a Washington State Flag to hang in Memorial Continental Hall. Mrs. McCleary appointed a committee; Mrs. S. J. Chadwick, Sacajawea Chapter, chairman; Mrs. E. B. Judson, Virginia Dare Chapter, and Miss Edith Weller, Mary Ball Chapter, who looked up the matter at Olympia and found we had no State Flag. At the 1915 Assembly Mrs. Chadwick submitted a design for a state banner; a green background for the Evergreen State, upon which was the seal of the State of Washington, viz.: the head of Washington. This design was endorsed by the Assembly and one ordered purchased. Upon reaching Washington in April, Mrs. McCleary, Mrs. Leary and Mrs. Patton had a State banner made from this design which Mrs. McCleary presented to Memorial Continental Hall from the Daughters of the American Revolution of the State of Washington in the absence of an official State Flag. This banner is 3x5 ft., of rich green silk, heavy gold fringe, and the bust of Washington, as it appears in the State Seal, painted upon the banner. (NOTE: This is now the official state flag, adopted by the Legislature February 10, 1923, Senate bill 154.)

Mrs. McCleary had been unremitting in her efforts to help clear the debt from Memorial Continental Hall, and when in 1914 Mrs. William Cummings Story, President General, announced that she desired to purchase additional land in the rear of the Hall, Mrs. McCleary, in the name of the Chapters, bought one square foot for each Chapter in this state at $1.25 per square foot—for which the Chapters were to pay and which they did.

Mrs. McCleary's report at the Continental Congress in 1915 of the work accomplished during her term, especially her interest in the Old Trails Roads, was so enthusiastic that it brought her further honors during the term of her successor, Mrs. Bowden, being appointed National Chairman of the Old Trails Roads Committee.

Chapters organized: Meriwether Lewis Chapter, Chehalis, April 11, 1914; John Kendrick Chapter, Wenatchee, May 20, 1914; Narcissa Prentiss Chapter, Walla Walla, February 22, 1915.

Mrs. Edmund Bowden (Angie Burt), Rainier Chapter, served as State Regent 1915-1917, during the administration of Mrs. William Cummings Story, President General.

This was a busy administration because of the unsettled international conditions of our country and the preparations to aid in Red Cross and other necessary work when it became apparent that the United States would join the Allies. The keynote was a constant plea for "Preparedness"—this policy being entirely in accord with the stand taken by the National Board and appeals from Mrs. Story, President General.

The visit of the Liberty Bell, which passed through our State on its way to the Panama Pacific Exposition, on July 14, 1915 was quite an event in our State history. With September came the call to the first Conference ever held by a President General on the Pacific Coast, September 14, in San Francisco—San Francisco, the home of the very inception of the Society of the Sons of the American Revolution. It was attended by the State Regent who found the Conference interesting and instructive. In October came our "Silver Jubilee" which occasioned much work in the search for authentic dates and history of the twenty-five years of our organization. The Silver Teas throughout the State netted a fair sum to be sent for Memorial Continental Hall fund.

In March, 1916, the State Regent was invited to attend the "Third Annual State Conference of Oregon," where she delivered an address. She was accompanied by Mrs. McCleary who spoke on the Old Trails Roads. While at that meeting the State Regent was so interested in the account of plans for a chapter to be formed at the State University of Oregon in Eugene, by Miss Guppy, Oregon State Vice Regent, that the "Fourth Recommendation" in her report at the Fifteenth Annual Assembly was: "That steps be taken to form a chapter among the young women of the University of Washington."

Mrs. Bowden presided over the Fifteenth Annual Asembly held in the Elks' Home in Everett, March 31, April 1, 1916, hostess chapter, Marcus Whitman. The State Regent had borrowed our State banner from Memorial Continental Hall and it hung over the speaker's desk.

The plans for our most extensive state work, the Old Oregon Trail, which were made with the best possible results according to the money given the committee, were explained by Mrs. Ellis, chairman, who stated that: "Everything is in readiness for the placing of the ten markers along the Oregon Trail this fall. The fountain, which is to be placed on the inter-state bridge is beautifully emblematic of the 'Spirit of the West'."

Mrs. Leary was nominated for re-election for the office of Vice President General and elected at the following Continental Congress. The plan of a D. A. R. Belgian Tag Day, April 8, 1916, was presented and carried. $1,927.44 was sent for Belgian relief from the D. A. R. of this State.

The State Regent, on behalf of the State Society, at the Twenty-fifth Continental Congress, invited Mrs. Story, President General, to hold a Conference in this State, to thereby increase interest in our organization. Therefore the first official visit of a President General to this State was on the sixteenth of August, 1916. The Conference, which was largely attended by Daughters from all over the State, convened in the Scottish Rite Temple in Seattle. There were greetings from Mr. O. J. C. Dutton, Vice President General and President of the State Society S. A. R. and Mrs. George C. Squires, State Regent of Minnesota. Welcome by the State Regent; addresses by the late Governor Lister and Judge Thomas Burke. Introduction of the President General by Mrs. Eliza Ferry Leary, Vice President General. Mrs. Story then assumed charge of the Conference with a call to order and an address filled with helpfulness.

Chief among the reports were those of Mrs. Henry McCleary, chairman National Old Trails Road committee, and by Mrs. O. G. Ellis, chairman Old Oregon Trail committee. The report of Mrs. N. E. Walton, chairman State Immigration committee, was so fine that the President General declared she wished it might be read at Continental Congress. Five-minute talks from Chapter Regents by way of introducing them. Reminiscenses by the Ex-State Regents. Closing remarks and recommendations by the President General.

On August 15, the day preceding the opening of the Conference, Mrs. Story's first official act was unveiling the Boulder erected by Lady Stirling Chapter to mark the "Battle of Seattle." August 17th was spent in Tacoma—Mrs. Story addressing "her" Daughters at the Tacoma Hotel. That night was spent at the country home of Mrs. John A. Parker, ex-State Regent, at American Lake. Mrs. Story again making an address to the S. A. R. and the D. A. R. at the Country Club. The 18th was spent at Olympia and in the unveiling of the first Old Oregon Trail Marker at Tumwater by the President General. This occasion was honored by the presence of Governor Lister, General Hazard Stevens, Mrs. Henry McCleary, Mrs. Eliza Ferry Leary, Vice President General, Mrs. O. G. Ellis, state chairman Old Oregon Trail committee, Mr. O. J. C. Dutton, and other officers. The State Regent accepted the first finished work of the Old Oregon Trail committee for the D. A. R. from Mrs. Ellis, chairman and Mr. Dutton for the S. A. R. The Governor accepted for the State and the Mayor of Tumwater for that town. Governor and Mrs. Lister had most graciously invited Mrs. Story and party to be their guests at the Executive Mansion where, in the evening, a large reception was given for the S. A. R. and the D. A. R. Our organization in this State should certainly appreciate the courtesy of the Governor and his wife as Mrs. Story is said to have remarked that such entertainment had never been extended by a Governor to the Daughters anywhere

UNVEILING OF MARKER
Tenino, August 18, 1916

before. From Olympia Mrs. Story was obliged to return to Seattle on account of illness.

OREGON TRAIL D. A. R. AND S. A. R. MARKERS

The second and third markers were unveiled at Tenino and Bush's Prairie on September sixth. The fourth and fifth markers were unveiled at Centralia and Grand Mound on October twelfth. The next unveiling of markers was at Jackson's Prairie and at Toledo on October twenty-fifth. The last unveilings were at Kelso, Woodland, and Kalama on October 26th. For much help in locating the places to be marked and in the placing of markers the Daughters owe a debt of gratitude to the late General Hazard Stevens, who represented the S. A. R. and who as a boy traveled to Olympia via this trail.

The marking of the Old Oregon Trail—a finished work! Of the greatest importance to our State of any work undertaken!

Mrs. Bowden presided over the Sixteenth Annual Assembly held in the Elks' Hall, Seattle, March 30-31, 1917, hostess chapter, Lady Stirling. There was present at this Assembly Mr. Elmer M. Wentworth, President General of the S. A. R., who was a guest of the Sons in Seattle at the time. He was introduced by Mr. Walter Beals, President of the State S. A. R. Oregon's message was brought by Mrs. Isaac Lee Patterson, State Regent. A resolution was passed urging the plan for Universal Military Training and telegrams sent to the President and Congressmen. The State Regent read the recommendation of the Board that historic spots on the San Juan Islands be marked as the next State work.

Early in February, 1917, came the first real alarm of war with Germany. It was decided to work auxiliary to the Red Cross in those cities having Red Cross branches, and also to do other American Relief work. Mrs. Howard A. Hanson was appointed to take charge of all D. A. R. military work in the State. Mrs. Ellis reported that the unveiling of the Fountain would unavoidably have to be postponed.

Chapters organized: Betsey Wright, Newport, October 31, 1916; Michael Trebert, Port Angeles, November 6, 1916; Margaretta Painter, Ellensburg, April 19, 1917.

Mrs. Overton Gentry Ellis (Jennie Wilhite), Virginia Dare Chapter, served as State Regent 1917-1919, during the administration of Mrs. George Thacher Guernsey, President General.

This was the period of the World War—Mrs. Ellis taking office in April, a few weeks after the United States declared war. The work of the D. A. R. in conjunction with the Red Cross had just been inaugurated, and was carried on throughout this—the "War Administration" with extraordinarily large results. In July, 1917, Mrs. Ellis, as State Regent of the D. A. R., was appointed by the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States, William G. McAdoo, State Chairman of the Women's Liberty Loan Committee for Washington and instructed to organize the women of the State to promote War Finance. Later Sec'y McAdoo added the duty of State Chairman of War Savings Stamps to the Liberty Loan. The D A. R. of the State took active part and leadership in this government organization for war work until the close of the Victory Loan.

The National Society D. A. R. in October, 1917, organized the War Relief Service committee, making each State Regent with the State Chapter Regents the Committee for each state, instructing Chapters to send required money and articles directly to the N. S. D. A. R. committee. This plan continued throughout the war and after, until the National War Relief Service committee made its final report to the D. A. R. Congress. Earnest, faithful work responded to this war demand—but it caused many changes in former customs and new methods of work for this war period.

Mrs. Ellis presided over the Seventeenth Annual State Assembly held at the Elks' Club, Bellingham, March 15-16, 1917; hostess chapter, Chief Whatcom.

Mrs. J. S. McKee of the State Council of Defense in Charge of Women's War Work gave an inspiring address and thoughtful direction of the war work. This was one of the events of the Assembly.

At this Assembly a motion was made to amend the by-laws to make all National Officers elected from this State life members of the Board. Under the ruling of the National Council of Defense the ceremony of unveiling the Oregon Trail Fountain at Vancouver, Washington, at the inter-state bridge was again deferred

Mrs. Ellis presided over the Eighteenth Annual Assembly held at the Elks' Hall, Tacoma, February 25-26, 1919; hostess chapter, Virginia Dare. The date of this Assembly had been advanced to accommodate the President General, Mrs. Guernsey, who could be present on that date—the first President General to visit a regular Assembly, and her address was the event of the Assembly.

The name of the State meeting was changed at this time from "Assembly" to "Conference" as for the first two Conferences, and the name of the Immigration committee was changed to "Americanization." One of the features of the Conference was a trip to Camp Lewis with luncheon at the Hostess House, Mary Ball Chapter as hostess.

The reports of Mesdames Huffer and Hanson on War Relief Work showed that every requirement of the Red Cross had been met and that thousands of garments, etc. were the result of the D. A. R. work—much of which the Daughters entirely financed.

Since the State Regent had been requested by the National Society to confine the activities of the State Society to War Work, extracts from the reports of these two Chairmen showing the splendid achievement of the Daughters should be given, for, quoting from Mrs. Huffer's report: "It shows such a wonderful amount of work accomplished that you cannot help feeling proud of your State, your Organization, and yourselves."

Mrs. Huffer says in part:

"Aside from supplying articles of many kinds to individuals in different branches of the Service, where personal interest or affection prompted the gifts, most of our help has naturally been given to the camps and forts in our own State, Camp Lewis, Forts Lawton, Flagler, Worden, Casey, George Wright, and others.

"256 hours have been spent in the dreary work of mending—800 garments being the result. For the Army we have knit 6,688 garments, for the Navy 2,705, Aviation 28, Overseas 49, and for the Red Cross, aside from those reported to Mrs. Hanson, 1,921—making a knitting total of 11,240 garments.

"Given or sent directly to 'home boys' by the Chapters of their towns were 2,155 housewives, 461 comfort kits, 305 property bags, 548 scrap books, 17 games, 10 picture puzzles, 27 smileage books, $14.00 for tobacco, a special box of comforts costing $10.00 for one sailor, a fund of $30.00 as spending money for one soldier boy; while one Chapter thoughtfully provided 1,364 articles for their boys' comfort, part of them for emergency hospital use, the rest for sanitary purposes, including among the latter 152 tooth brushes and an equal number of tubes of paste, 4 boxes of Ivory soap and 25 yards of mosquito netting; while another Chapter provided each local soldier with a property bag, housewife and comfort kit, the latter two completely filled. One lad lacking the indispensible wrist watch was made happy by a gift of one from a sympathetic chapter. 20 kid-lined vests went to Rockwell Aviation Field with other gifts costing $95.00. * * * The training ship "Princeton" was made happy by the gift of a Victrola and 20 records. Other ships specially remembered by us have been the ship "Monoghan"—a complete knitted set being given to each sailor, and the "Cruiser Tacoma," whose men were similarly treated. 12 binoculars have been turned in for the use of the Navy."

"To the Overseas men 99 Christmas boxes have been sent, besides 200 comfort kits, many games and small articles, quantities of tobacco, cigarettes and chocolate. Subscriptions to many magazines have been made.

"The Guard Camps have been well cared for: mending, entertaining, screening of kitchens, etc., etc. * * *

"To the Hospitals, over 2,600 glasses of jelly and 400 jars of preserves have been sent, besides many boxes, cases, barrels and quantities otherwise indefinitely reported, which is difficult to estimate. One member has given a tea wagon for a convalescent ward, another a complete set of surgical instruments, a third $60.00 for special comforts for the men, while from various Chapters have come 2 nice bath robes and many boxes of fruit. Certain wards have been adopted by Chapters and the men in them have been their special care. At Christmas time the sufferers have been cheered up as much as possible by timely celebrations, including trees and stockings with gifts, wreaths and decorations.

"Hospitality is a big subject by itself. At all times our members have given freely and gladly of their time, strength and resources in entertaining the men, both sick and well, in any and all ways that could be suggested. Many Chapters have no record of the number of men entertained, simply stating that they have kept open house, have had soldier guests for week ends very generally or have made their homes, as far as possible, homes for the soldiers. We have reported 1,596 men received as house guests, 1,879 as table guests, 1,150 entertained at clubs, hotels and public places by Daughters. An enormous amount of work has been done for Soldiers' and Sailors' Clubs, many of our members serving as hostesses, arranging dances and entertainments. * * * One Chapter gives $5.00 a month to the "Coffee Fund" of this Club, another a cookie can always filled, and also provides magazines and newspapers regularly. Two Chapters have had rooms fitted up with rugs, pianos, cots, books and pictures so that men in town for the night or for a week end may use them freely and feel at home there.

"Members generally have assisted in Salvage work—acting as chairmen, saleswomen, collecting the articles donated, sometimes delivering them also, besides contributing more or less treasured and useful articles from their homes.

"Home Relief is a comparatively new line of work but much has already been done toward relieving distress among the families of the absent soldiers, one Chapter alone reporting 150 wives of soldiers cared for. We have aided many of the organizations which have all been working for the same end. * * *

"The United War Work Campaign Fund has received approximately $655.00, the Y. M. C. A. $987.50 in cash, 1,549 books, 512 records, many subscriptions of magazines and papers, many sweaters for their workers, and through the aid of two Chapters over $3,000.00 was raised for its war fund.

"The Y. W. C. A. $805.00 and unlimited help in its work along all lines, for its hostess houses, parties for the enlisted men and in many ways familiar to you all.

"The Knights of Columbus $40.00, Salvation Army $100.00, Jewish Relief $17.00, American Library Association $1,250.00 and 490 books. * * * For one special line of War Relief Work (unspecified) one Chapter raised $930.00 while another brought Schuman-Heink to their city and cleared $250.00 for their War Fund. The Smith Unit has received $175.00, the Furlough Fund $12.00, Mothers' Club $25.00. * * * The American Fund for French Wounded has been well supported but unfortunately is one of the cases where modesty has submerged us and no record kept. 35 French Orphans have been adopted by our members. Liberal contributions have been made toward replanting the orchards so ruthlessly destroyed as well as toward "rechickening" France. Many have been the layettes and other garments made with loving care for the refugees though we have the incomplete report of 633. Our quota for Tilloloy has been raised.

"Belgium has been sent $311.00 (this in addition to the large sum raised Belgian Tag Day), and 638 garments besides gifts reported variously as 300 pounds of clothing, many boxes, several complete layettes, etc. Armenia has been materially helped through drives and many individual contributions, and a reported amount of $51.00.

"Under the head of "Service Abroad" we have 3 Daughters serving as nurses, one as a Canteen worker, one in a War Insurance Bureau, and one as a phone operator in the U. S. Signal Service Corps. We have a dietitian in the U. S. Government Hospital, one Yeomanette at a shipyard, one an an Exemption Board, and one a Reconstruction Aid at Camp Dix. Minute Women in this State have been a wonderful help in the various drives and have not spared themselves when useful in any emergency. We have 60 Daughters who are Minute Women.

A partial report on Liberty Loans show that of the four issues, Chapters have taken $1,100.00, individual members $344,350.00, and we are 100% in our subscriptions to the D. A. R. Liberty Loan of $100,000.00. We have taken to date in War Savings Stamps $4,615.00.

"One student has been sent to the School for National Service in Washington, D. C. * * * Our members have worked tirelessly in all drives, singing and speaking for Liberty Loans. * * *

"Every Chapter reports some special or unusual work and I regret being unable to tell you of them all. During the "Flu" epidemic the Daughters in many instances gave their services as emergncy nurses. One Chapter gave practical and timely help when fire visited a neighboring town, sending blankets, food and clothing. The Red Cross branch in one place was organized, financed and officered by members of one Chapter until it was well established when they promptly became its members and are still its leaders.

"Lunches have been served to troops when passing through towns and in many cases box lunches provided in large numbers. The Community Canning Kitchens have been used with good results. * * * One of the most practical helps given by any Chapter is that of one in the fruit country, whose members during the harvest went out into the orchards to work, or took the places of men in offices, or took care of children, thus releasing many workers to save the precious fruit. These instances are but a few of the many fine things our members have done."

The following exceedingly condensed report by Mrs. Hanson shows the splendid co-operation of the Daughters with the Red Cross:

February 10, 1917, Mrs. Edmund Bowden appointed Mrs. Howard A. Hanson State Chairman for Red Cross work among the Daughters of the American Revolution. As the work grew, she appointed Mrs. W. W. Reed, Secretary. When Mrs. Ellis became State Regent in April, 1917, she reappointed the same ladies.

D. A. R. Red Cross work was taken up by practically every chapter in the state. As there were only three Red Cross chapters in the state when the work began, it was necessary to direct it according to instructions from the Seattle chapter, but as local Red Cross chapters were formed, each D. A. R. chapter worked directly with them.

In two cities it was the Daughters who actually formed the Red Cross chapters. In several smaller towns individual members assisted in forming either chapters or auxiliaries whichever were suited to the location. Each D. A. R. chapter reported all members working in some auxiliary of the Red Cross. Many of the Daughters of the American Revolution held responsible executive positions in the Red Cross and other war activities. Mrs. McKee, the head of woman's work for this state, is a D. A. R.

The following covers all work reported by chapters for the period from February, 1917, to April, 1919:

Money given to Red Cross	$4,924.04
Money raised in D. A. R. Concession at Carnival in Seattle, summer of 1918	410.88
Articles given to Red Cross:
(a) Knitted garments	1,876
(b) Hospital supplies	10,375
(Of these, 785 were large articles such as sheets, etc.)
Gifts to Soldiers	7,363
Gun wipes	12,050
(Also quantities, not reported by numbers)
Articles made from Red Cross materials:
(a) Knitted garments	3,689
(b) Surgical dressings	23,235
(c) Hospital supplies	19,263

These two reports, one from April, 1917 to February, 1919 and the other from February, 1917, to April, 1919, are splendid examples of the spirit shown by the Daughters everywhere—our membership in the State at this time being less than one thousand. It is to be regretted that no reports are available for the remaining eight months of the War when the Daughters in this State more than tripled the above figures.

Chapters organized: Eliza Hart Spalding, Pullman, November 30, 1917; Mary Lacy, Centralia, January 12, 1918; University of Washington, Seattle, April 4, 1918; Fort Vancouver, Vancouver, February 18, 1919.

Mrs. George H. Goble (Fannie Smith), Esther Reed Chapter, served as State Regent 1919-1921, during the administrations of Mrs. George T. Guernsey and Mrs. George Maynard Minor, Presidents General.

Mrs. Goble presided over the Nineteenth Annual State Conference held in the Elks' Temple at Walla Walla, April 7-8, 1920, hostess chapter, Narcissa Prentiss.

Mrs. Goble's term was a period of re-construction, the urgent needs of the war over the organization entered actively into the needs of the present at this Conference.

The Conference unanimously endorsed Mrs. Henry McCleary for Vice President General. Mrs. McCleary was also the recipient of a singular honor—having been notified the day before that she had been appointed by the President General, Mrs. George T. Guernsey, to place the Memorial Wreath upon the tomb of Washington that year at Mount Vernon.

Mrs. Walton's report on Americanization told what her committee had done to combat the evil effects of literature sent out by the radicals. She referred to misleading proceedings of the trial at Montesano sent out by the so-called "Labor Jury."

The work of amending the by-laws was presented by Mrs. McCleary in the absence of Mrs. S. J. Chadwick, chairman. Mrs. Edmund Bowden, compiler of War Service Records, gave instructions in the manner of filling out questionnaires, and reported that up to date four hundred twenty-three service men and women had been reported. An instructive and exhaustive report was given upon the location of historic spots in the state by Mrs. J. B. Davidson of Margaretta Painter Chapter.

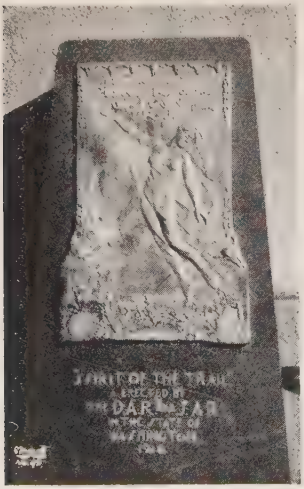
Mrs. Goble presided over the Twentieth Annual Conference held in the Marie Antoinette Ballroom of the Davenport Hotel, Spokane, April 7-8, 1921, hostess chapter, Esther Reed.

The reports were largely in regard to the perpetuation of State landmarks of historical value and histories of women of our State, also continuing the work of Americanization in various ways. Mrs. Bowden's report as compiler of War Service Records was read by Mrs. W. S. Walker. Mrs. Bowden felt that more names might be added.

Mrs. W. S. Walker appeared at one of the sessions in the costume she was to wear in a series of tableaux given by the committee on Historical Research and Preservation of Records, N. S. D. A. R. during Continental Congress. Each tableau was to honor one woman from each state. Mrs. Walker chose to represent Narcissa Whitman and her costume was of that period. The dress was one worn in 1832 at a reception for Henry Clay and Andrew Jackson when they were opponents for the Presidency, and is now owned by Mrs. C. E. Owens. The collar worn by Mrs. Walker belonged to Narcissa Whitman herself.

Mrs. Goble and Mrs. McCleary presented the newly organized Chapters with beautiful silk flags.

The project of the University of Washington Chapter D. A. R. House was first broached at this Conference.



D. A. R. AND S. A. R. FOUNTAIN Placed on Inter-State Bridge over Columbia River Marking Beginning Oregon Trail in Washington

Mrs. Goble reported the dedication of the Fountain marking the beginning of the Old Oregon Trail at Vancouver, Wn., placed on the inter-state bridge over the Columbia River. Quoting Mrs. Goble: "Some of the principal speakers failed to keep their appointment, so the State Regent did her best and the Vice President General (Mrs. McCleary) stood nobly by and sat up most of the night to help out—Bless her heart!"

To quote our valued ex-State Regent, Mrs. Moses Phelps: "The tense and quickened patriotic feelings awakened by the World War has greatly facilitated the formation of Chapters in these later years," and this Mrs. Goble found to be the case. She took great satisfaction in knowing that she had induced the one chapter of Daughters of the Revolution in the State (Spokane) to disband—all becoming Daughters of the American Revolution under the chapter name of "Spokane."

Chapters organized: Father Wilbur Chapter, Sunnyside, November 17, 1920; Ann Washington Chapter, Mt. Vernon, January 10, 1921; Spokane Chapter, Spokane, April 13, 1921.

Mrs. William Sherman Walker (Flora A. Bredes), Lady Stirling Chapter, served as State Regent 1921-1923, during the administration of Mrs. George Maynard Minor, President General.

Mrs. Walker presided over the Twenty-first Annual State Conferenc, held in the Tacoma hotel, Tacoma, February 20-21-22, 1922, hostess chapter, Mary Ball. This Conference was especially honored and inspired by the wise counsel of the President General, Mrs. Minor. Other guests present from the National Board were: Mrs. Anthony Wayne Cook, Vice President General from Pennsylvania, and Mrs. Livingston L. Hunter, Treasurer General.

It was voted that the state should furnish the room of the Organizing Secretary General in the new Administration Building in Washington, and the full amount, $1,500.00, was subscribed at one session.

ORGANIZING SECRETARY GENERAL'S ROOM
Administration Building, Washington, D. C.

The Conference voted to raise the State dues to one dollar ($1.00) per capita. Two volumes of War Service Records were reported completed, bound, and delivered to the National Society.

The next most notable work as a State unit was the payment of $500.00 towards furnishing a house for our State University Chapter of Young Women.

A silk flag given to the Chapter having the greatest increase in subscriptions to the Magazine was won by Lady Stirling Chapter, Ann Washington Chapter winning the flag for largest increase in membership. Patriotic work of all kinds flourished during the year, educational work among the ex-service men, presenting flags, etc. A State pin was adopted at this Conference, which may be obtained from J. E. Caldwell & Co.

Americanization has always been a large work and the University of Washington Chapter having done such excellent work in this line it was reported the University arranged to give them credits in the Sociology department for this outside work.

At this Conference Mrs. H. T. Bredes was elected Second Vice Regent of the State, thus effecting a very pleasing and unusual combination of officers on the State Board—the daughter, Mrs. Walker, State Regent—the mother, Mrs. Bredes, serving on her Board as Vice Regent.

Mrs. Walker personally presented to the State Society an illuminated D. A. R. insignia. She also presented to the Thirty-first Continental Congress in 1922, a large book containing priceless autographs of famous men associated with the Revolutionary War. The book contains the signature of Louis XVI on a document dated December 29, 1779, at Versailles. Other signatures in the book include those of George III., Lafayette, and many of the famous men and generals of the Revolutionary period in some way connected with the struggle for American liberty. Mrs. Walker also presented a finely preserved copy of the Bible, known as the Geneva Bible, of the edition published in 1608.

Mrs. Walker presided over the Twenty-second Annual State Conference held in the Elks' Club rooms, Yakima, April 5, 6, 7, 1923, hostess chapter, Narcissa Whitman. Miss Anne Lang, State Regent of Oregon was present and brought cordial greetings from her state.

The new State Flag was presented to the State Society by Mrs. C. W. Chandler, Regent of Lady Stirling Chapter, and a gift from that Chapter—which was accepted by Mrs. Walker for the Society.

An amendment to change the time of meeting from spring to the fall was carried and reads as follows: "This Society shall hold an annual Conference of not less than two days in the month of October, exact date to be determined by the State Board of Management. The first Conference shall be held in October, 1923."

Report of the Magazine committee, Mrs. James A. Russell, chairman, showed one hundred eighty subscriptions passing through her hands. This gave the State of Washington the $100.00 prize offered by the National Society for the greatest increase in our division. Mrs. Walker was presented with the check at a session of the Thirty-second Continental Congress.

The $10.00 prize offered by Mrs. Walker to the Chapter which showed the greatest percentage of increase was won by Mary Anne Gibbes Chapter, who in turn presented it to the U. of W. Chapter House Fund.

The Conference gave $100.00 to the Caroline Scott Harrison Memorial Fund in honor of Mrs. Henry McCleary and $100.00 to the Tamassee School in honor of Mrs. Eliza Ferry Leary—our two Vice Presidents General.

The State Society was reported as being one hundred per cent perfect in subscriptions to the four National projects; Tilloloy, Convoy Painting, Manual and Ellis Island work.

Mrs. Walker gave much time and thought to securing a home near the University campus for the members of the University of Washington Chapter and through her efforts Chapters and individual members paid $2,000.00 toward establishing the D. A. R. House adjacent to the campus.

In recognition of Mrs. Walker's interest the Chapters raised, in addition, a substantial sum which was given to the House Fund and placed a brass plate bearing her name on the door of the Living Room.

A record of much work well and faithfully done which convinced the members of the Thirty-second Continental Congress that Mrs. Walker was the right woman for Organizing Secretary General—thus giving the State of Washington our first active member on the National Board.

Chapters organized: Dayton Chapter, Dayton, September 7, 1921; Elizabeth Bixby Chapter, Burton, November 19, 1921; Samuel Elgin Chapter, June 18, 1921; Martha Guthrie Chapter, Colfax, March 15, 1922; Charles Carroll of Carrollton Chapter, Sedro Woolley, April 20, 1922; Mary Anne Gibbes, Toppenish, May 5, 1922; Governor Isaac Stevens Chapter, May 24, 1922; Elizabeth Forey Chapter, Tacoma, June 5, 1922; Willapa Chapter, Raymond, January 23, 1923; James Huntington Chapter, Castle Rock, February 23, 1923; Experience Wood Chapter, Garfield, March 21, 1923.

Mrs. Willis G. Hopkins (Mabel McKinlay), Robert Gray Chapter, now serves as State Regent, during the administration of Mrs. Anthony Wayne Cook, President General.

Mrs. Hopkins went to Seattle to take part in greeting President and Mrs. Warren G. Harding. Mrs. Harding had accepted an invitation for a reception at the home of Mrs. Eliza Ferry Leary, but owing to an accident the arrival of the party was so delayed that Mrs. Harding wirelessed to the Committee in charge that she would be pleased to meet the Daughteers informally in her suite in the New Washington Hotel. Further delay to the S. S. Henderson caused the cancellation of all entertainment by the Daughters of the American Revolution. On the occasion of the death of President Harding Mrs. Hopkins sent condolences from the Daughters of the American Revolution of the State of Washington.

Mrs. Hopkins presided over the Twenty-third Annual Conference, held at Chehalis, October 25, 26, 1923, hostess Chapter, Meriwether Lewis. Following so closely upon the Twenty-second Annual Conference held in March of the same year, most of the reports were in the form of plans for work to be accomplished.

The Conference voted to again contribute $2.00 per Chapter for the carrying on of the work at Ellis Island, besides showers to be given by the Chapters; and 25c per capita to the Immigrants' Manual.

The Conference also voted to give an annual prize of $25.00 in memory of Mrs. Henry McCleary, former State Regent and Vice President General, to be known as the "Ada McCleary Prize," to be given to the member of the University of Washington Chapter, or to the girl living in the Chapter House and eligible to membership in the University Chapter, who has the highest scholastic standing. Sacajawea Chapter assumed the expense of a bronze tablet to be placed in the Chapter House in memory of Mrs. McCleary, and which will contain the names of the successive winners of the prize.

Mrs. W. O. Bradbury, State Librarian, reported a total of 40 Books, 8 Pamphlets, and 3 Mss. donated to the National Library, and Mrs. H. W. Patton, Chairman of Revolutionary Relics committee, reported the total number of gifts to the National Museum as six. One of these gifts was Mrs. Walker's Mss. Collection which included 50 Mss. and 24 Portraits.

Miss Shumway, entering upon her second year as our first State Registrar reported that she had received the first one hundred marriage records from seventeen counties and expressed the hope that this work begun by Mrs. O. W. Gibbons, would be completed by another year.

An honored guest of this Conference was Mrs. Kate Stevens Bates, daughter of the first Governor of the Territory of Washington.

The Memorial Services and music for Mrs. Henry McCleary, beloved Vice President General, were unusually impressive and beautiful.

Mrs. Hopkins announced that the following organizing regents had been appointed: Mrs. E. W. Newman, Pasco; Mrs. G. A. Hastings, Bremerton; Mrs. F. P. Race, Coupeville; Mrs. Chapin Foster, Grandview; Miss Mary Fullington, Waterville; Mrs. S. J. Pritchard, East Seattle; Mrs. W. H. Tucker, Aberdeen; Mrs. M. G. Rogers, Auburn; Mrs. L. H. Heron, Cathlamet; Mrs. B. T. Tilton, Winslow; Mrs. Ray Stevens, Snohomish; and requests for organizing regents to be appointed at Kent and Colville. Several of these will have their Chapters ready for organizing in the very near future.

Chapters organized: Mary Richardson Walker, Kelso, February 22, 1924; Sarah Wilmot, Auburn, June 28, 1923.

At a Board Meeting held soon after the Conference in Chehalis an invitation was extended by the four Seattle Chapters for the Twenty-fourth Annual Conference to meet in that city as their guests. The Conference will be honored by the presence of Mrs. Anthony Wayne Cook, President General, and other National Officers.

A legacy from the previous administration was the financing and publishing of this History and Register, voted to be published by the Conference at Yakima in April, 1923. Many were the questions to be met and settled and the Book committee found Mrs. Hopkins a veritable bulwark of good judgment and financial support. Much credit is due her that this book is in your hands.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Chapters should do all in their power by word and example to encourage proper respect for our Flag and National Anthem.

Should arrange for appropriate celebration of our National Holidays.

Chapter Members should become familiar with the Objects of the Society, the Flag Salute, Flag Code, Washington State Flag Law, and the American's Creed.

Chapters should send to the State Historian clippings of Chapter activities and pictures of historical places located and marked, for the Historian's records.

All contributions to State and National activities should be sent to the State Treasurer, who in turn will send them to their proper designation.

Dues are payable to Chapter Treasurers at October meeting and delinquent after January first. If not paid by July first, the member is dropped for non-payment and can only be re-instated by paying the initiation fee of five dollars to the National Society and her indebtedness to the Chapter. A member having resigned may be re-instated by payment of the dues for the current year. Chapter Treasurers must send National dues to the Treasurer General and State Dues to the State Treasurer before January first of each year.

Chapters are especially urged to give very complete and accurate information in all Reports and Questionnaire Blanks and that they are returned by the time specified. It is important that all communications from State and National Officers and chairmen be answered promptly.

The election of Chapter Officers, with date of election, should be reported immediately by the Chapters to the Organizing Secretary General and to the State Corresponding Secretary.

Lists should be typewritten and the name of the Chapter given, with the full Christian name of each Chapter officer together with the full name of her husband, if she is married, and the complete address of the Chapter Regent.

It is requested by the National Society that Chapters hold their annual election in May and that the officers take office as soon as elected. Each Chapter should have a full complement of officers, corresponding to State Officers.

Notices of "Change in Address" of members and "Changes in Chapter Officers" during the year should be promptly reported to the Organizing Sec'y. Gen'l.

Transfers must be granted upon application, except that no transfer should be given or received between March first and the date of adjournment of Continental Congress. Transfers must be accompanied by copy of original application papers. Notices of Transfers, Resignations, Marriages, and Deaths should be sent at once to the Treasurer General, maiden name and National number being given. In the case of marriages the husband's Christian name and new address should be given. The Treasurer General will report them to the Organizing Secretary General. The same should be reported to the State Registrar, together with names of members dropped for non-payment of dues.

Each Chapter Regent will please send to the State Regent on or before March first, yearly, a concise report of all plans and work accomplished during the past year. Such a report is absolutely necessary in order that the State Regent can make a correct report at Continental Congress. Write these reports on one side of paper only.

All Chapter Year Books or Programs are requested to be 7½ x 5½ inches, uniform size. A copy should be sent to the State Regent, State Corresponding Secretary, and State Registrar.

Twelve may form a Chapter in a locality where no other exists. Twenty-five, who have never been members of any Chapter, will be required to form a Chapter in a locality where one or more Chapters exist.

A Chapter cannot be formed in a locality where others exist until those already organized have reached a membership of fifty. Chapters may not be limited in membership.

A State Genealogist has been elected who will assist applicants in proving eligibility claims in localities where there are no Chapters, and will give assistance to Chapter Registrars in verifying lineage papers.

GENEALOGICAL

SOURCES OF REVOLUTIONARY SERVICE RECORD.

There is no complete roll of soldiers and sailors and civil patriots of the Revolution. The following are some of the principal sources of information. In calling for certification of service record, give full name and residence of the ancestors.

NATIONAL: The Bureau of Pensions has the claim papers of about 70,000 Revolutionary soldiers and their widows. The U. S. Commissioner of Pensions, Washington, D. C., will furnish abstracts of service from the records without charge. Lists of pensioners, arranged by States, were published by the Government in 1820, 1835 and 1840. The documents are available for examination at the New Jersey Historical Society, West Park St., Newark, or the New York Public Library.

The Adjutant General, U. S. Army, War Department, is in charge of all muster and pay rolls of soldiers in possession of the Government and will furnish abstracts of service without charge to applicants by request from Chapter or State Regent, who will gladly make application for you. In making request give all information possible. Consult "Pierce's Register" in 17th D. A. R. Report to Smithsonian Institution.

The Navy Department is gathering material relating to service in the Navy.

Consult Force's "American Archives," Fourth Series, Vols. 1 to 6, and Fifth Series, Vols. 1 to 3; Heitman's Historical Register of the Officers of the Continental Army; "Records of the Revolution," by W. T. R. Saffel, New York, 1858, so far published by the Library of Congress; also "Les Combattants Francais de la Guerre Americaine," 1778-1783, reprinted, with index, as U. S. Senate Document No. 77, 58th Congress, Second Session, containing about 40,000 names of French Soldiers and Sailors who participated in the American Revolution.

CONNECTICUT: Consult "Connecticut Men in the Revolution," published by the State of Connecticut; also Vols. 8 and 12 of "Collections of the Connecticut Historical Society." Hoadley's "Public Records of the State of Connecticut" prove civil and military service, though it is sometimes necessary to write to the State Librarian, the Adjutant General or to consult the Town Clerks or Town Histories, of which many have been published. List of Pensioners in 21st D. A. R. Report to Smithsonian Institution

DELAWARE: The Colonial and Revolutionary Records of Delaware have been published in two volumes. Consult "Papers of the Historical Society of Delaware," Vols. 13 to 16. Some names can be found in Scharf's "History of Delaware," and for those that cannot, write to the Secretary of State, Dover.

GEORGIA: The 3rd and 5th D. A. R. Reports to the Smithsonian Institution give a long list of Georgia Revolutionary soldiers. The Histories of Georgia by Charles C. Jones, Jr., and by Rev. Wm. Bacon Stevens, Historical Collections of the Joseph Habersham Chapter, Vols. I, II, and III, Story of Georgia and the Georgia People, by George G. Smith, D. D., the Revolutionary Records of Georgia, three volumes, compiled by Allen D. Chandler and Revolutionary Records of State of Georgia, compiled by Lucian Lamar Knight, all contain lists of Revolutionary soldiers. If an ancestor's service can not be found, write to the Georgia Historical Society, Savannah.

KENTUCKY: Collin's History of Kentucky has a list of the Revolutionary soldiers who settled in Kentucky. The Histories of Lexington, of Green County and the "Bryan Station Memorial" give an account of the early history as well as "The Rear Guard of the Revolution." The 1913 Year Book of the Kentucky Sons of the Revolution contains a list of the Revolutionary soldiers and sailors of Virginia to whom the State granted Land Bounty Warrants for their service.

LOUISIANA: "The Louisiana of 1776," The Mother of Thirteen States; Louisiana, Missouri, Arkansas, Iowa, Minnesota, Kansas, Nebraska, Colorado, North Dakota, South Dakota, Montana, Washington, Idaho, Wyoming and Oklahoma. The History of Louisiana contains a great wealth of historical matter directly relating to the American Revolutionary War, which has been only partially uncovered. The Louisiana Society Sons of the American Revolution has completed a list of the officers and soldiers who fought under General Don Bernado de Galvez, 1779, 1780, and 1781. This covers both the regular Spanish Troops and the Louisiana militia. Five copies have been made of the completed rosters and are the only ones extant. The descendants of these soldiers are now admitted to the Sons of the American Revolution.

MAINE: Was a district of Massachusetts until 1820; hence consult the published records of Massachusetts. also a list of the Revolutionary soldiers of Maine made and published by the Maine Sons of the American Revolution.

MARYLAND: The Maryland Archives, Vols. 11, 12, 16, 18 and 22, contain civil and military service. Scharf's History of Maryland, Hanson's Old Kent and Saffel's Revolutionary Records can be consulted. Brumbaugh's Maryland Records, consisting of hitherto unpublished State and Church records, is a most valuable help. Also address the Commissioner of Land Office, Annapolis, Md.

MASSACHUSETTS: The record of the Massachusetts soldiers and sailors has been published alphabetically. The "Journals of the Provincial Congresses" are published and full of valuable information of the early patriots. Also consult the many volumes of the published Vital Records of towns, also the many published volumes of Town Histories.

NEW HAMPSHIRE: Consult "Revolutionary Rolls of New Hampshire" by Isaac W. Hammond, Vols. 14 to 17. Vol 30, New Hampshire State Papers, contain additional data. There are also many valuable town histories. If the ancestor's name cannot be found in these volumes, write to the Secretary of State, Concord, N. H. The Vital Records of every town in New Hampshire have been copied and are on file in Office of Vital Statistics, Concord, N. H.; a small fee is charged for information.

NEW JERSEY: General Stryker's "Jerseymen in the Revolution" is an excellent roster. The "Minutes of the Provincial Congress and Council of Safety" can be consulted for civil service. If an ancestor's name cannot be found in either of these two volumes, write to the Adjutant General, Trenton, N. J., who will furnish a certificate of Revolutionary service on payment of one dollar.

NEW YORK: The Revolutionary Archives, compiled by Berthold Fernow, Robert's "New York in the Revolution" and supplement to same, are authorities. Mather's "Refugees of 1776 from Long Island to Connecticut" is excellent. If the service cannot be found in these volumes or town histories, it will be necessary to write to the Archivist of the State, or to the Comptroller, Albany, N. Y.

NORTH CAROLINA: The State Records of North Carolina, Vols. 9, 10, 11, 12 13, 16, 17 and 22 contain more civil and military service than any other publication; an index to same has been published. Wheeler's History of North Carolina and Wheeler's "Reminiscences" are excellent authorities. The records of the Mecklenburg Declaration and early service can be found in Force's American Archives. The Secretary of State or the County Clerks may find additional proof.

PENNSYLVANIA: The Pennsylvania Archives, 2nd, 3rd, 5th, 6th and 7th Series, contain the names and services of thousands of Revolutionary soldiers. There are many good Town and County Histories. If the record cannot be found, write to the State Librarian, Harrisburg, Pa.

RHODE ISLAND: Cowell's "Spirit of '76," index in Vol. 12, Arnold's Vital Records, and Field's "Revolutionary Defenses of Rhode Island" give an account of services, though by no means complete. Returns of Officers are given in Smith's Civil and Military Lists of Rhode Island, with Index Volume. If these authorities are insufficient, write to the Secretary of State, Providence, or to the State Record Commissioner, Providence, R. I. A complete record of the Revolutionary soldiers is in course of preparation.

SOUTH CAROLINA: Ramsay's History of South Carolina is a recognized authority. A list of the officers of the South Carolina Continental Establishment can be found in the Charleston Year Book, 1893, pages 208 to 237. The 4th Volume D. A. R. Reports to the Smithsonian Institution contains the roster of General Sumter's Brigade. Much can be found in Gibbes' "Documentary History of South Carolina," in Force's American Archives, Saffel's Revolutionary Record, and in South Carolina Historical Magazine. There are also many valuable local histories. "The State," a newspaper printed at Columbia, S. C., has published partial rolls. Address Secretary of State Historical Commission, Columbia, S. C.

TENNESSEE: Ramsay's "Annals of Tennessee" has also a great deal of information of the Revolutionary heroes who crossed the mountains from North Carolina.

VERMONT: The Vermont Revolutionary War Records have been published. Vermont Revolutionary Rolls by Goodrich. The first two volumes of the "Governor and Council" give some account of Revolutionary service. Some of the Town Histories contain rosters. Many records are given in the five volumes of Hemenway's Gazeteer. If the service cannot be proved, write to the Adjutant-General, Montpelier, Vt.

VIRGINIA: The Journals of the Virginia House of Delegates for 1833-1835, inclusive, containing many important lists of Revolutionary officers and soldiers, are excellent. Howe's and Campbell's Histories of Virginia, Bishop Mead's "Old Churches and Families," Chalkley's Abstracts of Augusta County Records, with the Virginia Historical Magazine, and the William and Mary Quarterly, all contain much valuable information. The Eighth and Ninth Annual Reports of the State Librarian of Virginia contain a list of 40,000 or more names of Revolutionary soldiers. A fairly good roster can be found in Saffell; lists of Committees are in Force's American Archives, with other records of importance. McAllister's Militia in the Revolutionary War contains the militia of Virginia and West Virginia. Other proof needed may be found by addressing the Virginia State Library, or the Land Office, Richmond, Va. The 1913 Year Book of the Kentucky Sons of the Revolution contains a list of the Revolutionary soldiers and sailors of Virginia to whom the State granted Land Bounty Warrants for their services.

MARY BALL (WASHINGTON)

Mary Ball, the mother of George Washington, was born in 1706 at the family seat on the banks of the Rappahannock river in Virginia. Her father, Col. Joseph Ball, a well-to-do farmer and a colonel of the Virginia Colonial Militia, died when she was a small girl. In 1730 she married Augustine Washington and there were born to her four sons, the eldest of whom was George, and two daughters. She was a young and beautiful woman when she came to that Virginia home from an adjoining county where she was called the reigning belle, but fourteen short years found her a widow with small children to bring up in the "nurture and admonition of the Lord." Her strong and austere, yet kindly nature, entered into the smallest detail of these lives. Believing that a lazy person had no right to exist she taught them that manual labor was not only useful, but honorable, and that learning to obey in youth would alone fit one to command in maturity.

All the seven years that intervened between the time her son bade her adieu, upon taking command of the forces of the United Colonies, and the time he returned to her, crowned with success and glory, Mary Ball lived in her modest home exercising the most rigid economy that she might have the more to give in charity, and help on the cause of Independence. After the War when Lafayette and other foreign officers came to say good bye to their beloved chief, before they sailed for Europe, and asked to be presented to his venerable mother she received them with such simplicity and dignity of manner that they left her presence more impressed by the majestic appearance of this noble woman than they had ever been by any queen in royal robes before whom they had knelt.

She passed away in August, 1789, after seeing her son inaugurated the first President of the United States.

Mary Ball Chapter next June will celebrate its thirtieth birthday. Since that memorable day at the home of Mrs. C. W. Griggs when the Chapter was organized with thirteen members it has steadily grown to a membership of 161. It has a long list of patriotic and generous deeds to its credit, in addition to the fine influence that such a group of women with the ideals of America steadily flaming in their hearts is bound to spread through the life of the community.

In memorial work they have: Placed the Narcissa Whitman Drinking Fountain in Wright Park; helped to erect a monument to Puget Sound's first Fourth of July celebration at Lake Sequalitchew; helped to erect Washington Monument on the State University grounds in Seattle; contributed largely to Memorial Continental Hall; to the Bust of Washington, Memorial Continental Hall; erected a bronze tablet embedded in a huge granite boulder in memory of Capt. Wilkes, who left the name of Point Defiance to us, and to others who were instrumental in causing that Point to be given to Tacoma for a great Park; given toward the erection of the Memorial Fountain at Plymouth honoring the Pilgrim Mothers; helped with the gift to the French Government of the Convoy Painting; assisted financially and otherwise in the marking of the Old Oregon Trail.

In philanthropic work they have given aid as follows: to the government army hospital ship "Relief"; to the First Battalion Washington Troops; to the Travellers' Aid and Protective Work of the Y. W. C. A. $24.00 yearly for many years.

During the World War they worked steadily and effectively. They raised $500.00 for wool which they knitted into garments for soldiers and sailors. The first sets supplying the cruiser "Tacoma" and sons of Chapter members not already supplied. The Surgical Dressings Unit made 2,115 dressings in addition to many hospital garments. During the latter part of the war they formed themselves into an auxiliary of the Red Cross, giving $120.00 to that in addition to their steady work. They gave toward the purchase of Hymn Books for the band of the Second Washington. Gifts of money and books to the Camp Lewis Library. Supported a French Orphan for three years. Sent many times to the Base Hospital at Camp Lewis and to guards of Public Utilities at LaGrande and Electron, gifts of jams, jellies, pickles, cookies, and candies. Raised $62.00 which they expended to buy materials from which they made 412 housewives for Washington National Guard, and also for sons of members not already supplied. Raised $244.16 for Belgian Relief in conjunction with other Tacoma Chapters.

All during the War members kept their homes open to the soldiers at Camp

Lewis for dinners, evening parties, and week ends; helping to give a little touch of home life to the young men so far away from their own families.

On July 4, 1916 Mary Ball Chapter assisted in the production of a spectacular and patriotic pageant in the Tacoma Stadium, the object being to give a beautiful, patriotic and educational celebration in which our new citizens should have a part.

Mary Ball Chapter was instrumental in giving Tacoma her first community Christmas Tree in Wright Park. Carols were sung about the "Tree of Light" on Christmas night; our foreign born residents contributing many songs, each organization singing its songs in the tongue of their native land.

For many years on the birthday of Mary Ball each Chapter member gave two new garments to be distributed among the needy of Tacoma.

They have paid toward the Springfield scholarship in honor of Mrs. George Thacher Guernsey; toward the publication of the Immigrant Manual; toward the D. A. R. Chapter House at the University of Washington; to the Tacoma Community Chest; toward sending a student to the Industrial School at Bryn Mawr; toward Y. M. C. A. European work.

We are justly proud of the wonderful work of our Americanization Committee under the able leadership of Mrs. N. E. Walton. They arrange receptions and programs to welcome new citizens at the Court House; distribute copies of the Constitution; supply a teacher of English at the Tacoma Community House; furnish teachers of English who go into the homes of Italians and other foreigners to teach the women; have made a survey of privately conducted schools to ascertain whether English and Patriotic Education are being taught; have made a careful study of the histories used in the schools to see that they are not unpatriotic; have been very active in an illiteracy campaign in Pierce County; speakers are furnished to any organization that wishes to give programs on Americanization and Patriotic Education; have been very successful in reaching foreign homes through a most efficient "Visiting and Calling Committee."

In the last year we have given $152.00 towards furnishing the Organizing Secretary General's room in the Administration Building; our quota for the Mary Ball Room at the U. of W. Chapter House, and $25.00 towards the room named in honor of Mrs. Walker, and $100 in honor of Mrs. McCleary.

Regents who have served us are: Mrs. C. W. Griggs, Mrs. J. C. Stallcup, Mrs. H. M. Thomas, Mrs. J. Q. Mason, Mrs. Ellis L. Dent, Mrs. G. W. Dryer, Mrs. W. R. Todd, Mrs. M. G. Macoughtry, Mrs. Henry McCleary, Mrs. Willard Smith, Mrs. C. A. Pratt, Miss Lydia Graham, Mrs. Herbert Hunt, Mrs. E. S. Prentice, Mrs. Henry Longstreth, and Mrs. Miles L. Clifford.

RAINIER CHAPTER

MT. RAINIER

Mount Rainier was discovered by Captain George Vancouver in the summer of 1792 while upon his "Voyage of Discovery" to the North Pacific Ocean. He named it in honor of his friend, Rear Admiral Peter Rainier, grandson of a Hugenot exile named Regnier. This was the common rendering of the name in the early days, and it is so given by Theodore Winthrop, who sailed into Tacoma Harbor in 1853.

Rainier Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution was organized in September, 1895, mainly through the efforts of Mrs. J. C. Cole. The first regular meeting was held at the residence of Mrs. Cole, September 20, with the following Charter Members: Mrs. J. C. Cole, regent; Mrs. John Leary, vice-regent; Mrs. A. P. Mitten, treasurer; Mrs. J. P. Fay, registrar; Mrs. George H. Heilbron, recording secretary; Mrs. John L. Gow, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Daniel Kelleher, Mrs. Samuel J. Kennedy, Mrs. Gilbert S. Meem, Mrs. Wm. M. Peters, Mrs. John P. Pratt, Mrs. Thomas M. Reed, Mrs. Charles E. Shepard, Mrs. Clarence A. Smith, Mrs. Robert C. Strudwick.

The eight members present at this meeting were: Mrs. Shepard, Mrs. Gow, Mrs. Peters, Mrs. Kennedy, Mrs. Leary, Mrs. Meem, Mrs. Kelleher and Mrs. Cole. Mrs. Cole suggested a choice of name as the first business to be transacted, the ancestry of the members was scrutinized for the purpose of selecting the name of one of these Revolutionary forefathers for the designation of the Chapter. But through the modesty of their descendants, it was decided that none of these men were sufficiently known to history to make a name of interest for the chapter, and therefore, lacking places of Revolutionary fame in this Northwest, the name finally decided upon was that of the dominant and magnificently beautiful feature of the landscape—Mount Rainier.

Rainier was the second chapter to be organized in the State and our national charter number is 155. 515 members have joined Rainier in these 28 years of its existence—six of the charter members are enrolled in the 1923-1924 Year Book; we have also eleven of the first fifty members, twelve of the second fifty, and fifty-four of the second one hundred, with a present accredited membership of two hundred sixty-five.

In June, 1896, the S. A. R. invited the D. A. R. to unite with them in celebrating Flag Day. It proved quite an event as it was the very first celebration of Flag Day in Seattle.

The first Year Book of Rainier Chapter was published in September, 1900.

The days we commemorate are: Chapter Day, September Meeting; Washington's Wedding Day, January 17; Washington's Birthday, February 22; Patriot's Day, April 19; Memorial Day, May 30; Flag Day, June 14; Harding Day, August 2.

The first work of the Chapter was a penny collection from the school children of the city for the Francis Scott Key monument, which met with a generous response.

To encourage patriotism among the school children cash prizes were given for the best essays on Revolutionary subjects. The Chapter has subscribed to numerous appeals for funds for patriotic work, notably the Mary Washington Monument, Cuban Hospital Work, to the monument to Marcus Whitman, to the Jacksonville sufferers, the Heppner Flood sufferers, Continental Hall fund, Berry School at Rome, Ga. for white boys, Red Cross work taken up in 1916, sixty dollars contributed to statue to Sacajawea, the Indian Woman who was chief guide to Lewis and Clark. Money was given mess fund for the National Guard sent to the Mexican border, in 1917 money was sent to National Association for Universal Military Training, substantial aid given towards furnishing of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Club; support was given for a French War orphan as long as there was need; contributed to the Dean Isabella Austin Memorial Scholarship Fund; contributed to Belgian Relief over One Thousand dollars.

In conjunction with all the Chapters throughout the State, we helped to erect a cottage on the A. Y. P. Exposition grounds, where visiting Daughters were welcomed. Each day, except Sundays, light refreshments were served. Post cards of both the D. A. R. Cottage and the Washington Monument were for sale there.

At the regular meeting March 28th, 1905, a letter was read from Prof. Meany of the State University relative to a statue of Washington to be placed on the campus of that institution. He requested that the Chapter take the initiative in the matter. Prof. Meany stated that he would do the necessary work, but felt it desirable to have the influence of a patriotic society like the Rainier Chapter D. A. R. back to the movement. He also asked that a committee be appointed to co-operate with him. The chair appointed Mrs. Leary, chairman; Mrs. Heg, Mrs. Bowden and Mrs. Thorn. This plan to erect a Washington Statue on the University Campus was unanimously indorsed when brought before the Annual Conference, D. A. R., which convened in Seattle in June, 1905. From this first step, gladly undertaken towards the accomplishment of this, perhaps the largest patriotic movement attempted in the State, to the successful finish of the difficult task, was proof of a zealous patriotism. The imposing Washington Statue was unveiled and presented to the University of Washington, June 14, 1909, by Rainier Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution, assisted by the Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution, by the children of the schools and by the State Commission of the A. Y. P. Exposition.

GEORGE WASHINGTON MONUMENT
Erected on U. of W. Campus, 1909

At a regular meeting of Rainier Chapter, November 30, 1909, Mrs. Edmund Bowden, treasurer of the Monument committee, made a fine suggestion which met with ready acceptance, which was, that since the Statue was an accomplished fact it would seem fitting that the Daughters assume the care of it, and that it would be an appropriate tribute if each chapter would place decorations of native greens there on Washington's birthday. And again at a meeting in January, 1910, Mrs. Bowden explained in detail her suggestion in reference to decorating the Monument on February 22nd. The idea was to have a committee of three from each of the city Chapters appointed by the respective regents. This committee to provide wreaths or other decorations of the native greens. All Daughters were urged to be there and if the weather permitted, a very short ceremony might be planned, otherwise the singing of America would suffice. It is now an established custom.

Later the interests of the Chapter have been centered upon the purchase of two lots, with the project in view of erecting a D. A. R. Chapter House, ground being broken for it in June, 1924.

Valuable assistance of both time and money has been given for hospital service for the returned sick and disabled soldiers. It is our pleasure also, to extend our efforts in gifts and money, and social amenities to help maintain the University of Washington D. A. R. Chapter House.

Rainier Chapter has the honor of having for one of its members Mrs. Eliza Ferry Leary, who is the daughter of the first Governor of Washington. Mrs. Leary has also honored Rainier Chapter by having been elected Vice President General of the National Society, as well as a life member of the Mt. Vernon Ladies' Association, having been appointed to this exalted office by Governor Mead during his term of office. Mrs. Leary visits Mt. Vernon each year and with the members of the association spends ten days at the mansion repairing, renovating and preserving the historic home of Washington. It is also honored by having as a member one of the original charter members of the N. S. D. A. R., Miss Elizabeth Virtue whose national number is 797.

In this sketch of Rainier Chapter, lack of space forbids a detailed account of the interesting meetings, held the last Tuesday in the month, September to June inclusive, programs are varied from year to year, creditable work is shown in literature, music and art. The social hour is most gratifying with attractive and interesting entertainment. Rainier Daughters recognizing the grave problems now pressing for solution, with the influx of the foreign population to our hospitable shores, will claim their inheritance from illustrious forefathers and "Carry On" with our classes and work of Americanization.

VIRGINIA DARE CHAPTER

Tacoma

Organized January 12, 1900.
Number of Members, 50.
Dues, $5.00.

Virginia Dare was the first white child born on American soil, in 1587. She was born on Roanoke Island which lies off Cape Hatteras and which had been explored by Sir Walter Raleigh. John White, the grandfather of Virginia Dare, made the third voyage for Raleigh and stopped off at Roanoke Island, where Virginia was born. Her mother was Eleanor Drake, daughter of Sir Francis Drake, the explorer. Ten days after Virginia was born the grandfather returned to England. He made another trip to Roanoke Island to find the little settlement had disappeared. Indications were that they had gone to another island but no trace of them was ever found and has been termed "The Lost Colony."

Virginia Dare Chapter was organized January 12, 1900 with thirteen charter members. The purpose of the Chapter was stated to be "The Study of American History from Its Beginnings." Its first piece of work was the reading of Fiske's histories. Through the years the Chapter has read many delightful excerpts from other histories, biographies, and personal letters. Very interesting personal sketches have been given by descendants of those closely associated with the early history of our own Northwest. The programs also have had the vitalizing of current topics.

For a number of years the Chapter did an important work in the encouragement of historical study among the school children of the city. Prizes were offered to those writing the best essays on historical subjects. Those essays were then presented before a public audience, thus stimulating the interest in the larger group, in historical subjects.

Virginia Dare has participated in the various activities that have engaged the attention of the State and National D. A. R. interests. She contributed her quota to the Washington Memorial Continental Hall fund, to the liquidating of the debt also; and gave a dollar per capita toward the furnishing of the Washington room in the new Administration building. Gave assistance in raising funds for the Washington bust. Aided the State Historical Society in the furtherance of historical research. During the war the Chapter met every requirement of the government, besides doing a vast deal more to aid her country in every possible way. A contribution was made to the fund for printing a manual of Information for Immigrants. Something was given to the fund for the erection of a fountain in honor of Pilgrim Mothers. The Chapter helped in the work of the "Old Trails Committee," of which Mrs. Overton G. Ellis was state chairman. Through the efficient work of two members of Virginia Dare, Mrs. E. B. Judson and Mrs. D. S. Kinney, a bill pertaining to the salute of the Flag was drafted. This bill became a law by the act of the Legislative Session in 1915, under the title of the Metcalf Senate Bill 235. The law made the Flag Salute compulsory in the public schools of the state. Washington was the third state in the Union to pass such a law. Recently Virginia Dare Chapter has given generously to the fund for the establishment and maintenance of a D. A. R. Chapter House at the University of Washington.

The Chapter has furnished programs that dignify and make more impressive the act of becoming a naturalized citizen of the United States. On these occasions the new citizens have been presented with small flags. For two years the Chapter has contributed to the fund with which girls have been sent from Tacoma factories to the new Industrial school at Bryn Mawr. For several years the Berry School was aided financially. So in these various fields of endeavor, and many others, Virginia Dare has had a part during the passing years. She feels very proud of her contribution to the roster of State and National officers. Of the thirteen charter members, three have been most successful State Regents, Mrs. John A. Parker, Mrs. D. A. Gove, Mrs. O. G. Ellis. Mrs. D. A. Gove was not a member of the Chapter during her State Regency, as she was then a resident of Seattle. As honorary members of Virginia Dare we have been most happy to claim Mrs. Eliza Ferry Leary and Mrs. Henry McCleary, both National Vice Presidents General. Mrs. Kaufman and Mrs. Ellis were elected State Historians. Mrs. C. C. Hunt was State Corresponding Secretary. Mrs. B. W. Coiner, Mrs. George Plummer, Mrs. Frederick Rice served on the State Executive Board. Mrs. B. E. Buckmaster is now State Secretary. Many important state committees have had on their rolls Virginia Dare members.

When our Chapter was four years old she began her public social career by entertaining the second Annual Conference of Washington D. A. R. Chapters. That Conference met at the home of Mrs. John A. Parker. On April the eleventh, 1908, she was again hostess for the State Assembly. For the third time the Chapter had the privilege of entertaining the Assembly, at its eighteenth annual session. At that time the rare honor of having as its guest Mrs. George Thacher Guernsey, President General, was the chapter's, as Mrs. Guernsey visited the State Assembly. From the small group of thirteen women the chapter has grown to a total present membership of fifty. These women meet regularly every two weeks from the first Monday in October to the first Monday in May. A one-o'clock luncheon, followed by the business meeting and program for the day occupy the afternoon. Forgetting the things that are behind and pressing forward to that goal of wider usefulness, Virginia Dare hopes to become more and more worthy of that heritage which she enjoys.

Those who have guided her fortunes are: Blanche Burnett Parker, Jennie Wilhite Ellis, Eva Wead Gove, Maud Luce Hunt, Ida Hare Coiner, Grace Macaughtry Judson, Jessie Banks Kinney, Elizabeth Gibson Foster, May Lawrence Harmon, Dorothy Griggs Buckmaster, Ruth Bowman Nickum.

ESTHER REED CHAPTER

Spokane

Organized June 14, 1900.
Number of Members, 128.
Dues, $5.00.

ESTHER REED

Esther Reed Chapter, D. A. R. was named for Esther DeBerdt Reed, one of the heroines of the Revolutionary War. She was the daughter of Dennis DeBerdt, who was at one time Colonial Agent for Massachusetts. She was born in 1746. Her father's home in London was a favorite resort for Americans in London and among these visitors was one Joseph Reed, then a law student, whom she afterwards married (1770), coming to America almost immediately afterward and settling in Philadelphia. Joseph Reed was a very active participant in the early hostile movements so that from the first Esther found herself in the midst of excitement and anxiety.

In 1780 when the American army was in great distress through lack of clothing, the ladies of Philadelphia associated themselves together for the purpose of supplying the needs of the troops, and by the united voice of her associates, Esther Reed was chosen president of this society and though in frail health served as long as she lived. M. DeMarbois, the French Secretary of Legation, in a letter to Mrs. Reed at the time of her selection, said, "You have been chosen, madam, for that important duty, because among them all you are the best patriot, the most zealous and active, and the most attached to the interests of your country." She died at the age of 34 in the time of the most stirring events of the Revolution. When her death became known the Council and Assembly of Pennsylvania adjourned "to pay their last respects to her exalted virtues."

Her son Joseph, in 1810-11 became Attorney General of Pennsylvania, and her grandson, William Bradford Reed, also Attorney General of Pennsylvania, minister to China and one of the most prominent statesmen of his day, wrote a history of his grandmother's life. This epitaph on her tombstone bears evidence of the esteem in which she was held:

"Tribute. Esther Reed, tho' dead still liveth."
"In memory of Esther Reed, the beloved wife of Joseph Reed, President of this State, who departed this life on the 18th of September, A. D. 1780, aged 34 years.
"Reader! If the possession of those virtues of the heart which make life valuable, or those personal endowments which command esteem and love, may claim respectful and affectionate remembrance, venerate the ashes here entombed.
"If to have the cup of temporal blessings dashed in the period and station of life in which temporal blessings may be best enjoyed, demands our sorrow, drop a tear and think how slender is that thread on which the joys and hopes of life depend."

One tribute to her noble life is "Esther Reed tho' dead still liveth" and it is surely true that her short life and good works still live in the hearts of the D. A. R. Chapter which bears her name.

After many preliminary meetings by a circle of enthusiastic patriotic women of Spokane, a charter was granted to this circle to become a Chapter on June 14, 1900, at a meeting held at Brunot Hall, and the name of Esther Reed was chosen by the Committee appointed for that purpose. The charter members were: Elizabeth Forster Tannatt, Miriam Tannatt, Marion DeLashmutt, Inez DeLashmutt, Madeline Gibbs Murphy, Esther May Allen Jobes, Jingie Glidden James, Jessie Glidden Culbertson, Kitty Upson Taft, Martha Bell Slayden, Mary Amanda Ralston, Mary Louise Burnham, Henrietta Bright Wells, Letha Eastwood Putnam, Laura Bailey Brown, Augusta Plummer Foster.

All lines of patriotic and Americanization work have been followed during the years by the Chapter, but the one great out-standing accomplishment is the erection of the Steptoe Monument on the Steptoe Battlefield, about fifty miles south of Spokane.

"By heredity, patriotic women have carried into each and all the states a duty clearly defined, and pointing to a line of endeavor to mark as sacred every point where Americans have laid down their lives for the extension of American civilization in its broadest and most patriotic interpretation. Following the advance of this civilization Esther Reed Chapter has labored to mark as an object lesson for present and future generations, and has established the historical accuracy of a point near Rosalia, Washington, through the testimony of three survivors, of a conflict between U. S. army forces under Colonel Steptoe, and hostile Indians, May 17, 1858. (It is at this point, where officers of the U. S. Army and a number of soldiers sacrificed their lives, that Esther Reed Chapter has erected a beautiful shaft of Barre granite 25 feet in height.) In this way an area as large as that of the New England States was opened to peaceful settlement and afforded an opportunity for the wonderful growth of Spokane and the development of the many fortunes that have been acquired there."

STEPTOE MONUMENT
Erected at Rosalia, Wash., June 14, 1914

Three acres, including the historic knoll, was purchased by Rosalia citizens and presented to Esther Reed Chapter who placed the deed in perpetual trust in the hands of Whitman County Commissioners. The monument was erected at a cost of $1,800.00 and by the untiring and never-failing ambition of the small number of patriotic women which then composed the Chapter. The four tablets on the monument bear these inscriptions: "Sacred to the memory of the officers and men of the United States Army who lost their lives on this field in desperate conflict with the Indians in the Battle of Te-hots-nim-me, May 17th, 1858."

"In memory of Chief Tam-mu-tsa (Timothy) and the Christian Nez Perce Indians—rescuers of the Steptoe Expedition."

"Captain O. H. P. Taylor, Lieutenant William Gaston, 1st Sergeant William C. Williams; Privates Alfred Barnes, Victor Charles DeMoy, Charles H. Hamish, James Crozet."

"Erected by the Esther Reed Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, Spokane, Washington, June 14, 1914."

Netta W. (Mrs. Moses A.) Phelps was the Chairman of the Monument Committee. The first suggestions towards this praiseworthy achievement came to the Chapter from the loyal hearts of two patriots who have been called to the higher life, General T. R. Tannant and his wife, who was for many years the chapter's Historian and also a charter member.

Another achievement occasioned by the Chapter's interest in this phase of its work was the publication of a sixteen-page booklet entitled, "Indian Battles in the Inland Empire in 1858," compiled by its talented and beloved first Historian, Mrs. Elizabeth F. Tannant. It contains in concise form the chronicle of the years of effort on the part of the Chapter to establish the historical accuracy of the exact field of conflict, pictures of the three survivors, official report of Col. Steptoe, also of Col. Wright and the two battles of his expedition fought not so many miles away from the one of May, 1858; an account by Lieut. Kip, who was with Wright; and the "Recollections of a Soldier," from the pen of a private who was in both the Steptoe and Wright campaigns. A toast written by General Tannant for one of Esther Reed Chapter's February 22nd celebrations heads the first page.

Esther Reed Chapter has been most happy to have entertained the State Conference on three different occasions. and has been honored by having two State Regents elected from the Chapter, Mrs. Moses A. Phelps and Mrs. Geo. H. Goble.

Chapter Regents have been: Mrs. Augusta P. Foster, Mrs. M. A. Phelps, Mrs. E. O. Flemming, Mrs. W. B. Roberts, Mrs. C. S. Webster, Mrs. A. T. Dishman, Mrs. M. J. Gordon, Mrs. J. S. Moore, Mrs J. W. MacIntosh, Mrs. G. H. Goble, Mrs. L. F. Williams, Mrs. C. F. Chase, and Mrs. C. R. Williams.

LADY STIRLING CHAPTER

Seattle, Wash.

Organized November 16, 1901.
Number of Members, 160.
Dues, $3.00.

LADY STIRLING

The quaint title of Lady Stirling for the third largest Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution in this State has interested many of those not familiar with the early Revolutionary history of the Colonies. As Her Ladyship was of much service to this country it was deemed fitting to name this Chapter in her honor. The fact that her husband, Lord Stirling, was among the first to espouse the American cause, first as aide to General Washington, then Major and Major General, seemed to make peculiarly fitting the honor of naming the new Chapter in the state of Washington after Lady Stirling, Countess of Stirling Castle, Scotland. Not alone is she illustrious as the wife of a great general and ardent patriot. A woman delicately nurtured, she left for a time a luxurious home to cast in her lot with her husband during the terrible winters of 1777 and 1778, living with Lord Stirling in a cheerless hut beside the no-less comfortless quarters of General and Mrs. Washington. She was never idle. With Mrs. Washington and other women in the camp she worked for the suffering soldiers knitting socks and from her own loom furnishing cloth for their uniforms. The only dyes were black and blue and this was the origin of the regiment known as "The Jersey Blues" from the color of their coats and socks.

When Lady Stirling and the Earl were neighbors and played together in childhood, she was Sarah Livingston of Livingston Manor, and he, plain William Alexander, born in the city of New York. Under these names they were married. Later in line of succession he became the Earl, and voted in the Scotch Parliament, and his wife became a countess.

Lady Stirling Chapter was organized November 16, 1901, at the Lincoln hotel, Seattle, by Mary Ely Phelps, Organizing Regent. The following officers were elected; Regent, Mary Ely Phelps; Vice Regent, Grace Stevens Bogardus; Recording Secretary, Jennie S. Holmes; Corresponding Secretary, Dorothy G. Kane; Treasurer, Julia P. Lilly; Registrar, Nellie Maxwell; Historian, Lou A. Chase; Librarian, Byrdie M. Sawyer. The other Charter members present were: Abbie B. Bow, Hallie J. Bronson, Alberta W. Colwell, Edith B. Dawson, Mollie Thompson, Minnie E. C. Fowle, Elizabeth R. B. Herrick, Caroline L. Hollister, Elizabeth B. Higgins, Kate M. Holmes, Nellie I. Johnson, Mabel Kelloch, Eugenie Moore, Julia L. Shay, Janie S. Shay, Jessie D. Stevens, Mary E. Taggart, Georgie W. Wood, Helen W. Graves. The Chapter motto is: "Love of my Country Leads me on."

Since the earliest days of the Chapter, realizing the need of patriotic education, Lady Stirling has given prizes of money for essays, helped to pay for the education of mountain children, having clothed and educated one girl for two years; kept a nurse at the Pacific School for two years, to take care of the children of foreign mothers, while they attended classes in English, and also donated a fund to the Y. W. C. A. to help in the protection of young girls at the A. Y. P. Exposition. We made a gift of $15.00 to Continental Hall, it being the fifteenth anniversary of the organization. We were the only D. A. R. Chapter to remember this event. Lady Stirling Chapter assisted the State Society in erecting the monument to Washington on the University Campus. Each year on February 22nd we place a wreath on this monument. We have given a total of $370.00 to the University of Washington Chapter House, which includes the naming of a room. The living room has been named by the State "The Flora Walker Room," for a member of our Chapter who served as State Regent. We contributed five dollars toward a fund for the bust or portrait of our first President General, Mrs. Benjamin Harrison, to be placed in the President General's room in Continental Hall, and also contributed toward a chair for the President General, Mrs. William Cuming Story. Niches were reserved in Continental Hall for various busts, and we assisted the State Chapters in placing the bust of Washington in the Hall. During the A. Y. P. Exposition Lady Stirling Chapter assisted the other State Chapters in building and maintaining a cottage on the grounds, where all D. A. R. members could meet. In memory of Washington's unknown soldiers who died in the world war we planted ten trees along Memorial Way.

In the last few years $2,555.67 has been raised by Lady Stirling Chapter for patriotic purposes, National and local, covering such worthy causes as: Memorial Continental Hall, Southern Mountain Schools, Red Cross, Tuberculosis Relief, War Relief, D. A. R. House, Kindergarten Nurse, etc.

We distribute to the new immigrants "The Immigrants' Manual" printed in eight different languages. We have given a copy of the Declaration of Independence to the Parental School on Mercer Island, giving the boys a picnic dinner at the same time. We also placed the Americans' Creed in every school in the city. We gave a flag and pole to the Orthopedic Hospital, also to the Monroe Reformatory, and sixteen wool flags, 36x60 to the Bailey Gatzert School, and five dollars toward the William McKinley circle G. A. R. flag fund. In March, 1922, we were awarded a silk flag for having the most D. A. R. magazine subscriptions in the state. We placed a wreath and flag on the Liberty Bell on its visit to Seattle in 1916; also contributed toward the expense of the Preparedness Parade. Later gave our quota of $1.00 per capita to the National Society for their $100,000.00 Liberty Bond Fund. We paid our per capita on Old Oregon Trail, and this year we are featuring the Ellis Island work.

Each week we visit ex-service boys in the hospitals and once a month take them fried chicken, home-made cakes, flowers, books and magazines. Our Chapter was one of the hostesses to the Fleet at City Hall Park in July, 1923.

When the national officers were in Seattle in February, 1921, we assisted the other Chapters in entertaining them at the home of Mrs. Eliza Ferry Leary. We have also had the pleasure of entertaining the State Regents, and the State Conference three times. We commemorate certain days, such as Washington and Lincoln's birthdays, by holding special meetings; take part in the Naturalization Exercises held at Woodland Park on July 4th of each year, in historical pageants like the Wayfarer and Americanus, and have started a building fund.

Elizabeth Ann Secor a "Real Daughter" and member of our Chapter passed on in 1910, aged 96. We marked her grave with a bronze tablet. We think we are the only Chapter in the State to have had a "Real Daughter." Of our original members there are five now living.

The Memorial Boulder and Fountain in City Hall Park was the gift of Lady Stirling Chapter to the city of Seattle, in memory of the brave men of the navy, who fought in the Battle of Seattle, and of those of the Battleship Maine. The Maine tablet was made from metal taken from this famous ship and presented to Lady Stirling Chapter, whose members paid for casting and shipping.

BOULDER CITY HALL PARK
Erected August 15, 1916

The State D. A. R. Motto, originated by a member of this Chapter, "Patriotism, Reverence, Remembrance," is engraved on the stone. The small cannon ball mounted on the fountain is one fired from the U. S. S. Decatur and found on Beacon Hill. It commemorates the Battle of Seattle fought January 26, 1856. This was the only naval battle ever fought with Indians in our country's history. We were honored by the presence of Mrs. William Cumming Story, President General, N. S. D. A. R. at that time, who unveiled the boulder.

WASHINGTON STATE FLAG

We gave a beautiful banner to the State D. A. R. organization, bearing "The Seal of the State of Washington, 1889." We feel that the gift of this banner, as suggested by our great patriotic body of women was justly recognized by our State Legislature when they adopted our design as the state flag, which became a law June 7, 1923.

Mrs. William Sherman Walker, a past State Regent, member of our Chapter, was elected Organizing Secretary General of the National Society at the thirty-second continental congress in Washington, D. C., April, 1923, the first active national officer elected west of the Mississippi. Her office in Continental Hall was furnished by D. A. R. Chapters of Washington State.

Past Regents of Chapter: Mrs. Horton Phelps, Mrs. A. J. Trumbull, Mrs. T. A. Parish, Mrs. H. T. Bredes, Mrs. G. H. Appleton, Mrs. H. A. Hanson, Mrs. W. H. Oliver, Mrs. W. S. Walker, Mrs. P. S. Masters.

(Mrs. C. W.) Fannie H. Chandler,

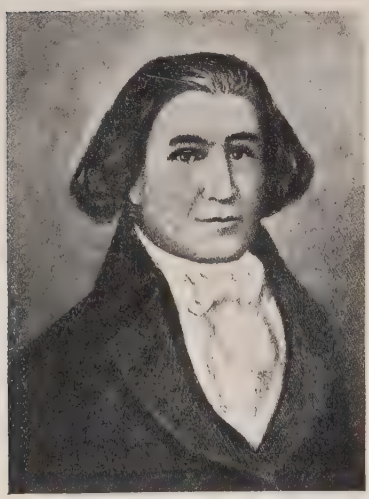
ROBERT GRAY CHAPTER

Hoquiam

Organized March 7, 1903.
Number of Members, 56.
Dues, $5.00.



CAPT. ROBERT GRAY

Captain Robert Gray was a native of Tiverton, R. I., and a descendant of one of the early settlers of Plymouth. After his marriage in 1774 his home was in Boston on Salem Street, where he raised a family of five children. During the Revolution he was an officer in the American navy and at the close of the War he joined the Merchant Marine. He died in South Carolina in 1809. Captain Gray as master of the Lady Washington and Captain Kendrick of the Columbia, sailed on a trading expedition from Boston September 30, 1787, around the Horn and reached the Northwest in August, 1788. On May 11, 1789, Captain Gray discovered the Columbia River, naming it after the boat he was then sailing. He also discovered Gary's Harbor, named by him "Bullfinch Harbor." It was Gray's discovery of the Columbia river that enabled the United States to lay claim to the Oregon country. After cruising among the islands, the two captains had exchanged ships; Captain Kendrick putting the ship's property on board the sloop Washington and going on a cruise with a crew of twenty men, while Gray took the Columbia and later sailed for China to dispose of the skins obtained by trading among the Indians. She reached her home port, August 10, 1790, having sailed by her log book about 50,000 miles. Capt. Gray was the first American to circumnavigate the globe, carrying the Stars and Stripes around the world.

On March 7, 1903, after a year of endeavor on the part of the organizing regent, Mrs. Ida Soule (A. H.) Kuhn of Hoquiam, the Robert Gray Chapter was finally formed in the parlors of the old Hotel Hoquiam, since burned, with exactly the necessary twelve members present. Six of the charter members were residents of Hoquiam, five of Aberdeen, and one, Mrs. Harry Wellington Smith, since deceased, lived in Olympia, which then had no chapter. It was decided that besides the regular D. A. R. work the first two years should be devoted to the study of early American history using Fiske and Parkman as authorities.

It was noted that with the possible exception of two, all of these women had one or more ancestors among the passengers of the "Mayflower." Their Revolutionary ancestors included several Lexington "Minute Men," Colonel Wm. Barton of Rhode Island, who, with a little band of patriots, rowed across Naragansett Bay, through the British fleet and captured the British General Prescott at his Headquarters; and Colonel Ebenezer Bancroft, who was the last man to leave the redoubts of Bunker Hill and whose shot at close range, killed the British General Pitcairn.

The first social event given by the Chapter was a bridge tournament at the Hotel Hoquiam where the entire lower floor of that beautiful building was converted into a series of leafy bowers. The Chapter at that time had the honor of entertaining the then State Regent, Mrs. John A. Parker, who was the honor guest on the following day at a beautifully appointed luncheon given by Mrs. J. O. Stearns at her residence in Hoquiam.

In 1909, Mrs. A. H. Kuhn, the organizing regent of Robert Gray, was elected State Regent, and that same year the Chapter had the pleasure of entertaining the State Conference at the huge Moclip hotel, since destroyed. While the work of that Conference was the rather dry one of adopting a new Constitution, socially it was one of the most pleasant ever held. The wife of "mine host," Mrs. Edward Lycan, recently deceased, was the chapter's first elected member, and both she and her genial husband left nothing undone to make the meeting a success.

Another notable event in the life of the Chapter was when on May 9th, 1911, a bronze tablet commemorating the discovery of Gray's Harbor by Captain Robert Gray, for whom the Chapter was named, was unveiled at Damon's Point at the entrance of the Harbor. The day was fine and the large sea-going tug "Traveler" loaned the Chapter by the North Western Lumber Company of Hoquiam, was crowded with members and their husbands and guests. Among the out-of-town guests were Ex-State Regent, Mrs. John A. Parker of Virginia Dare Chapter, Tacoma; Mrs. Vallentine of Lady Stirling Chapter, Seattle; Mrs. Stephen Chadwick, of Olympia; Mr. Eldridge Wheeler of Montesano; Mr. G. W. Himes, curator of the Oregon Historical Society of Portland, and Engineer and Mrs. E. L. Carpenter. The Chapter was indebted to the kind interest of Mr. Carpenter in charge of the U. S. jetty works, both for the impressive boulder and the transportation of same to its resting place under the historic "Lone Pine," which, with a plot of ground around it, was deeded to the Chapter by the owner, Mr. A. O. Damon, himself of Revolutionary descent. The unveiling exercises were conducted by the then regent, Mrs. F. L. Carr, assisted by the Chapter and using their impressive ritual. Mr. Wheeler gave an eloquent and timely address besides which there were several others by Mrs. Ruth Karr McKee; the Regent, Mrs. Carr; Mr. Wm. Campbell, of Hoquiam; Mr. Himes, and others, and the singing of patriotic songs by all. After a delightful picnic lunch in the old Damon orchard, the party was taken by Mr. Carpenter over the jetty on the construction train and then came the delightful trip up the bay at sunset.

BOULDER DAMON'S POINT
Erected May 9, 1911

In 1922, on the twentieth anniversary of the forming of the Chapter, a beautiful "birthday" luncheon was given at the home of Mrs. Edward Benn in Aberdeen, with the organizing regent, Mrs. A. H. Kuhn and her sister, Mrs. H. W. Patton as the surprised and touched honor guests. After a beautiful speech of eulogy given by Mrs. Humbargar and a short impromptu reply by Mrs. Kuhn, many amusing incidents of early Chapter history were recalled and enjoyed.

Robert Gray Chapter has always done its part in the life of the community and has been a most harmonious and studious band of patriotic women, given to all good works, as is the society everywhere. Its growth to fifty-four members, while not startling, is sound and conservative. It has been neither exclusively a study club nor a social clique, but has enjoyed the advantages of both. It has the honor of having one of its members, Mrs. Ruth Karr McKee, upon whose home acres Hoquiam is built, the only woman regent of the University of Washington. Another member (charter), Mrs. Sarah Soule Patton, of Hoquiam, has many times represented the Chapter at the National Conference at Washington, D. C.

It has lost by death three of its charter members, Mesdames Drumm, McKinlay, and Smith, as well as the first admitted member, Mrs. Louise Lycan Wilson, and another early member, Mrs. Ida Otis Chabot.

The war record of its members was above praise, especially those of Mrs. Frances Soule (J. O.) Stearns of Hoquiam, the organizer of the first Red Cross Chapter in the County, and Mrs. Margaret Wilson (L. G.) Humbargar of Aberdeen, the County Food Administrator, though it seems invidious to single out any for special mention when all did their best possible.

Robert Gray Chapter, together with interested friends whose aid had been solicited by the Chapter, supported seventeen French Orphans. Has given $25.00 annually for years to the Berry School, contributed $100.00 for a Tamassee Foundership, and has donated liberally to the D. A. R. Chapter House.

Since the war the Chapter, while giving freely to the almost endless succession of "worthy causes" always clamoring for aid, has largely returned to the quiet tenor of its pre-war days, thus setting a needed example of "normalcy." At present it is enjoying a very successful year under the regency of Mrs. Humbargar of Aberdeen.

Again Robert Gray Chapter has the privilege and honor of nominating a State Regent which it has done in the person of another charter member, Mrs. Mabel McKinlay (Willis G.) Hopkins of whose ability and worth it has no misgivings.

Chapter Regents, elected at May meetings: 1903, Mrs. A. H. Kuhn; 1904, Mrs. W. O. McKinlay; 1905, Mrs. Hannah E. Drumm; 1906, Mrs. J. B. Bridges; 1907, Mrs. Sarah S. McMillan; 1908, Mrs. J. O. Stearns; 1909, Mrs. J. S. McKee; 1910, Mrs. J. O. Stearns; 1911, Mrs. F. L. Carr; 1912, Mrs. Wm. Irvine; 1913, Mrs. Sarah S. McMillan; 1914, Mrs. E. E. Boner; 1915, Mrs. S. S. McM. Patton; 1916, Mrs. O. D. Hall; 1917, Mrs. Walter Gregg; 1918, Mrs. Willis G. Hopkins; 1919, Mrs. Willis G. Hopkins; 1920; Mrs. S. S. McM. Patton; 1921, Mrs. S. S. McM. Patton; 1922, Mrs. L. G. Humbargar; 1923, Mrs. L. G. Humbargar.

SACAJAWEA CHAPTER

Olympia

Organized November 17, 1905.

SACAJAWEA

Sacajawea, the heroine of the Lewis & Clark Expedition, who with her three-months-old baby strapped to her back, guided the explorers across the continent, belonged to the Shoshone tribe of Indians. When about twelve years of age she was stolen from her people and soon afterward sold by her captors to Toussaint Charbonneau, a degenerate French Canadian interpreter, who joined the expedition at Fort Mandan, the Lewis & Clark headquarters during the winter of 1804 and 1805.

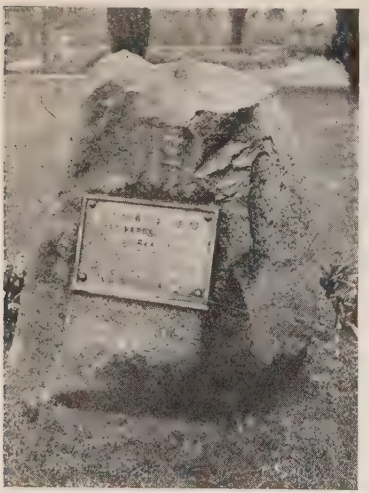
Lewis and Clark did not care for Charbonneau but being the husband of Sacajawea, whose services would be valuable because of her familiarity with the country through which they must pass and her knowledgke of the Shoshone language, they decided to employ him. Subsequent events proved this to be a fortunate decision for time and again Sacajawea came to their aid when failure seemed inevitable.

She secured valuable papers and instruments when the boat containing them was caught in a rapid and filled with water. The meeting with her brother, a Shoshone chief whom she had not seen since her capture, paved the way for the purchase of horses and supplies necessary for the overland journey after navigation had to be abandoned. On the return trip the services Sacajawea rendered the expedition were invaluable. In July, 1806, she showed Captain Clark the way out of Ross Hole and later led the party over Bozeman Pass to the Yellowstone.

The Daughters of the American Revolution of Montana, a state that claims Sacajawea by right of birth, have marked several spots identified with the history of the heroine and statues in her memory have been erected at St. Louis, Mo., Bismark, N. D., and Portland, Oregon.

The charter members of Sacajawea Chapter were: Mrs. Mary A. Bryan, Mrs. Sally Foster Eaton, Mrs. Lou J. Filley, Mrs. Malvina Loring Hill, Mrs. Rio Newton Howard, Mrs. Helen Gordon Mills, Mrs. Elizabeth Reynolds Lord, Mrs. Mary E. McKenzie, Mrs. Edith McKenzie Morrison, Mrs. Fannie Steele O'Brien, Mrs. Ella Rowell Smith, Mrs. Sue O'Bannon Porter Streets, Mrs. Gertrude Wheeler Vance, all of whom are still members of the Chapter with the exception of three, who have passed on. Of the officers elected at the time of organization, Mrs. Fannie S. O'Brien is still serving as Registrar, there never having been any change in that office.

In all National matters the Chapter has fulfilled any demands made by the National Board, and has paid all assessments requested, such as contributions to Memorial Continental Hall, and to the New Administration Building as well as other matters pertaining to work of the National Society and has taken an active part in all State projects; contributing to the D. A. R. House erected at the A. Y. P. Exposition; to the statue of George Washington placed on the campus of the University of Washington; and lately to the Chapter House at the University where there is a room for which Sacajawea is sponsor. The Reciprocity Bureau has also been furnished some of our papers.



BOULDER MARKING END OF OLD OREGON TRAIL

Erected on Old Blockhouse Site

MEDICINE CREEK TREATY GROUNDS

Marker Placed on Tree (Near Olympia)

During the World War the Chapter contributed its quota of Liberty Bonds, and also did much local work, its biggest feature being to equip each man called from Thurston county with a sewing kit. But most important of all, one of the members, Miss Mildred Stanford, a former Regent, did most effective work overseas in the capacity of a hospital "Searcher."

Along the lines of patriotic education there have been prizes awarded both of money and silk flags in city and county schools for excellence in subjects pertaining to American History. George Washington's birthday has been observed in a fitting manner for several years, the Chapter sponsoring a Colonial Ball on that date. Also a large portrait has been placed in the city school bearing his name. In 1910 the Chapter was hostess for the Ninth State Assembly, and in 1916 had the honor of entertaining Mrs. William Cummings Story, President General, N. S. D. A. R.

Sacajawea has marked three historic spots in Thurston county, the first is placed on a boulder marking the end of the Old Oregon Trail in the City of Olympia, on the site of an old block house erected during the Indian War; the second a marker on the site of the Medicine Creek Treaty grounds, where the first Territorial Governor, Isaac Ingalls Stevens, signed the first treaty with the Indians of the Puget Sound basin, the third the home of the First Territorial Governor. In addition funds were given to aid in the erection of the markers along the Old Oregon Trail by the D. A. R. and S. A. R.

BOULDER UNVEILED JUNE 14, 1924
Marking Home of Gov. Isaac Stevens and Gov. Elisha P. Ferry

In the eighteen years the Chapter has existed four members have represented it at the National Congress at Washington, D. C., while 88 women have been affiliated with it; of these, thirteen have been transferred to other Chapters, two have become members-at-large, one has resigned, four have been dropped for non-payment of dues and the following have been called by death: Mrs. Malvina Loring Hill, Mrs. Rio Newton Howard, Mrs. Ella Rowell Smith, Mrs. Maria S. Remington, Mrs. Margaret T. Linn, Mrs. Rebie K. Beach, Mrs. Ida Rowell Davis, Mrs. Fannie Rawson Skillman, Mrs. Sarah Vertries DeLand.

Our Regents have been: Mrs. C. J. Lord, Mrs. Maria Remington, Mrs. Mary A. Bryan, Mrs. C. J. Lord (2nd term), Mrs. Lewis Morrison, Mrs. S. J. Chadwick, Mrs. R. R. Streets, Miss Helen A. Cowles, Miss Mildred Stanford, Mrs. Lou J. Filley, Mrs. Thos. M. Vance, Mrs. George Aetzel, Mrs. W. W. Tolman.

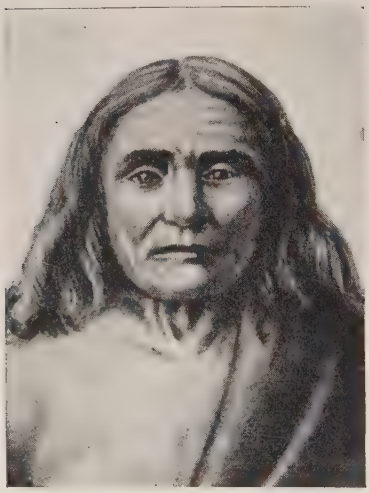
SEATTLE CHAPTER

Seattle

Organized May 31, 1906.
Number of Members, 52.
Dues, $3.00.



CHIEF SEATTLE

Chief Seattle, or Chief Sealth, for whom the City of Seattle was named, was chief of the Suquampsh (Suquamish) and Duwanipsh (Duwamish) tribes, and was born in the famous Oleman house. This Oleman house was a huge log structure and was erected by Chief Sealth's father as a rendezvous for the members of his tribe. Chief Seattle died June 7, 1866 and was buried at Suquamish. About 1890 citizens led by A. A. Denny, Hillory Butler, and Samuel L. Crawford erected a monument in his honor. On one side is the inscription: "Seattle, Chief of the Suquamps and Allied Tribes. Died June 7, 1866. The Firm Friend of the Whites, and for Him the City of Seattle was named by its Founders." On the other side: "Baptismal name, Noah Sealth. Age probably 80 years." Of his children the best known was Princess Angeline, who died in 1896 and was buried in Evergreen Cemetery in Seattle and a monument erected over her grave by a number of her white friends in grateful memory of her aid and helpfulness.

Seattle Chapter, D. A. R. was organized in May of 1906, due to the fact that Rainier Chapter had long reached its limit in membership and had a large waiting list. Therefore, four members withdrew from Rainier Chapter, and with ten others organized the new Chapter, choosing its name as a tribute to the friendly Indian Chief, Seattle. Seattle Chapter has never encouraged a large membership so that it has been possible for the chapter to meet in the homes of its members, bringing about a feeling of friendliness and good will, which has always been one of the characteristics of the chapter.

There are many pleasant occasions during Seattle Chapter's year. Washington's Birthday is always a happy event, with its annual Colonial Breakfast, at which time the members gather together in Colonial costume; after luncheon responding to many toasts appropriate to the day. Guest Day, the Annual Picnic, and the Chapter Play Day also have their part in the year's social affairs.

The Chapter has always performed its full share of state and national work. In 1909 it assisted at the D. A. R. cottage, which kept Open House during the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition for visiting D. A. R.'s. Not long after, the Chapter acted as hostess for the State Assembly; certainly an undertaking for so small a group, as at that time the entertaining chapter furnished the luncheon for all in attendance. However, the State Assembly was entertained, thanks to the united effort of the Chapter and a series of book reviews given by one of its members, Mrs. Carr.

In the period prior to the War, Seattle Chapter contributed to Child Welfare League, The Little Green Book, Schools for the Mountain Whites, and some local charities. During the War $150.00 of Liberty Bonds were purchased, each member contributing to the sum. Also $1.00 per capita was given to the National Society towards the $100,000 Liberty Bonds which the Society purchased. The Chapter's full quota was contributed to the Tilloloy Fund, and at home the members of the Chapter gave of their time and strength in entertaining the boys in uniform at the Soldiers' and Sailors' Club—this work drawing all the chapters and clubs of the city together, working for a common purpose.

Since War days the Chapter has contributed one hundred per cent to the following funds: The Emmigrants' Manual, the Painting for France, Plymouth Memorial Fountain, and the furnishing of the Organizing Secretary General's Room in the new Administration Building at Washington, D. C. Also, the Chapter had the honor to send to the museum in Memorial Continental Hall as the gift of one of its members, Mrs. Malie Dawson King, a cup and saucer which came over in the Mayflower and was given by Samuel Huntington of Connecticut, a signer of the Declaration of Independence, to his bride. Placing D. A. R. Lineage Books in the Seattle Public Library has been another accomplishment of the Chapter, and is kept up to date.

When the University of Washington D. A. R. House was first suggested, it at once received the moral support of Seattle Chapter, as well as prompt financial aid—the Chapter sending the first $100.00 check towards the purchase of the house. $30.00 additional was given by individual members; further support was given, a number of the members joining the Mothers' Club of the D. A. R. House.

So it has been that during all the years of Seattle Chapter's history generous support has been given by all the members toward its various activities, so that there has grown up a feeling of loyalty to the Chapter and towards each other,—not the least of the Chapter's worthwhile accomplishments.

Mrs. D. A. Gove served as State Regent from Seattle Chapter and Chapter Regents have been: Mrs. T. F. Hardenberg, Mrs. D. A. Gove, Mrs. John Wallace, Mrs. T. M. Clement, Miss Sophie C. Johns, Mrs. F. M. Colby, Mrs. G. S. Estey, Mrs. J. F. Jones, Mrs. Edw. Townsend, Mrs. A. H. Jones, Mrs. W. C. Morse, and Mrs. W. F. Dunlap.

NARCISSA WHITMAN CHAPTER

Yakima

Organized June 19, 1909.
Number of Members, 90.
Dues, $3.00.

Narcissa Prentiss was born to Judge and Mrs. Stephen Prentiss in the village of Prattsburg, New York, on March 14, 1808. She was the third child in a family of nine children, and was reared in an atmosphere of culture, refinement, and learning. Her father was well thought of as a citizen and as a jurist. They were all active members of the Congregational Church, with which Narcissa united at the age of eleven years.

The fair, golden-haired, blue-eyed girl made a beautiful picture as she stood at the altar and took upon herself the vows of a Christian—vows that were never broken, even to the end.

Narcissa attended Miss Willard's Seminary at Troy, and later the Franklin Academy at Prattsburg. Later she and her sister established a Kindergarten school at Bath. She was married in February, 1836, to Dr. Marcus Whitman, of Rushville, N. Y.

Before finishing her course at the Franklin Academy, Miss Prentiss made it known to the American Board that she wished to engage in Missionary work. She was now a woman of remarkable strength of character, firm but tolerant in religious matters, and most prepossessing in appearance. Her voice had been cultivated and she was a member of the choir of the Presbyterian church, at the time of Dr. Whitman's arrival from the West, in Angelica, N. Y.

Dr. and Mrs. Whitman were married in the church at Angelica at the close of a regular Sunday evening service. At the close of the ceremony the pastor announced a hymn, but the choir members, overcome with emotion, sang with much difficulty, and the last stanza was sung by Mrs. Whitman alone. It was the last time she sang in her native state; the scene was impressive, and the words of the hymn appropriate.

"Yes, my native land, I love thee,
All thy scenes I love them well,
Friends, connections, happy country,
Now, I bid you all farewell."

Dr. and Mrs. Whitman started west the day following their marriage, traveling by sleigh and stage. After many hardships and dangers encountered on the journey, on September 1st, 1836, the first white woman to cross the continent rode into the historic grounds of Old Fort Walla Walla.

The Walla Walla mission was located on the Walla Walla River about twenty-five miles above Fort Walla Walla, among the Cayuse, a tribe, though few in numbers, rich, brave and powerful. The mission became known as Waiilatpu, meaning "the place where the rye grass grows."

On the 14th of March, less than three months after her arrival in Waiilatpu, and on her 29th anniversary, the first and only child was born to Dr. and Mrs. Whitman. She was named Alice Clarissa. Soon the Indians became much attached to the little child and she proved to be, during her short life of only two years, a strong bond between the natives and her parents. On Sunday morning, June 23, 1839, the little girl was drowned while trying to get a cup of water from the river. Only a bereaved mother can know the anguish that tore the brave heart of Narcissa Whitman as they gathered about the open grave.

Soon the Indians began to look with jealous eye on what they considered evidences of great prosperity on the part of the Missionaries. They became insolent to the Doctor, and waxed indignant when reproved. On Nov. 29, 1847, the dreadful massacre occurred and Dr. and Mrs. Whitman both gave their lives to the cause they loved so dearly. Thus fell the final curtain on the greatest tragedy of Oregon's history.

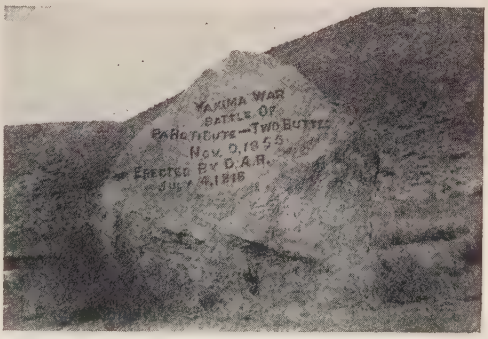
"In Narcissa Whitman we find a character well intended to exemplify the higher and nobler qualities of our race. Finding in her the beautiful personality we so much admire, and the womanly qualities we would perpetuate, it would be strange, indeed, if we failed to confer upon her in love and loyalty, the mystic crown of martyrdom."—Alberta S. Udell.

Narcissa Whitman Chapter was organized with twenty-one members and by the following year had grown to forty members. Miss Sue Lombard was elected Regent; Mrs. W. L. Wright, Secretary; Mrs. Alex Miller, Registrar. Flag Day was observed this first year and has been observed continuously since. A prize of a book was given to the high school student making the best record in American History and a Colonial Ball was given in the Armory on Washington's Birthday. This ball is now an annual affair and is given on Washington's Wedding Day.

In 1911 the Chapter recommended that the President General's Room in Memorial Continental Hall be dedicated to Mrs. Harrison. The Chapter contributed to the Y. W. C. A. and toward placing benches under the trees in Naches Avenue. Made our first contribution to the Berry School and have contributed annually since—$25.00 being the average amount. In 1912, presented to the High School "The Trail of Lewis and Clark" in two volumes. Entertained the State Assembly from April 2nd to April 5th. There were fifty-two delegates from six Chapters. In 1913 the Float entered by the Chapter at the Fair won the prize of $10.00. The Chapter purchased "Pioneer Women of America" in three volumes, and after being reviewed, presented it to the Public Library. Gave a patriotic program at the McKinley High School and gave a prize of $5.00 for excellence in History. In 1914 and 1915 the Chapter observed Narcissa Whitman's birthday, March 15, with a special program. In May was begun the custom of having an annual picnic followed by the election of officers.

In 1916 Mrs. Edmund Bowden presented to the Chapter a beautifully embroidered sleeve worn by Narcissa Whitman, and suitably framed to preserve it. To emphasize the support of the Red Cross by the Daughters of the American Revolution, twenty-seven joined their auxiliary and the Chapter gave one day a week for sewing at headquarters. The Chapter observed July 4th by unveiling a monument marking an historic spot in pioneer history. The monument is a 15-ton boulder of native basalt and marks the scene of a three-days' battle between the Government forces and Oregon Volunteers and the Indians in 1855, known as the Battle of Two Buttes.



BOULDER MARKING BATTLE TWO BUTTES
Unveiled July 4, 1916

1917-1920. These years were devoted to making garments and hospital supplies at Red Cross Headquarters. Each member earned $5.00 toward American Relief Work, and the Chapter adopted two French Orphans. The regent served as Vice Chairman on the County Council of Defense and as Yakima County Chairman Extension Dept., Yakima Valley Chapter of the Red Cross. A member assisted in Canteen work, in Red Cross Jumble Shop, and Motor Corps. The Chapter bought Liberty Bonds and War Savings Stamps to the amount of $120,000.00. Rags for guns, jelly and fruit, toilet articles and housewives were donated and $191.00 contributed to purchase yarn for knitting 188 garments. $25.00 was given to the Hostess House at Camp Lewis. $117.00 to the local Red Cross Chapter, $11.00 to the Tilloloy Fund. Twenty-five of our members gave the services of those near and dear to them in the great struggle, of whom two made the supreme sacrifice. The Chapter presented to the N. S. D. A. R. Library: "Kamiakin, The Last Hero of the Yakimas" by A. J. Splawn; "Waiilatpu, Its Rise and Fall" by Miles Cannon, and "Southeastern Washington."

1921-1922. Our Chapter had resumed its even tenor of its way—contributing generously to the Berry School, Near East Relief, Guernsey Scholarship, Convoy Painting, and for the distribution of Americanization pamphlets. Our programs were unusually interesting and several papers were sent to National and State Reciprocity Bureaus.

1923. The State Conference was again entertained by our Chapter and was the outstanding feature of our Year's work. Since our organization the Chapter has been honored by having one of its members, Mrs. Walter Reed, elected State Regent, while several others have been elected to various offices on the state Board and important committees.

Our Chapter Regents have been: Mrs. Frank Horsley, Mrs. Alexander Miller, Mrs. H. P. James, Mrs. W. B. Guthrie, Mrs. L. L. Porter, Mrs. C. E. Udell, Mrs. Walter Bradbury, Mrs. Ernest Woodcock, and Mrs. James Donald.

MARCUS WHITMAN CHAPTER

Everett

MARCUS WHITMAN

Marcus Whitman, a descendant of John Whitman of Weymouth, who came from England in 1638, was born at Rushville, N. Y., September 4, 1802. His parents were Bega and Alice (Green) Whitman, prominent citizens at Rushville and honored members of the Presbyterian Church.

After his father's death in 1810, Marcus lived with his grandfather, Samuel Whitman of Plainfield, Mass., where he attended the best schools of the town, had a thorough Latin course and took some extra work with the local minister. He was very anxious to study for the ministry, but a long illness and the advice of friends caused him to study medicine instead. After graduating he practiced for four years in Canada after which he settled in Wheeler, N. Y., and practiced another four years.

In 1835 Dr. Whitman became interested in missionary work among the Indians of the Northwest and accompanied his friend, Rev. Samuel Parker, on an expedition with a party of fur traders as far as the Rocky Mountains. Here meeting Indians whose interest in religious matters was convincing, Dr. Whitman returned to Rushville for more missionaries. Before starting out again the Doctor married his sweetheart, Narcissa Prentiss, daughter of Judge Prentiss, of Angelica, N. Y. The Whitman party, comprising five persons, reached Fort Walla Walla, September 1, 1836. Dr. Whitman was sent to labor among the Cayuse and Walla Walla Indians about twenty-five miles from the Fort. Here it was possible for him in five years time, without funds or other aid than that of a fellow missionary at short intervals, to fence, plow, build, plant an orchard and at the same time learn an Indian language and perform the duties of a physician.

On the early morning of October 3, 1842, Marcus Whitman started on his famous ride across the continent. This ride of five months' duration is unparalleled in personal peril and insistent bravery. There exists a difference of opinion regarding the object of this ride; some historians asserting it was for the purpose of saving Oregon to the Flag and that through Dr. Whitman's interview with President Tyler his one request was granted; viz:—that nothing should be done towards parting with Oregon until Whitman himself should be given time to demonstrate its accessibility to immigration from the states by land. Other writers claim that the trip was made to secure a withdrawal of the order made by the American Board to discontinue the southern mission, Waiilatpu. But regardless of the dispute among historians and people in general as to the actual service rendered Oregon by Dr. Whitman, let us never forget the heroism of that Christian missionary who stormed the Rocky Mountain ranges in midwinter, and then brought out to their new home a thousand settlers who planted patriotism in the virgin soil with their first crop. This great emigration reached Walla Walla valley in September, 1843, and is said to have practically changed the drift of the Oregon question.

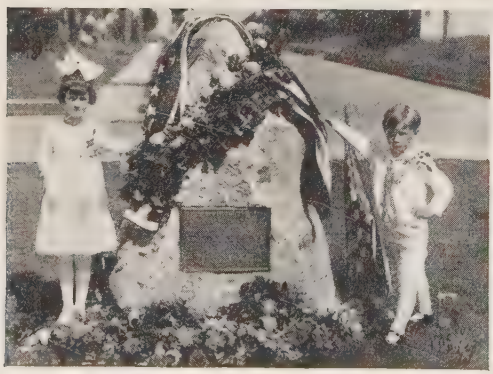
After Dr. Whitman's return three years of strenuous work in school, field, mill, homes and camps followed. In November, 1847, there was much sickness, especially measles and fever. A spirit of hatred for the white people manifested itself and the lives of the missionaries were threatened, and their safety imperiled. On the 29th day of the month, Dr. Whitman and his wife were massacred, the leaders being the Cayuse Indians at Waiilatpu for whom Dr. and Mrs. Whitman had kindly cared and for whose welfare they felt the tenderest solicitude. Fourteen people were killed and forty women and children carried into captivity.

Marcus Whitman Chapter was organized June 14, 1911, with a membership of twenty-three; Mrs. Amos Hager, organizing regent. The charter members were as follows: Mrs. Amos Hager, regent; Miss Elma Beecham, vice-regent; Miss Lotta Records, recording secretary; Miss Olivie Gerrish, corresponding secretary; Mrs. O. V. Emery, registrar; Mrs. J. Y. Kennedy, treasurer; Miss Flora Sherwood, historian; Miss Minnie Siler, Miss Lola Records, Miss Clara Garrison, Mrs. J. O. Garrison, Mrs. Dorothy Hager Redfearn, Mrs. C. P. Spriestarbach, Mrs. Frances Whiting Lee, Mrs. L. E. Thayer, Mrs. S. P. Keithley, Mrs. Mary S. Baker, Mrs. D. A. Cheasley, Mrs. Ellen Harsell, Miss Bessie Hedemark, Mrs. A. C. Hedemark, Mrs. J. B. Moyer, Mrs. Sarah Andrews Thornton. During its existence, the Chapter has received 117 members. The present membership is seventy-nine; fifty-nine resident, and twenty non-resident members.

The most notable events in the history of the Chapter include (1) the placing of a boulder of native granite in the City Park, marking the spot where Vancouver, the British explorer, landed on the site of Everett, June 4, 1792; (2) the securing of Madame Schumann-Heink, the celebrated contralto, in concert at the Everett Theatre. The concert was given under the auspices of Marcus Whitman Chapter, and the proceeds were reserved for war relief; (3) co-operation of Marcus Whitman Chapter and the Everett Drama League in the production of an out-door pageant, Flag Day, June 14, 1920. They were assisted by a number of other organizations of the city in making the pageant a pronounced success; (4) the holding of the Washington D. A. R., Fifteenth Annual State Conference, at Everett, March 31-April 1, 1916. Another event of note was the placing of a large wreath of laurel, tied with the national colors, on the framework of the Liberty Bell on the occasion of its visit to the city. The Chapter is also proud of the fact that a room in the D. A. R. University Chapter house bears the name of Marcus Whitman Chapter.



BOULDER MARKING LANDING CAPT. VANCOUVER
City Park, Everett, June 4, 1915

Marcus Whitman Chapter has contributed generously to the following things: The Martha Berry School, Witherspoon College of Kentucky, U. of W. Chapter House; to the purchase of Liberty Bonds; to the local Y. W. C. A.; Red Cross; Near East Relief; New Everett General Hospital, and assisted in making plans, and contributed to fund, for the erection of Everett's story pole as a memorial to the Indian Chief, Patkanin, who was instrumental in bringing about the famous treaty between the white men and Indians at Mukilteo, in 1855. The Chapter has also answered at various times, to the calls of the National Society, towards liquidating the debt on Memorial Continental Hall, gave its full quota for Liberty Loan and Tilloloy funds, and for furnishing Washington Room in Administration Building, as well as other national projects. Also assisted other patriotic organizations in furnishing Veterans' Hall in the State Armory at Everett.

During the War, the Chapter supported two French orphans, spent two days per week in sewing for the Red Cross and furnished a large amount of knitted garments for the Navy League. Marcus Whitman Chapter has the distinction of sponsoring the only children of the American Revolution Society in the State. The George Washington Society, C. A. R., was organized March 5, 1921, by Mrs. W. A. Killien with seventeen charter members. Under the able direction of Mrs. Frank L. Cooper and her committee, an interesting program has been arranged for the coming year.

The Committee on Patriotic Education has been most active. Cash prizes and gold and silver history medals have been awarded pupils of the city schools for best essays on historical subjects and for highest average in American History. Copies of the U. S. Constitution were purchased and posted in conspicuous places about the city and vicinity. The Immigrants' Manual has also been presented to new citizens at Naturalization Court.

The largest annual event of the Chapter is a Colonial Breakfast held on Washington's Birthday. A treat and patriotic program is also provided on that day for the children of the Deaconess' Home. Monthly visits are also paid the County Farm and interesting programs given. At Christmas time, individual Christmas boxes containing a gift, fruit, and candy, are sent each inmate at the Farm. Vesper Services were conducted for three consecutive years by the Chapter at the Y. W. C. A., on the Sunday preceding or following Washington's Birthday.

The Chapter maintains a "D. A. R. Corner" in the Public Library and has an excellent collection of genealogical reference books. Mr. Charles Collyer Whittier of Boston donated a number of valuable books as a nucleus and he has manifested his interest in the Chapter many times since. Papers written by members have been sent the Reciprocity Bureau on the following subjects: "Beginnings of New England" by Mrs. H. E. Engel; Marcus Whitman, Pioneer, Missionary, and Patriot," by Mrs. O. C. Gaston; "Home Life of our Colonial Ancestors," by Mrs. O. L. Miller.

The Past Regents of Marcus Whitman Chapter include: Mrs. Amos Hager, Mrs. J. P. Torrey, Mrs. O. V. Emery, Mrs. S. P. Keithly, Mrs. W. A. Johnson, Mrs. S. J. Pritchard, Mrs. H. E. Engel, Mrs. Frank L. Cooper, Mrs. J. B. Moyer. Mrs. Charles H. Burdick is the present regent. The meetings of the Chapter are held in Veterans' Hall, the Armory, the second Thursday of the month. The Chapter Motto is: "In Great Things, Unity; In Small Things, Liberty; In All Things, Charity."

(Mrs. Amos) Allie Belle Hager,
(Mrs. J. B.) Julia McCormick Moyer,
Past Regents.

KENNEWICK CHAPTER

Kennewick

Organized May 15, 1912.
Number of Members, 19.
Dues, $3.00.

Kennewick Chapter was named for the city of Kennewick. The name was originally "Konowack" or "Kennewack," meaning "Grassy Place." The first settler was C. J. Beach. Clark once visited the Indians near here in 1805, where the railroad bridge crosses the river at Ainsworth. The town was named by H. S. Huson, one of the engineers who laid out the Northern Pacific Railroad through Washington.

The Chapter has remained small as Kennewick has a changing population. Our principal work has been with the schools and library. We have given three lectures with the lantern slides (secured from the Interchangeable Bureau of Lectures at Washington) to the school children. One in the high school auditorium for the whole school on the "Evolution of the Flag," with very appropriate exercises by the children. The other two were given in the moving picture theatre for the older scholars only—the principal reading the lecture. We have placed the Constitution of the United States in the schools and post office. Distributed many leaflets of the American's Creed in all the schools, also leaflets on the "Correct Use of the Flag." We repair the books in the local library to the best of our ability. During the War did everything within our power to encourage patriotism and assisted with Red Cross work. Have met all National and State assessments.

Once a year we have a luncheon. On other meeting days we study our history; members giving a short talk on the subject assigned them. This year we are studying the work of the Society as a whole in order that we may have a better understanding of what our great Society stands for, works for, and encourages.

Our Regents have been: Mrs. W. B. Wuth, Mrs. W. J. Mann, Mrs. Averill Beavers, Mrs. G. D. Peters, Mrs. J. H. Siegfried, Mrs. E. A. Gray, and Mrs. Otto Wuth.

(Mrs. Otto) Camilla Barclay Wuth, Regent.

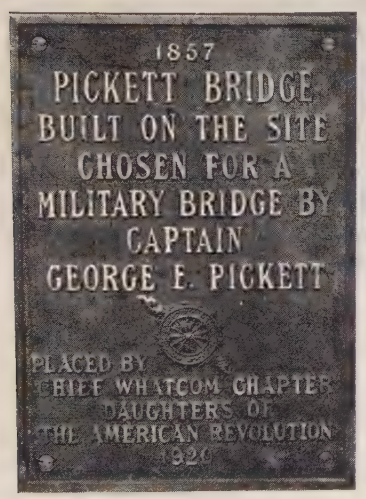
CHIEF WHATCOM CHAPTER

Bellingham

Organized October 20, 1912.
Number of Members, 52.
Dues, $3.00.

The name of "Chief Whatcom" was suggested by Mrs. Phoebe Judson, one of the Charter Members, herself a granddaughter of the Revolution, and one of the earliest settlers in Whatcom County. It was adopted as a tribute to Chief Whatcom of the Nooksack tribe who had shown himself in many ways a true friend of the white settlers in this part of the country, particularly during the Indian wars from 1855 to 1860. Mrs. Judson still lives at an advanced age as the most honored pioneer woman of Whatcom County. Our Chapter counts it a privilege to include her, her daughter, her two granddaughters, and her great granddaughter among its membership.



MARKER ON PICKETT BRIDGE
Erected 1920

Our record is not sensational but we have sincerely tried to meet our obligations and do our duty and have met with a fair measure of success. We have a good war record—both as to service of our sons at the front and service at home. We have marked a few historic spots, notably the bridge in honor of General George Pickett, who commanded here at Fort Bellingham in 1859. We have always contributed our full quota towards all State and National projects and also gave over a hundred dollars to the D. A. R. Chapter House, and we are trying to become more and more a powerful influence for patriotism and public integrity in our community.

The Regents who have served us are: Mrs. V. A. Roeder, Mrs. A. E. Mead, Mrs. S. W. Haight, Mrs. W. H. Abbott, Mrs. R. S. Simpson, and Mrs. C. X. Larrabee.

(Mrs. C. X.) Frances Payne Larrabee,
Regent.

MERIWETHER LEWIS CHAPTER

Chehalis

Organized April 11, 1914.
Number of Members, 26.
Dues, $3.00.

MERIWETHER LEWIS

Meriwether Lewis was born near Charlottesville, Virginia, August 18, 1774. In 1794 he volunteered with the troops called out to supress the "whiskey insurrection," was commissioned as ensign in the regular army in 1795, and as captain in 1800, and was President Jefferson's private secretary from 1801 to 1803. On Jefferson's recommendation he was appointed by Congress to conduct, in connection with Capt. William Clark, an expedition to the head waters of the Missouri river, and then across the mountains to the Pacific Ocean—the first extended exploration of the northwestern portion of the United States. The States had as yet acquired no claim to this region, and the exploration was designed by Jefferson in the interests, not only of geographical science, but of territorial acquisition. Lewis and Clark setting out late in 1803 with 28 men, spent the winter at the mouth of the Missouri. Early in the spring the party made the difficult ascent of the Missouri as far as 47° 21′ N. Lat., where the second winter was passed among the Mandan Indians. In 1805 the ascent of the Missouri was continued as far as the tributary, which they named Jefferson river, which was followed to its source in the southwestern part of what is now Montana. Procuring a guide and horses from the Shoshone Indians they pushed westward through the mountains, and on October 7 embarked in canoes on a tributary of the Columbia river, the mouth of which they reached on November 15. They had traveled upwards of 4,000 miles from their starting point, and had encountered various Indian tribes never before seen by whites, and had made scientific collections and observations, and were the first explorers to reach the Pacific by crossing the continent north of Mexico. After spending the winter upon the Columbia, they made the return journey across the mountains, reaching the Mississippi in September, 1806. The reports of the Lewis and Clark expedition attracted great attention at the time. The leaders and men of the exploring party were rewarded with liberal grants of land, and Lewis was made governor of the territory of Missouri. He died near Nashville, Tennessee, October 11, 1809.

Meriwether Lewis Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution was organized April 11, 1914, at the home of Mrs. A. L. Coffman, who had previously been appointed an organizing regent by Mrs. Henry McCleary.

The charter members were: Mrs. A. L. Coffman, Mrs. Mary F. Davis, Mrs. Kate C. Millett, Mrs. F. M. Power, Mrs. Ellsworth Gage, Mrs. C. H. Forney, Mrs. Bessie Martin, Mrs. E. A. Frost, Mrs. Maide S. Richardson, Mrs. Fred Swayne, Mrs. J. J. Banks, Mrs. J. Y. Coffman, Miss Mary E. Arnold, Mrs. Skillman Van Cott, Miss Marian Forney, Mrs. N. B. Coffman, Mrs. T. M. Donahoe and Mrs. D. T. Coffman.

The Chapter since its organization has taken an active part in all patriotic work of the State and National Society. In 1916 it placed a large flag in the court room of Lewis County; it assisted in all kinds of war work during the World War, including subscriptions to the Liberty Loan bonds. It has contributed towards rebuilding of Tilloloy; the Plymouth Rock Memorial Fund; Immigrants' Manual; Guernsey Scholarship Fund, Convoy Painting; the Organizing Secretary General's Room, and oil painting of Mrs. Story. It has contributed to the D. A. R. House at the State University and offered prizes for the highest standing in U. S. History in the seventh and eighth grades in the public schools of Chehalis.

The Chapter has long planned to mark the Old Oregon Trail where it passes through Chehalis with a bronze statue of Meriwether Lewis and for this purpose established a sinking fund. Owing to the many calls for money during and since the war the fund has grown slowly, but surely.

With fourteen active members our Chapter entertained the State Conference in October, 1923.

Our regents have been: Mrs. A. L. Coffman, Mrs. C. H. Forney, Mrs. Elsworth Gage, Mrs. E. S. Orr, and Mrs. N. B. Coffman.

Mrs. A. L. Coffman,
Mrs. C. H. Forney,
Mrs. J. Y. Coffman,
Chairman.

JOHN KENDRICK CHAPTER

Wenatchee

Organized May 20, 1914.
Number of Members, 64.
Dues, $5.00.

Captain John Kendrick was an American explorer and navigator, born in Boston about 1745 and died in Hawaii in 1800. During the Revolution he sailed a privateer, and in 1787, while in command of the Columbia, and later of the Washington, explored the northwest coast of America and Pacific islands. He was among the earliest American sailors to attempt voyages for discovery. He visited Hawaii and China several times on trading tours and it was he who established the sandalwood trade between the two countries.

John Kendrick Chapter was organized May 20, 1914 with twelve charter members through the efforts of Mrs. W. J. McCoy who was the Organizing Regent and first Chapter Regent. She is now a member of Rainier Chapter. The membership has increased to sixty-four. Seven of these have been transferred, two have been claimed by death and one dropped for non-payment of dues.

The regular monthly meetings are held the third Thursday of each month with an average attendance of twenty-nine during the past few years. The annual dues originally were two dollars but have been increased to five dollars. A ritual has been adopted which includes the American's Creed and an appropriate prayer. This is used to open meetings. A business meeting follows and the remainder of the afternoon is devoted to a program. These programs have covered a study of the history, geography, and resources of our own state and several interesting papers from the Reciprocity Bureau. This present year the D. A. R. Magazine has furnished material for our programs. The President General's Message is read at each meeting and the magazine reviewed by some member. Several papers written by members of the Chapter have been sent to the Reciprocity Bureau. Washington's Birthday, Memorial Day and Flag Day are appropriately observed by this Chapter.

We have given special attention to the Correct Use of the Flag in our city and Public Schools. In fact our present chairman of the Flag committee, Mrs. J. A. Scaman has been so alert that every business house in the city knows that the Daughters of the American Revolution will not tolerate a misuse of the Flag.

During the war we devoted our time to War work. We have given our financial support to many worthy causes, including Belgian Relief Fund, Marking the Old Oregon Trail, French Orphanage Fund, Berry School in Georgia, Tilloloy Fund, Anti-tuberculosis League, local Y. M. C. A., Guernsey Fund, Immigrants' Manual, Fountain and Painting Fund; have met all financial obligations to the State and National Societies. During the past year we have given generously to the University Chapter House Fund and furnishing the Organizing Secretary General's Room in the Administration Building. This year we have subscribed $50.00 to the U. of W. Chapter House fund and voted cash prizes to the high school and eighth grade student having the highest average in United States History for the year.

The Committee for Patriotic Education is wide awake and ready to assist the American Legion or any other patriotic organization when called upon. The Committee has attended the Naturalization proceedings at the Court House when citizenship was granted to aliens. It has placed the Immigrants' Manual in the hands of these new citizens and also placed the Manuals in the Public Library for distribution by the Librarian. The work of the Committee is rather limited in this locality because of the comparatively few foreigners. The Chapter is alive and enthusiastic, always ready to cooperate in any civic or patriotic way, either for city or nation.

Our Regents have been: Mrs. W. J. McCoy, Mrs. B. J. Williams, Mrs. Geo. Burbank, Mrs. L. F. Buck, Mrs. C. E. Owens, Mrs. S. R. Sumner.

(Mrs. C. E.) Genevieve Grosvenor Owens.

NARCISSA PRENTISS CHAPTER

Walla Walla

Organized February 22, 1915.
Number of Members, 57.
Dues, $5.00.

Narcissa Prentiss, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Stephen Prentiss was born March 4, 1808, in Prattsburg, New York. She was the third child in a family of nine children. Her father ranked high as a citizen and jurist and they were all active members of the Congregational Church. Narcissa united with the church when eleven years old. She was a plump, fair, golden-haired, blue-eyed girl and is said to have presented a beautiful picture as she stood at the altar and took upon herself the vows of a Christian. In 1834 she united with the Presbyterian Church. Narcissa Prentiss attended Miss Willard's Seminary at Troy, New York, and completed her education at Franklin Academy in Prattsburg. She and her sister Jane established a sort of kindergarten school at Bath, where she remained until 1834, when she moved with her family to Angelica, New York, at which place she was united in marriage in February, 1836, to Dr. Marcus Whitman, of Rushville, New York.

How long Dr. Whitman had known Miss Prentiss is largely a matter of conjecture, but it is presumed that he met her not later than the spring of 1833. A letter written to her from Liberty, Missouri, while on his way to the West in the spring of 1835, would probably indicate that they were engaged before his departure from New York. Dr. and Mrs. Whitman were married in the church of Angelica, the ceremony being performed on a Sunday evening at the close of regular service. The two Indian boys who were there with Dr. Whitman were deeply interested in the proceedings and their faces brightened when told Mrs. Whitman would return to Oregon with them. At the close of the ceremony the pastor announced a missionary hymn, but the choir members, overcome with emotion, sang with difficulty. The last stanza was sung by Mrs. Whitman alone, her beautiful voice unwavering to the end.

They started West the next day, traveling by sleigh and stage to Pittsburg, then by boat to Cincinnati. They reached St. Louis on the nineteenth of March, leaving there March thirty-first, 1836. On September 1, 1836, Narcissa Prentiss Whitman, the first American woman to cross the continent, rode into the historic ground of "Old Fort Walla Walla," and the land travel of this memorable journey was at an end.

She who played the leading role in this historic drama, was now in the prime of life, a woman of commanding appearance, noble in deportment, cultured and refined. She had been reared in comfort and had moved in the best circles of society. In conversation she was highly interesting, tactful, animated and cheerful, in repartee remarkably clever though always courteous and free to converse with all she met. She was firm in matters of right and wrong, an element in her character that caused her to be greatly disliked by many of the Indians. She possessed a soprano voice of great volume and sweetness and was the star in many of the concerts around the evening camp fire.

To their own log cabin that had been built in the wilderness of Waiilatpu, six miles west of the present site of Walla Walla, on the evening of December 10, 1836, came Narcissa Prentiss Whitman, the fair and cultured bride who led the way for a host of women across a continent. "Where are we now, and who are we that we should be thus blessed by the Lord?" was her comment as she gazed on the scenes around her. In a letter written July 11, 1838, she mentions having received her first letters from home.

On the fourteenth of March, 1837, their first and only child was born to Dr. and Mrs. Whitman. She was named Alice Clarissa. On Sunday morning, June 23, 1839, Alice Clarissa went to the river near by with two cups to get some water for the table, fell in and was drowned.

Narcissa Prentiss Whitman was an indefatigable worker in the Indian school they had established.

In the fall of 1844, seven orphan children, their parents having died on the way West, came to the Whitman Mission. Meager was the story they told, yet pathetic in the extreme, and as Mrs. Whitman seated in her arm chair holding the little babe in her lap, repeated the story she would frequently pause and exclaim, "Poor children, poor children." "I have been thinking," said the Doctor, "that we can take all the children except the little babe, I do not see how we can do that." "All or none, Marcus," rejoined Mrs. Whitman. Afterwards she said to the Doctor, "You see, Marcus, I wanted the babe as a charm to bind the rest to me."

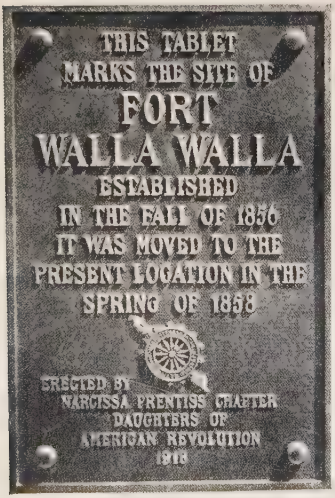
She and Dr. Whitman, together with twelve others were massacred by the Indians, November 27, 1847. She being the only woman killed.

In this dark period the remarkable character of Narcissa Prentiss Whitman stood forth in the mighty calmness of her nature; her serene and placid features betrayed no sign of fear as she comforted those about her with words of hope. Even after she had pillowed the bleeding head of her husband, in whose body she thought there appeared a flickering spark of life, and after she was weak from loss of blood, she directed the others how to care for themselves, courageous, lovable and thoughtful of others, standing by her post to the very last.

Narcissa Prentiss Chapter is especially fortunate in being in a locality rich in historic events. Fort Walla Walla being among the first in the Pacific Northwest—Narcissa for whom our Chapter is named, being the first white woman to cross the Rocky mountains—and the pioneers of Walla Walla being among those most honored in the growth of this glorious West.

Narcissa Prentiss Chapter was organized February twenty-second, nineteen hundred and fifteen, Miss Malen Burnett being the organizing Regent with the help of the State Regent, Mrs. Henry McCleary. There were about twenty charter members.

At the beginning of the World War, the Red Cross work, in Walla Walla was begun and carried on by the D. A. R. until taken over by the National Red Cross organization. Mrs. Sadie Rees of the Chapter, filled most efficiently a number of different offices until 1922. In 1918, a bronze tablet was placed to mark the site of the original Fort Walla Walla. All arrangements have been made to place another tablet on a large granite boulder to mark the site of the Indian Council with Governor Stevens in 1855. During the War a French orphan was supported by the Chapter.



MARKING ORIGINAL SITE
FORT WALLA WALLA
Erected 1918

Contributions have been sent to Berry School; American International College; Highland School; Oriental College; D. A. R. Chapter House at the U. of W. Fifty-five dollars sent to Washington, D. C. toward furnishing of Washington room in the new building. A prize of five dollars to be given the student in the High School with the best grade in United States History; ten dollars paid to get correct list of illiterates in our County. "Flag Law and Etiquette" distributed to all schools in the County. Mrs. J. P. Neal, a charter member, taught in the Night School in 1922-23. A program was given at the Fort Hospital for the disabled War Veterans.

All members of the Chapter tried to do their part in co-operating with the city of Walla Walla in preparing and giving the pageant "How the West Was Won," which was given in commemoration of the seventy-fifth anniversary of the Whitman Massacre. Mrs. Nancy Osborn Jacobs, one of the survivors of that awful tragedy, visited the Costume sewing room one afternoon a few days before the Pageant and told us many interesting things about the wonderfully unselfish character of Narcissa Prentiss Whitman.

Mrs. J. F. Watson and Mrs. A. F. Kees were delegates to the National Convention last April. They brought back to the Chapter many inspiring messages.

Besides the numerous pieces of furniture of Revolutionary time among the members, we have a dress sleeve, beautifully hand-embroidered, of Narcissa Prentiss; a fife and gun used during the Revolution; a trunk lined with a copy of the first newspaper published in the United States; and a chair which was brought from London on one of the three ships bringing the historic tea to Boston. Then there are the invaluable letters, books, relics and diaries, among them the diary of Narcissa Prentiss, owned by Whitman College and two handmade flags which helped to make Pioneer History.

The number of Chapter members at present are: resident members, forty-seven (47); non-resident members, ten (10). One of our members, Helen Abby Pepoon, is a real granddaughter and Mrs. Howard Thompson is State Vice Regent. Our Regent is Mrs. H. S. Brode, who is loved by all. Our Past Regents are. Miss Malen Burnett, Mrs. Emmett Evans, Mrs. Sadie Rees, Mrs. W. D. Lyman, Mrs. John F. Watson.

BETSEY WRIGHT CHAPTER

Newport

Organized October 31, 1916.
Number of Members, 19.
Dues, $3.00.

BETSEY WRIGHT (WASHBURNE)

Betsey Wright, for whom our Chapter was named, was a Real Daughter of the American Revolution. She was born July 5, 1815, in Bradford, Orange County, Vermont, where she resided during her early childhood. Then she, with her parents, moved to northern New Hampshire, where at the age of nineteen she was married to James Washburne. She was the granddaughter of Captain Simeon Wright of the 3rd Regiment, 5th Company of Vermont, and her father, Simeon Wright, Jr., was in his father's Company.

She was a typical New England woman, whose life was devoted to others. Her home, where she toiled at the loom, weaving material for her children's dresses of Scotch plaids, relics of which still exist, was the place she loved and cherished above all places on earth. Her spinning wheel, flax wheel and several pieces of her work, as well as caps and home spun linen aprons, nearly two hundred years old, woven and spun by her mother are now the property of her granddaughters of whom she has five in the Betsey Wright Chapter.

We immediately started in with War work, making household kits for soldiers, which we sent through the D. A. R. Red Cross service. Our Regent was instrumental in bringing the American Red Cross to Newport in 1916. We busied ourselves with War work, working through the newly established Red Cross, when in December, 1917, we received our charter.

By special assessments, we were able to buy War Savings Stamps and although a small Chapter, did all we could to help with the wonderful work undertaken by the N. S. D. A. R. We sent for the Nellie Custis Cook Books, which we sold and immediately turned the money into War Savings Stamps. After the War, we became, for the first time, actively acquainted with National

D. A. R. work. We had lost a few of our original members but we were able to meet our special assessments from the State and National Society.

In April, 1922, we joined forces with the local American Legion and gave a dance which so boosted our treasury that we were able to help with the U. of Washington Chapter house, buying a bond and sending them a small check for the general fund. In the fall, we gave an apron and food sale, which netted us $50.00. We sent $1.00 per capita for furnishing the Washington Room at Memorial Continental Hall. Our membership had increased from 12 to 19 and we had a real bank account of which we were very proud. This year, besides doing our regular D. A. R. work, we are undertaking to furnish a room in the local Community Hospital. Our statistics are of a financial nature, but our country is so new that there is very little Immigration and Americanization work.

V: DREBBER.

TREBERT COAT OF ARMS

Michael Trebert was born in Lancaster, Penna., August 15, 1756, and died there November 27, 1818. His ancestors were French Huguenots. He was an associator or volunteer in the company of Captain Jacob King's Light Infantry Battalion of Lancaster County Associators, commanded by Colonel Matthias Slough. He served from September 9, 1776, the date of the muster at Lancaster, until the end of the War.

He participated in the capture of the Hessian troops on Christmas day, 1776, and afterward guarded them at Lebanon and Lancaster. He was actively engaged in the Battle of Long Island, and participated in the Jersey Campaign. He was also with General George Washington at Valley Forge that memorable winter when the soldiers suffered great privations. But it was from Washington's own words that an adequate idea can be gathered: "To see men without clothes to cover their nakedness, without blankets to lie on * * * Naked and starving as they are, we cannot enough admire the incomparable patience and fidelity of the soldier."

He took oath of allegiance at Lancaster, November 6, 1778. He was a true patriot of the Revolution and served his country faithfully. He was in many severe engagements and received several dangerous wounds in the cause of independence. He received as his only reward the satisfaction of reflecting that by his efforts he had contributed to the establishment of the blood-bought liberties of his beloved country, America.

Since its organization, Michael Trebert Chapter has been an active factor in the patriotic development of Port Angeles. Owing to the impending national situation on account of the Great War, it was decided by the Chapter on March 12, 1917, to cooperate as an organization with the Red Cross and to take charge of such work until the organization of a Red Cross Society in Port Angeles. Much work was accomplished, such as knitting, preparing hospital supplies, sewing, subscribing for Liberty bonds, etc.

After the organization of a Red Cross Society in Port Angeles, Michael Trebert Chapter became an auxiliary to the Red Cross and continued the work begun.

The support of a French War Orphan was undertaken, which was continued after the War. One member took the Red Cross Home Service Course in Seattle in 1918 and served as executive secretary of Clallam County Chapter of the American Red Star and was chairman of that department of war service till the close of the War. One member was chosen and served on Superior Court jury in an I. W. W. trial, and after hearing the seditious charges and literature was glad to help in returning a verdict of "Guilty," which sent the prisoner to Monroe for fourteen years. Another member had charge of an Hostess House in Pittsburg for eight months, then, after the signing of the Armistice, was hostess in a tea-room at a reconstruction hospital near Pittsburg, and later helped to entertain the wounded soldiers in Pittsburg.

Since the War the Chapter has contributed liberally to charity, responding to both local and outside calls, among which was the paying of $60.00 for the relief of an Armenian orphan. Gifts of table linen for furnishing of American Legion hall and tea towels for the University of Washington Chapter House have been given, also a bridge and mah jongg tea for the benefit of the Chapter House.

Michael Trebert Chapter has celebrated all special days as far as possible; has had Colonial Teas and benefit card parties. A tea was given in the summer of 1922 for the officers and their wives of the combined Pacific and Atlantic Fleets, which were stationed in Port Angeles harbor at that time. Michael Trebert Chapter has been represented by floats in the Fourth of July parades, winning one prize of $10.00. The Magazine has been placed in the Public Library by the Chapter. The American's Creed, Washington State Flag Law, and rules for the Correct Use of the Flag have been distributed throughout the schools. Copies of the State Flag Law have been posted among the industries and public places. Two prizes were given in the seventh and eighth grades for the best composition on "My Flag." The Manual for Immigrants has been placed in the hands of officials to be given out to foreigners when applying for second papers. to help them in their study and preparation. The Chapter has used its influence with our senators and representatives of both state and nation, towards the passage of prospective patriotic measures.

A large granite boulder was set in place by Michael Trebert Chapter, April 25, 1924. A bronze tablet tells the legend: "President Lincoln, on June 19, 1862, ordered a reservation here for lighthouse and military uses. Later, under congressional act of March 3, 1863, part of it became a townsite reserve, making Port Angeles the second national city. Erected by Michael Trebert Chapter, D. A. R., 1924."

MARGARETTA PAINTER CHAPTER

Ellensburg

Organized April 19, 1917.

MARGARETTA PAINTER (SCHNEBLEY)

Margaretta Painter, one of Washington's pioneer women, was born in St. Genevieve, Missouri, June 3, 1833. She was a daughter of Philip Painter and granddaughter of William Painter, who served in the Chester County, Pennsylvania Militia during the Revolutionary War. She was also a granddaughter of Major Robert Moore of Pennsylvania.

In 1850, with her father's family, she started across the plains by wagon train to Oregon. On the long and arduous journey she lost her father and two of her brothers, who died from cholera and were buried at Little Blue River, near Fort Kearney. On arriving in Oregon the family made their home with Major Robert Moore at Linn City.

Her grandfather, Major Robert Moore, served in the War of 1812 and was a major in the Pennsylvania Militia until 1822, when he left Pennsylvania for Missouri. He was a member of the Missouri legislature in the early thirties, but in 1835 he went to Illinois and laid out the town of Osceola. In 1839 he set out for the Oregon Territory, reaching the Willamette valley in the winter of 1840, the same year filing on a donation claim of 640 acres at the falls of the Willamette, opposite the home of Dr. McLoughlin. Building mills and wharves there, he founded the town of Linn City which was washed entirely away by the floods of 1861 and never rebuilt.

In 1843, when the establishment of law and order became imperative, Major Moore was one of the fifty-two pioneers out of one hundred and two gathered at Champeog who voted that Oregon Territory must become American rather than British. He was chosen chairman of the committee that drew up the constitution for a provisional government pending the extension of the authority of the United States. This was the first government of any nature established by Americans west of the Missouri river.

In 1845, Major Moore purchased the Oregon Spectator, which had been established by the missionaries, and this was given to Margaretta Painter as a wedding gift on her marriage to David J. Schnebly in 1851. Mr. Schnebly was an editor from Mercersburg, Pennsylvania, and Peoria, Illinois, and had been connected with various papers in the East. After her marriage to Mr. Schnebly, Margaretta Painter lived for several years near Oregon City, but in 1861 the family moved to Washington Territory and located near Walla Walla, where Mr. Schnebly engaged in the newspaper business and farming. He brought cattle to the Walla Walla market in 1860 and a few years later built a toll bridge at Spokane and the Agate, now Eureka Mills at Walla Walla. The winter of 1861-1862 was the coldest ever known in the West. Provisions were scarce, flour selling for twelve dollars a sack and hay impossible to get. The fine-blooded horses brought from Oregon died for lack of feed, and the settlers suffered many hardships. It was a season and place to try the mettle of the hardiest pioneers, but the spirit of Margaretta Painter was undaunted. Her courage, kindness and resourcefulness showed her a true daughter of pioneers and patriots.

In 1883 Margaretta Painter came with her husband and family to Ellensburg, Washington, where a home was established in which she lived until her death in 1907. Mr. Schnebly purchased the Ellensburg Localizer, which he edited until 1896, when he retired after over fifty years of newspaper work.

Margaretta Painter was a remarkable woman and was widely known and highly esteemed. She possessed a fine intellect and unusual business ability and was a leader in charitable work. Her kindness of heart and generous disposition endeared her to friends and neighbors. When doctors were few, it was often the skill and devotion of this unselfish woman that relieved suffering or saved a life.

Two brothers of Margaretta Painter, William Charles and Robert Painter, who came West with the family in 1850, were among the first to offer their services in defense of the settlers in the Indian war in 1855. At the famous "four-days" battle near Walla Walla in December, 1855, when the volunteers had a desperate struggle with superior numbers, William was conspicuous for his bravery and when the command received a flag made by the young ladies of Forest Grove Academy, he was unanimously chosen as its bearer. At the close of the war the flag was presented to him and is still in the possession of the Painter family. In connection with this campaign it is interesting to note that the first engagement was at Yakima canyon, near where the city of Yakima now stands, and was the first battle in which Phil Sheridan, then a lieutenant, ever took part.

At the time of the Nez Perce, or "Joseph" war, Mr. Painter was made captain of a Walla Walla company that patrolled the Columbia river on gunboat and prevented Nez Perce Indians from joining the Moses band of Simcoe and Yakima Indians, thus preventing the massacre of the settlers of the Yakima valley, where the families were gathered in improvised forts for protection.

The flag above mentioned came into service again in the Bannock war of 1878, when Governor Ferry appointed Mr. Painter captain of a company of volunteers and he was assigned to the gunboat Spokane under Major Keene. Their first engagement was at Long Island. The volunteers were relieved by the regulars but Mr. Painter was soon elected captain of another company and followed the Indians to Camas Prairie on the Grande Ronde, where he captured enough horses to pay the expenses of his campaign. For his valiant services he was appointed aide-de-camp, with the rank of lieutenant-colonel, on the staff of Governor Ferry and was presented with a handsome sword.

Margaretta Painter was the mother of seven children: Philip H., Charles P., Mary Virginia, Joseph M., Lincoln, Jean C. and Frederick Dorcie, three of whom are still living. In the vicinity of Ellensburg are more than forty of her descendants who are eligible through her to the D. A. R. and the S. A. R.

Margaretta Painter Chapter was organized April 19, 1917, with Mrs. J. B. Davidson as Organizing Regent. On March 9, 1917, before formal organization the Chapter formed a D. A. R. Red Cross Auxiliary—this Auxiliary was very active and had 300 members and twenty-five circles meeting in different parts of the County. After a few months they succeeded in getting a Chapter of the Red Cross established and merged into it. They handed over to the Red Cross Chapter, $625.00 in cash and an excellent working force that carried on without a break. Besides working with the Red Cross Margaretta Painter Chapter aided in Belgian Relief Work and adopted a French Orphan for two and a half years and has helped in a small way with Americanization work.

The first few years' programs were on United States History—from Colonial to Pioneer Washington Days and including the home life and furniture of these days. This year the topic for each meeting is left to the hostess who also serves refreshments, each member paying 10c to Treasurer. We have never had a Year Book but have used typewritten programs.

ELIZA HART SPALDING CHAPTER

Pullman

Organized November 30, 1917.
Number of Members, 31.
Dues, $3.50.
Initiation Fee, $10.00.

Eliza Hart Spalding was the daughter of Levi Hart, Holland Patent, Oneida County, New York, so we learn from a letter written to her parents September 20, 1838. This letter came into possession of the D. A. R. Chapter named for her and was sent by it to Memorial Continental Hall, Washington, D. C., about 1918.

She was married to Rev. Henry Harmon Spalding in 1836 after which they immediately volunteered for mission work among the Osage Indians. They were accepted by the A. B. C. F. M. Board and at once sent to their new field of labor. Dr. Marcus Whitman had been sent out by the Board the previous year, traveling as far as the Fur Trading Post on the Green River in the Rocky Mountains and had just returned to the States for volunteers to the contemplated Missions on the Pacific slope. Learning about the Spaldings, he at once determined to overtake them, which he did in Western New York—and induce them to go to the Northwest with Mrs. Whitman and himself. Mrs. Spalding had risen from a lingering illness before her marriage and was not considered strong enough to make such a long and perilous journey. However, after much persuasion and prayer for guidance, they decided favorably and the two families set out for their long expedition into the wilderness. This was probably one of the longest wedding journeys on record—for these women were both brides. They were among the first white women to cross the continent to the Pacific Coast and the glory and honor of establishing in that far land the first Christian homes belongs to them. We will pass over the hardships of that journey, which consumed many months. With scanty food, traveling mostly on horseback, fording rivers and encountering much danger from the Indians, at last, they reached their destination, the advance guard of Christian civilization. The Whitmans halted at Waiilatpu—near Walla Walla, among the Cayuse Indians, the Spaldings going to Lapwai, Idaho on the banks of the Clearwater, among the Nez Perce.

Dr. Spalding at once set about erecting a substantial log house and mill and there their first child Eliza was born November 15, 1837. Later, three other children were sent to bless that home—Henry Hart, Martha Jane and Amelia Lorena.

Mrs. Spalding is described as a woman of medium height—slender in form, with brown hair and blue eyes and rather dark complexion; of a serious turn of mind and particularly apt in learning languages. It is said she acquired enough of the Nez Perce tongue from her guides on the journey from Walla Walla to the Clearwater to converse quite readily with them. She had been well taught in the domestic arts and could cook as well as spin, weave, knit and sew. She was also quite an artist in using water colors—which she used to great advantage in teaching the Indians—by making drawings and maps for their use. She was always cheerful and sociable with the native women and had their unbounded confidence and respect. By the Indian men she was considered a brave, fearless woman and was highly esteemed by all with whom she mingled.

Besides caring for her family, she taught the Indians, her school sometimes numbering 200, and in the eleven years during which she labored with them—it reached 500. A church also was established in the Autumn of 1838, two years after their arrival, which still exists as the Lapwai Presbyterian Church with a full-blooded Indian Pastor. This church was the beginning of Presbyterianism on the Pacific slope.

After the Whitman massacre and breaking up of the Mission at Walla Walla, which occurred November 29, 1847—the Spaldings to escape a like fate, fled from the country to the Willamette Valley. Mrs. Spalding never recovered from the shock and hardship of this ordeal and passed away four years later in 1851. She was buried at Brownsville, Oregon, where she lay for many years, until September, 1913, when her remains were re-interred by the side of her husband in the small cemetery near the site of the Lapwai Mission, at Spalding, Idaho—beneath a clump of locust trees where stands a marble slab inscribed to Dr. Spalding. Sometime a fitting monument will be erected here in memory of Dr. and Mrs. Spalding's great missionary work, for to her much of the success of this mission was due. Her faith in God—her indomitable will, and her untiring efforts and ability to teach the arts of civilization to the Indians were no small factors in its success. She brought to the work a poise and balance not always manifested in a like degree by her husband. The reverence and esteem in which she was held by the Indians is shown by an incident of her early years at the Mission. She had been very ill and her recovery doubtful. An old Indian Chief came to see her, sat down by her bedside, took her hand, and told her how they would miss her if she were taken away. He said, "Oh, that I could be taken in your stead since I am old and my usefulness done and you could be spared to teach my people." What more fitting tribute than this to a life of service!

The Eliza Hart Spalding Chapter of Pullman, Whitman County, Washington, was organized in 1917 with twenty members and received its Charter on November 30 of that year. The chapter number is 1381.

During the six years of the Chapter's development it has enrolled forty-two members but owing to the changing population of a college community it has at present but thirty-one members—nineteen of whom are active and eleven non-resident.

The dues were $2.00 per annum but the increase in National and State dues and the growing demands of the Chapter made it necessary to increase the dues two years ago to $3.50 for active and $2.50 for non-resident members. A new member is required to pay $10.00 which includes initiation fees.

The Chapter has held ten meetings each year, at eight of which papers on historical subjects have been read by the members. They were usually some phase of the History of the State of Washington or the Northwest, or of Colonial or Revolutionary times. The origin of State Chapter names was studied last year with pleasure and interest.

The two days we commemorate are Washington's Birthday—at which some prominent speaker makes a patriotic address; and Flag Day—the annual picnic day.

A luncheon has been a feature of the October meeting. The annual budget has been raised entirely by voluntary contributions and dues.

$25.00 were expended toward furnishing room in Administration Building raised by the purchase of "Certificates of Descent." The Chapter has fulfilled its per capita requirements to the National Society whenever called upon, among which were the Immigrants' Manual and Ellis Island Funds; Caroline Scott Memorial, and Tamassee Industrial School Funds and others. Two $10.00 bonds toward the University House project have been given.

As there is no foreign element in the town, the Americanization work has been limited. Flag literature has been distributed in all town schools and many country schools in accordance with instructions by State Flag Chairman.

The Gold Medal for scholarship in Civics and American History has been given for three years to a Senior High School student and is offered again for 1924.

The D. A. R. Ritual has been used for three years and printed visiting cards to other chapters are furnished to any member leaving town.

The Society is in a healthy condition, several women looking forward to becoming Daughters as soon as their records are established and favorably considered by the National Society.

Chapter Regents are: Mrs. Katherine K. Polson, Mrs. O. L. Waller, Mrs. F. D. Heald, Mrs. F. M. Slagle, Mrs. O. M. Morris.

MARY LACY CHAPTER

Centralia

Organized January 11, 1918.
Number of Members, 34.
Dues, $5.00.

Mary Lacy was born in Salem, 1672, daughter of Edward Lacy and Abigal Gregory. A fact worthy of note is that in 1692 she, with her grandmother, Mary Lacy, wife of John Lacy, witnessed against witchcraft. She was tried but not executed. Many of her descendants served in the Revolutionary War and War of 1812. After the Revolutionary War the Lacys settled in Pennsylvania and several members of the family were killed in the Wyoming massacre. They were the first settlers in Lacyville and the house built by them is still standing.

Mary Lacy Chapter was organized upon January 11, 1918, with the following as Charter members: Mrs. N. L. Witherow, Organizing Regent; Mrs. W. H. Oliver, Mrs. John Camp, Mrs. O. W. Gibbons, Mrs. E. K. Harkness, Mrs. J. C. Applegate, Mrs. H. L. Bras, Miss Elizabeth Noble, Mrs. Eugene Alvord, Miss Dorothy Alvord, Mrs. H. S. Vincent, Mrs. Rush Banks, and Mrs. John Wherrets.

LACY HOME
Now Standing on Original Site, Lacyville, Pa.

The Chapter immediately began the work of aiding the Red Cross. A number of Food Sales were held and the money turned over to them, also aiding in many other ways. Christmas boxes were filled and sent to France. Four Food Sales were held for the benefit of our Public Library and $75.00 was given to them and $50.00 has been given the Park Committee towards beautifying the Park. The sum of $25.00 was given the Memorial Committee to be used towards a building or monument for the four soldiers who were shot by the I. W. W. in Centralia. In January, 1924, contributed $25.00 to the University of Washington Chapter House. The Constitution of the United States was framed and placed in our High School.

Our Regents have been: Mrs. N. L. Witherow, Mrs. Rush Banks, Mrs. O. W. Gibbons, and Mrs. Glen Norman, present Regent.

At the death of a member, as a memorial to her, the Chapter buys a good book, properly inscribes it and presents it to the City Library.

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON CHAPTER

Seattle

Organized April 4, 1918.
Number of Members, 50.
Dues, $3.50.

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON CHAPTER HOUSE

The original site of the University was located in the heart of the present city of Seattle and consisted of ten acres around Union and Seneca streets at Fourth and Fifth avenues, which was donated by three pioneers, Arthur A. Denny, Chas. C. Terry and Edw. Lander. The only objection to the site at that time was that it was too far out in the woods. The original buildings consisted of the school building of ten rooms, the president's residence and the boarding house. The four original Doric pillars were sawed at Seabeck and are at present standing on the campus of the University. School opened November 4, 1861, Asa S. Mercer in charge, with about thirty pupils, only the common school branches being taught. In 1867-69 the University closed on account of lack of attendance. At present the enrollment is five thousand, the Legislature limiting the attendance to that number. In 1893 the Legislature appropriated the present site for the University, which consists of four hundred and fifty acres. The old site still belongs to the University but has been leased to the Metropolitan Building Company for fifty years. At the expiration of the lease the buildings erected thereon revert to the University, which will then be one of the richest institutions in the United States.

In March of 1916, Mrs. Edmund Bowden, then State Regent, was invited to speak before the State Conference of Oregon. The report of Miss Guppy, State Vice Regent of Oregon, in regard to the importance of forming a Chapter at the University of Oregon in Eugene attracted Mrs. Bowden's attention and in her report to the Fifteenth Annual Assembly of Washington she recommended that "steps be taken to form a Chapter among the girls of the University of Washington."

A meeting was called May 2, 1917, of all university women eligible to membership at which time Mrs. Bowden gave an address explaining the purpose of D. A. R. work. A large number of girls signified their interest in forming a Chapter but no definite step was taken as it was near the close of the school year. During the summer Mrs. Helen Norton Stevens of Lady Stirling Chapter, whose daughter attended the University, worked hard to get the genealogical records of a sufficient number of girls accepted by the National Society so that a Chapter could be formed. By the spring of 1918 the required number of papers had been accepted, Mrs. Stevens, Mrs. Howard Hanson assisting, drew up a tentative set of by-laws, and the Chapter was formally organized April 4, 1918, at the home of Mrs. H. T. Bredes, with Miss Anna Stevens as first Regent. Prior to official organization the girls met regularly and did a great deal of war work.

This eventually led up to Americanization work which was in line with the work undertaken by the National Society under the title of "Patriotic Education." This Chapter, with the other Chapters in the city, was represented on an Americanization Committee from the University Extension Service which was largely responsible for the introduction of night classes for foreigners into the schools as well as afternoon classes for foreign mothers. There was a great deal of interest taken in foreigners getting their second papers and different members of the Chapter visited the Federal Court and also called on the wives of a number of those taking out second papers to tell them of English classes which were being conducted in different parts of the city. Later, with the other D. A. R. Chapters of the city, the Chapter helped with a patriotic program for foreigners receiving their diplomas from night school English classes. Some members taught foreign women English under the supervision of a public school instructor, receiving credit for this work in the Sociology department of the University.

Further work might have developed along this line but the Chapter found difficulty in following a consecutive program on account of the changing personnel and the lack of a definite location for meetings. With the girls all living in one boarding house this was met to some extent, and with the purchase of the D. A. R. House last year interest in the Chapter grew rapidly. More and more members joined the Chapter and all had a common interest, all were working for the successful establishment of the House. And that is today our main interest. When we are more firmly established, then we hope to be able to devote more time to the regular D. A. R. work. We feel that we are doing an important work in our House—making a Home for the D. A. R. girls at the University from which they will go forth with a bigger and better conception of what the Daughters of the American Revolution really are, and that no matter where they go they will carry on the work of the organization—the University of Washington Chapter has meant too much for them to forget it.

We are a young Chapter but increasing in membership steadily—ten girls having filed papers recently. Each year seems more successful than the last and we are winning a very fine place on the Campus due to the fact that we had the highest scholastic standing of any of the women's organizations last year, and we hope to keep on with this fine record.

Our past regents are Anna Stevens, Belle Colson, Gwendolyn Schofield, Harriet Seely, Ona Walker, Catherine Biggs, and Jane Parry.

Jane Parry, Regent.

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON CHAPTER HOUSE

The most important event in the history of the University of Washington Chapter, D. A. R. was the purchase of their Chapter House. It had been almost impossible to secure a room regularly and the Chapter was lacking in a central interest for a period of time after those who had been active in Americanization work graduated from college. The alumnae members saw the need of securing a definite place for meetings and also the need of a common interest which would bind the members together again. It was proposed, therefore, that the Chapter make arrangements with a boarding house where the D. A. R. members could live as a group and where meetings could be regularly held. This was done in 1921-1922 and to a certain extent our needs were met.

The idea that we should own a house of our own was first given the Chapter by our past Regent, Gwendolyn Schofield. Her mother, Mrs. George Schofield, seeing what a vital issue the securing of a house was to the Chapter, proposed that the girls appeal to the State Society to help them in purchasing a house, since the girls, who were themselves students could hardly afford such an undertaking themselves. The State Society might be expected to be interested in such a matter for the students who would live in the house would come from all parts of the state and would be the women of tomorrow.

The University administration supported the Chapter in urging the State Society to help provide the girls with housing facilities, for the problem of living quarters for women students was a very vital one in University circles. The administration realized, as some adults did not, that when girls left home to attend school, the group life rather than that of the classroom played the leading role in the subsequent shaping of their characters and more fully determined the final result. When the house was proposed there were 18,000 young women at the University of Washington, only a third of whom joined sororities, and it was physically impossible for the Dean of Women to come in contact with each individual student; the organized house, therefore, was one great asset of her office, and under her guidance the house would maintain scholarship standards and offer to the members of the group normal social life. A house organized under such standards as those of the D. A. R. was particularly acceptable to the University administration.

The first appeal to the State Society for support in this matter was met with little interest and considerable doubt as to the ability of the University Chapter to successfully carry through the purchase of a house which would involve mature judgment. When Mrs. William Sherman Walker became State Regent in 1921, she perceived with her far-seeing vision that this project was worthy of the support of the State Chapters and in her efficient hands the matter of securing a permanent home for the University Chapter became a fact. Through her efforts a house near the campus was bought for $12,500.00 which required an initial payment of $2,000.00. The latter was paid by the Chapters of the State Society who raised the necessary amount by purchasing bonds, and the deal was closed in July, 1922. The house, which accommodates twenty girls, was ready for occupancy the following October, the opening of the school year. The furnishing of the house in so short a time with small funds required hard work of the committee, of which Catherine Biggs was the untiring chairman. 150 quarts of fruit were put up this summer. The house was easily filled with the full quota of girls who paid for the running expenses from the board and room charge. Payments of $125.00 were made every month on the interest and balance of purchase price, and besides this the Chapter takes care of the taxes and repair bills.

Different Chapters in the state became interested in furnishing the house; one Chapter supplied the table silver, another gave a beautiful davenport table, others sent linens and all manner of useful gifts. Mrs. A. H. Kuhn, Mary Ball

Chapter, Esther Reed Chapter, Lady Stirling Chapter, Sacajawea Chapter, Seattle Chapter, Marcus Whitman Chapter, Chief Whatcom Chapter and John Kendrick Chapter each contributed $100.00, and over, and name plates were placed on the doors of various rooms in their honor.

The living room is dedicated to Flora A. Walker who more than anyone else made the house a reality and has proved herself a real fairy godmother. Every Chapter in the State is planning to make further donations the coming year. Even the Sons of the American Revolution became interested and gave the Chapter House a name plate for the front door and a bronze insignia for the living room.

A Mothers' Club was organized among D. A. R. women and mothers of the girls to help the Chapter in various entertainments which are given to raise money for necessities. The Mothers' Club stands ready to help the Chapter in almost any way and when they meet once a month they are usually occupied during the business meeting by sewing for the house. Among their most recent gifts have been a payment on the furniture of $100.00 and a much-needed sewing machine.

The Chapter also has an Advisory Committee with Mrs. O. J. C. Dutton as Chairman which advises in regard to the expenditure of Chapter funds, hears reports on scholarship and helps outline the Chapter policy and plans for the future.

The house has now proved itself a financial success and the girls have shown themselves capable of managing the house with advice from experienced women. The group is now on a firmer basis and the girls have been drawn together by a common interest, i. e.; the HOUSE. They are now anxious to make a record on the campus which will make the State Society proud of them. Already they have won the highest scholastic standing of any organized group of women on the campus.

FORT VANCOUVER CHAPTER

Vancouver

FORT VANCOUVER
(From an old drawing.)

The very early history of any state is always of absorbing interest. This is especially true of our own great Washington. The history of the Pacific Northwest begins with the discovery of the Columbia River by Robert Gray of Boston, Mass., on May 11, 1792. This was followed by other explorations including the famous Lewis and Clark expedition in 1805. Then came the fur traders and the Hudson Bay Company soon made its appearance. The early missionaries came in the 30's and the first home builders in the 40's.

Fort Vancouver was established in 1824 by the Hudson Bay Company and is the oldest settlement in the state of Washington. At this time it was England's desire to have the Columbia River the southern boundary line of her American possessions, and here in Vancouver she set up her stronghold.

The fort consisted of a rude blockhouse and stockade which were guarded by the soldiers against the savages. There were several acres of ground and this was inclosed by a strong stockade some 20 feet in height. Against the walls of this inclosure were built the log cabins for the officers and employees of the great fur trading company. In the northwest corner of the palisades were two small cannon. This stockade was entirely surrounded by a ditch some 12 feet wide and 8 feet deep which was filled with water. This was spanned by a bridge of planks which was carefully drawn up at nightfall.

Here the brave Red-man of the forest came to trade his valuable furs for worthless beads and ornaments. Here the English tried to drive back the home builders who had crossed the plains in search of adventure and new homes. There were bitter feelings between these English people and our own brave American settlers and often border warfare resulted. Many tales of the hardships and sufferings of these pioneers are told and read to us almost like fiction. Then in 1846 came the treaty which gave Oregon and Washington to the United States.

In 1849 a new fort was established some distance north of the "Old Fort" and was garrisoned by a force of United States soldiers. One of the log houses of that time still remains and is used as the officers' club house. Early in 1856 a blockhouse was built near where the general's residence now stands.

Among the early commanders of this frontier post were veterans of the Mexican War and Indian campaigns. Many officers famous in our history have been stationed here, some of them being Grant, Sheridan, McClellan, Miles, Funston, Greely and many others. From this post many of the Indian campaigns have started. The last of these was some forty years ago when the Piute tribe under Chief Winnemucca started on the warpath in Southern Oregon. They were captured and with the chieftain's daughter, Princess Winnemucca, were brought to Fort Vancouver. They were among the last tribes of hostile bands to be camped here.

One might go on with pages of the tales of the happenings of those early days. Several of the members of our D. A. R. Chapter are descendants of these pioneer families and we feel that our Chapter was most appropriately named Fort Vancouver.

Fort Vancouver Chapter was organized February 18, 1919, by Mrs. Ellis, State Regent, with twenty-two members. Since our organization we have held regular meetings each month from October to May. We have observed Washington's Birthday each year in some appropriate manner and have also celebrated Flag Day each year with a special program. In the way of Americanization work we have held exercises each January and July at the Court House for the new citizens and have presented each with a silk flag.

In September, 1920, our Chapter, assisted by notables from the State, dedicated the fountain at the north end of the Interstate Bridge. This fountain was erected by the Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution in memory of the pioneers and marks the Old Oregon Trail.

As to calls from the National Society we have contributed our allotment to the Tilloloy Fund, the Immigration Manual; the Convoy Painting, Liberty Loan, Memorial Continental Hall, and have also pledged a sum to the Chapter House at the University of Washington.

At the present time we have 41 members and a program for the coming year which we hope will prove both instructive and entertaining.

Our first Regent was Mrs. Eleanor Burdick McCoy and she very ably served until May, 1922, when Mrs. E. Fannie Durgin Edwards was elected.

FATHER WILBUR CHAPTER

Sunnyside

Organized November 17, 1920.
Number of Members, 16.
Dues, $3.00.

"FATHER" WILBUR

Of special interest to students of Northwest history is the study of the lives and work of our pioneers, and no such study can be complete which does not include the work of James H., or as he was more commonly known, "Father" Wilbur, Methodist missionary and Indian agent in Washington and Oregon.

Father Wilbur was born in Louisville, N. Y., in 1811, and was married in 1831 to Lucretia Anne Stevens. He and his wife both became members of the Methodist Church, and the influence of this affiliation proved to be the dominant one of his whole career, he being licensed as an exhorter in his twenty-ninth year, and two years later being licensed to preach. In 1843 he accepted a call to the Oregon mission which was established by Jason Lee in 1831.

It was through this mission work that Wilbur became one of the determiners of the future course of history in the Northwest. Gifted, as he was with great executive ability he became a force for righteousness, progress, and fair play among the Indians and pioneers with whom he came in contact. While his mission was primarily a religious one, he made the founding of schools as much his business as the founding of churches; for he realized, though probably not articulately, that progress in religion, from the primitive to the ethical type depends largely upon an appreciation of aesthetic values, and such an appreciation is impossible in the realm of total ignorance. Seeing this fundamental part that education must place in his work, Father Wilbur, while at his first post, founded a number of academies, as well as churches. So successful was his work there among his charges that in 1860 he was appointed superintendent of schools for the Yakima Indian reservation and two years later was made Indian agent for that field with headquarters at Fort Simcoe. At this post he served for nearly twenty years, devoting himself so loyally and faithfully to the good of his charges that he became generally known as "Father" Wilbur.

Soon after leaving this post at Fort Simcoe Father Wilbur died in Walla Walla, October 28, 1887, at the home of W. G. Kennedy, now of Hood River, Oregon. His life, devoted as it was to the progress of modern civilization had been one without fear and without reproach, devoting himself to the good as he saw it, courageously, faithfully and unceasingly. He represents the best type of American pioneer, sturdy, fearless and intelligent who helped in the development of the Northwest to preserve, as well as to interpret, the meaning of true Americanism.

When casting about for the name for the new Chapter in the lower Yakima Valley it occurred to some of the leaders in the organization work that "Father Wilbur" would be most fitting, as it would be a recognition of this pioneer in his own field by an organization devoted to the preservation of the best in American history; so the Chapter organized in Sunnyside, Yakima County, was christened "Father Wilbur" by its Organizing Regent, Mrs. O. R. Ferrell, a personal friend of "Father" and Mrs. Wilbur.

Since its organization the Chapter has been more or less handicapped in its work, due to the large proportion of non-resident members and consequent difficulties in holding regular meetings. True to name, however, it seems to have a good deal of the pioneer spirit, and under the leadership of its past regent, Mrs. O. R. Ferrell, has managed to keep together, do considerable State and Red Cross and Americanization work, and have in the past year contributed to the University Chapter House and to the Organizing Secretary General's Room in the Administration Building, and other patriotic work.

The future of the Chapter, notwithstanding the times, is now beginning to look brighter. The membership list is growing, and with a prospect of regular meetings and definite work to do, it hopes to be able to more effectively "Carry On" in the work of citizen building.

Past Regents: Mrs. O. R. Ferrell, Mrs. P. E. Abbott.

ANN WASHINGTON CHAPTER

Mt. Vernon

Organized January 10, 1921.
Number of Members, 49.
Dues, $3.00.

John and Lawrence Washington, brothers, came from Sulgrave Manor to Virginia in 1658. They purchased land and located in Westmorland county. Soon after John arrived in America his English wife died and later he married Ann Pope, by whom he had three children, Lawrence, John and Ann. The son, Lawrence married Mildred Warner, who had three children, John, Augustine and Mildred. Augustine and his second wife, Mary Ball Washington, were the parents of George Washington, thus Ann Pope Washington was the great grandmother of the first President of the United States. It is particularly fitting that some name connected with the Washington family should have been selected for a Chapter located in a town bearing the name of the home of Washington and in the State of Washington.

For years the wish to have a Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution in Skagit County had been lingering in the hearts of patriotic women and we would often say to each other, "We ought to have a Chapter here," but delayed the organization until a woman became so impressed with the fact that it was a patriotic duty we owed our country that she was willing to assume the great task of becoming Organizing Regent. This was our beloved Regent, Mrs. Adda Hulbert Gaches, who was able to inspire a large number of women with her own unbounded enthusiasm for the undertaking, and spurred our lagging efforts to complete our data and qualify as members of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Accordingly, a preliminary meeting of those from all parts of the county who were eligible was called at the home of Mrs. Frank Pickering, in Mt. Vernon, October 1, 1920, with Mrs. Goble, State Regent, as our guest to discuss organizing a Chapter. On January 3, 1921, a meeting was called at the home of Mrs. Hannaford for the purpose of organization. Mrs. W. A. Johnson, State Vice Regent was present and assisted in organizing the Chapter. Because all names had not reached Washington on time, it was necessary to set the day of organization January 10th, which was the first regular meeting after officers had been named and they took the oath of office at that time. The following officers were named: Regent, Mrs. Adda Gaches; First Vice Regent, Mrs. Glen Fisher Berger; Second Vice Regent, Mrs. Sarah McDowell Mechan; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Josephine Hannaford Spratley; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Carrie Griffith; Treasurer, Miss Irene Sears; Registrar, Mrs. Blanche Phipps Pickering; Historian, Mrs. Maude Stewart Beagle; Chaplain, Mrs. Elizabeth Knox McMeekin; Custodian, Mrs. Florence Holmes Rafter.

After much discussion and correspondence about an appropriate name it was agreed to take the name of the great grand-mother of George Washington, and we became the Ann Washington Chapter of Mt. Vernon, Washington.

At the first State Conference after our organization, which was held in Spokane. Mrs. Elizabeth McMeekin represented us and received for our Chapter a beautiful silk flag presented by Mrs. Goble, State Regent, and Mrs. McCleary, Vice President General, as one of the five new Chapters in the State. Mrs. Walker, who followed Mrs Goble as State Regent, presented the Chapter with their Rituals and at the State Conference in Tacoma, 1922, Ann Washington Chapter was presented with a beautiful silk flag by the State Board for making the largest percent of gain in new members in the State during the year.

The Magazine has been placed in the High School and City Libraries. We contributed to the Organizing Secretary General's Room and to the D. A. R. House at the State University. We have a representative on the Civic Board and co-operated with the Minute Women and other organizations in inaugurating the custom in Mt. Vernon of giving luncheons for the men securing naturalization papers and have assisted with every class since our organization. Presented to the new Union High School a large silk flag at their dedication exercises and have placed a D. A. R. emblem beside the flag. We are trying to improve our own knowledge of history and civics and are becoming more and more of a real force in our community..

Since our organization two other Chapters have been formed in our county and we have entertained them at special meetings. At one of our guest meetings we had as pioneer guests, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Sisson of Anacortes and Dr. Church of La Conner, who gave us accounts of their pioneer experiences in Skagit county. At another meeting we entertained a few of the pioneer women, gathering data for an authentic history of early days. At still another meeting Mrs. Converse gave her personal experiences in the army in France, which were most interesting. Christmas cards were sent to our non-resident members, including Miss Ethel L. Hunt, who is in Moulmein, Burma. Profitable and interesting programs are given at each meeting, with good attendance. More than a score are working on their lineage papers with a view to becoming members.

The patriotic work accomplished by Ann Washington Chapter includes: A silk flag and D. A. R. marker for the auditorium of the Union High School, $52.38; luncheons given for new citizens on Naturalization Day, $40.00; a box of embroidery and sewing for the immigrants at Ellis Island, $15.00; a cabinet, to hold the Old Flag made in pioneer days by Mt. Vernon women and a Revolutionary War gun, the gift of a member of our Chapter, to be placed in the court house, $50.00; donated to the D. A. R. Chapter House at the University of Washington, $45.00; to keeping the D. A. R. Magazine in our City Library, $6.00—total, $156.38.

Mrs. C. E. Gaches, Organizing Regent; Mrs. G. C. Berger, Mrs. G. G. Hannaford, present Regent.

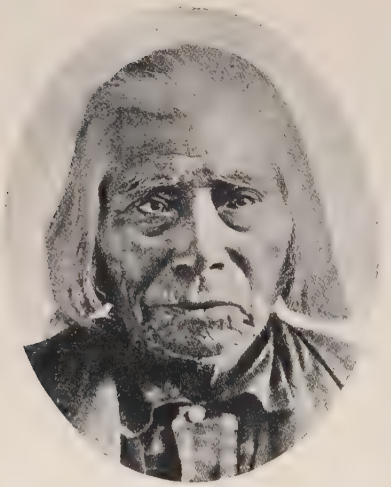
SPOKANE CHAPTER

Spokane

Organized April 13, 1921.
Number of Members, 37.
Dues, $4.00.



SPOKANE GARRY

Spokane Garry was born about 1811 at the camp near the junction of the Spokane and Little Spokane rivers, nine miles northwest of Spokane. He was the son of the Chief and was sent for five years to the Red River Missionary School where he received a good education—writing and speaking English and French. He returned to his tribe and taught them the white man's religion. He was for sixty years the leading Indian character in the Spokane country. He died January 14, 1892, at Indian Canyon and is buried in Greenwood Cemetery, near the Canyon.—From "The Case of Spokane Garry," by William S. Lewis.

On April 13, 1921, twenty-eight Daughters met at the home of Mrs. C. F. Carlson, the Organizing Regent, for the purpose of forming a second Chapter in Spokane. The officers were: Regent, Mrs. C. F. Carlson; Vice Regent, Mrs. J. G. Leghorn; Recording Secretary, Mrs. C. F. Schenk; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Elsie Sweatt; Treasurer, Mrs. D. McBride; Historian, Mrs. G. Sampson; Registrar, Mrs. T. A. Bonser; Chaplain, Mrs. S. L. Divine.

The ladies had previously worked many years under the name of "The Daughters of the Revolution." Under that name they had undertaken a very worthy project; namely, the furnishing and keeping up of a five-bed boys' room in the Hutton Home. This work was in memory of Royal Argall, who lost his life in the World War, and whose mother is an honored member of this Chapter. When we withdrew from the Daughters of the Revolution and organized under the name of the Daughters of the American Revolution, we continued the meeting of the current expenses of this room and providing comforts and Christmas cheer during the holiday season.

We have lost a few of our members by removal but have gained others until now we have a membership of thirty-seven. It is our determination for every member to get a new member during the coming year so that in another year we hope to have 73 members instead of 37. The Chapter has met all assessments, both National and State.

SAMUEL ELGIN CHAPTER

Hanford

Organized June 18, 1921.
Number of Members, 17.
Dues, $3.00.

The prospective members of Samuel Elgin Chapter requested Mrs. Harvey, Organizing Regent, to name the Chapter after one of her ancestors; she sent to Washington three names. The first and second names were already taken, the third, "Samuel Elgin," was accepted.

Samuel Elgin, with two older brothers, was enlisted by Samuel Jones and passed by William Harrison in Charles county, Maryland. He participated in eight battles and was praised for bravery. Twenty-two cousins and uncles enlisted from Maryland and his father, William Elgin, was a Revolutionary Patriot. His wife was Agnes McClanahan. Her father, Thomas McClanahan enlisted; also her grandfather, Honorable Thomas Lewis, a Burgess and one of the authors of the Augusta County Constitution, who enrolled the first Sons of Liberty into the Revolution. His father and mother, John Lewis and Margaret Lynn were Revolutionary Patriots. The statue of his brother, General Andrew Lewis is in the group on Washington's Monument.

Mrs. Harvey has a picture of Durham Parish Church of Charles County, Maryland, built in 1734, where Samuel Elgin attended church and where his father, William Elgin, was first vestryman and where several of his ancestors—the Harrisons. Smallwoods, and Adams were church officers. After the close of the Revolutionary War Samuel Elgin moved to Kentucky where he reared a family of seven children. He was a large land owner. When about eighty years of age he went to Boone County, Missouri, to visit three of his daughters. While there he died and was buried at Columbia, where a Revolutionary Monument is erected to his memory.

Mrs. J. B. (Eliza Hart) Harvey was made Organizing Regent February 9, 1921, and the Samuel Elgin Chapter was formally organized four months later, June 18, 1921, a remarkable achievement.

The Chapter has given medals to the Hanford and White Bluff High School students for the best essay written on "Patriotic Education," and will give medals again this year. Have donated to the D. A. R. House, University of Washington and will make another donation soon. They have also voted to place a marker on the Columbia River near Hanford where a few of the Lewis and Clark expedition landed, and then returned to Pasco to continue down the river to its mouth. While a small Chapter, Samuel Elgin Chapter is very active along all patriotic and educational lines. The American Legion Post in Hanford was named "Dallas McGlothlin" in memory of the son of one of our members, Mrs. Martha McGlothlin. He made the supreme sacrifice during the World War. Mrs. Harvey, Organizing Regent is still Regent.

May Harvey Condon.

DAYTON CHAPTER

Dayton

Organized September 7, 1921.
Number of Members, 16.
Dues, $2.00.

Dayton, Washington, for which place the Chapter of Dayton was named, is located where the old Nez Perce trails crossed the Touchet river. This crossing has been the scene of at least two fights between Indians and white men. The first was in 1848 when Col. Gilliam was retreating from a disastrous attempt to capture some Indians on the Tukanon. The Indians kept up a running fight all day long and as a last effort, when the troops approached the crossing of the Touchet, they tried to get past the soldiers and guard the ford, thus preventing the soldiers from crossing. Here, then, was fought a set battle for the crossing in which the soldiers were victorious.

Lewis and Clark were the first white men to see the site of Dayton, which they did in 1806 while on their return from the Coast, and the expedition camped a few miles above the present site of Dayton on the Patit creek, about where the Nez Perce trails leave that stream.

In 1858, during the Cayuse war, W. J. Lindsey in charge of thirteen packers, escorted by fifty soldiers, camped just below the ford where Dayton stands, and was attacked by seventy Indians who charged them from the north. The soldiers were new at Indian fighting and lost two killed and three wounded. The charges of the Indians were stopped finally by the packers, who were old California men, and who slipped along the bank of the Patit creek where it was high enough to hide them and when the Indians came near at their next charge, raised up and opened fire at close range.

Dayton was founded by Jesse N. Day, who had purchased the site from F. D. Schnebly, who had proved up on the land in 1865. The town was named after Mr. Day. One of the first white men to settle on the site of Dayton was H. M. Chase of Barnstable, Mass. He, in company with two others built a fort in the park during the troublous times with the Indians and prepared to take up the land and fence it. For some reason one of the other men left and upon being warned by a friendly Indian that a large band of hostiles were coming to wipe them out, Mr. Chase and his partner saw fit to leave also. Two years afterward Mr. Chase returned but found that others had settled on the land he had thought to claim.

Dayton Chapter during the two years that have passed since its organization, in spite of its small membership, has managed to keep up the interest in the Chapter and to meet all assessments, both National and State, and of this we are quite proud.

Mrs. O. G. Ellis appointed Mrs. Whitfield Organizing Regent but she was not able to begin work of organization until 1920. On June 14, 1921, a luncheon was given at the home of Mrs. H. A. Stanley at which fourteen prospective members were present. Owing to a few unavoidable mistakes the Chapter was not formally organized until November 19, 1921. The membership has grown steadily until there is a flourishing Chapter of 23 with seven applications pending. Burton is located on Vashon Island and the membership is drawn from all over the Island. Donated to the Chapter House of the University of Washington Chapter and to the room named in honor of Mrs. Walker, also sent a box of jams. CHARLES CARROLL

Charles Carroll was born in Annapolis, Maryland, September 20, 1737. Was elected to Continental Congress in 1775 and in 1778 was the first Senator from that state after its adoption of the Constitution and served until 1801. With other members signed the Declaration of Independence on August 2, 1776. To make certain of his identity he added "of Carrollton," the name of his family mansion. He survived by six years all the others Signers, dying in Baltimore, November 14, 1832.

Since its organization the Chapter has supported the American Legion in selling poppies and assisted the Boy Scouts financially. Won first prize of $25.00 for our Float in the Fourth of July Parade, representing in tableaux the Birth of the American Flag. We have given $20.00 to the D. A. R. Chapter House and $10.00 to the Camp Fire Girls and have contributed our proportion to National and State projects.

We have several pioneers in our little city from whom we expect to secure important data from personal experiences to give to the State Historian. We are now planning an Antique Exhibit.

MARY ANNE GIBBES CHAPTER

Toppenish

Organized May 5, 1922.
Number of Members, 25.
Dues, $2.00.

Mary Anne Gibbes, for whom our Chapter was named, was born September 12, 1767, on John's Island, South Carolina, and on May 13, 1784, married Major Alexander Garden of New York and by their union had six children.

During the Revolution, when Mary Anne was but twelve or thirteen years of age, the British came to take possession of her father's mansion on John's Island, causing the family to flee in haste. In their sudden departure, a small cousin was left behind. Mary Anne went back in the dark through the firing line and rescued the small boy, thus earning for herself a place among the heroines of the Revolution. She was a descendant of Sir Robert Gibbes and tradition traces back fifty generations connecting them with the nobility of England. The Gibbes were among the earliest of Colonial families, coming to America in 1636, representatives of whom fought in colonial wars as well as the Revolution.

May 5th, 1922, a meeting was called by the Organizing Regent, Mrs. Edith (Z. Y.) Coleman at her home to meet the State Regent, Mrs. William Sherman Walker, for the purpose of organizing a local chapter of D. A. R. The following responded to the call: Mesdames Simonds, Morris, Hays, Woodard, Addison, Bratton, Goodrich, Bonsted, Anderson and Coleman, and the Misses Laura Page and Lorena Graham. After going through the formality of organizing, the Ritual of the D. A. R. was read. The followni officers were then elected—the Organizing Regent holding over until another year according to regular form: Vice Regent, Mrs. E. C. Addison; Corresponding and Recording Secretary, Mrs. W. F. Anderson; Treasurer, Mrs. Anna Morris; Historian, Mrs. L. J. Goodrich; Registrar, Miss Laura Page.

The State Regent then administered the Oath of Office to the officers. Name for the Chapter was discussed but it was decided to defer the selection and give the remaining time to Mrs. Walker, who gave us a most interesting and instructive address on "The Purposes and Aims of the D. A. R."

May 15th the Regent made a call for meeting which was held in the Library and a committee, consisting of Mrs. Emma P. (W. F.) Anderson and Mrs. Cornelia (E. C.) Addison, submitted seven names, four of which were selected as first, second, third and fourth choice for our Chapter name. These names were then sent to the National Society for its consideration.

Our third meeting was called by the Regent for July 11th which was also held in the Library and eight members were in attendance. Regent reported that the National Society had confirmed our second choice of names—Mary Anne Gibbes—as a suitable name for our Chapter, our first choice being in use by another Chapter. At this meeting it was also decided that we meet the first Tuesday of each month and that the dues be $2.00 per year for the present. Regent appointed the following committee to draft by-laws: Mesdames Addison, Anderson and Bonsted; committee on program—Johnson, Morris and Hays. Letter from President General Minor was read which stressed the fact that National work at all times should take precedence over State work.

September 4th, our next meeting, was held at the home of Mrs. T. J. Bratton with twelve members and one prospective member in attendance. By-laws were read by Secretary and Chapter voted to accept same as read. The usual order of business followed, the Regent appointing the remainder of her committees. This was really our first regular meeting and the following program was given: Vocal solo, Mrs. Woodard, Mrs. Anderson, accompanist. Paper "Good Citizenship," Mrs. Addison. "Short History Concerning Origin and Founding D. A. R.," Mrs. Coleman. Short sketch "Mary Anne Gibbes," Mrs. W. F. Anderson. Meeting closed with Flag Salute.

The principal things accomplished the first year were: Organization; then we gave a dance which netted us $31.28; donated $17.00 toward the furnishing of Organizing Secretary General's Room in Memorial Continental Hall; Washington's Birthday we gave a card party which was a great social success and netted us $12.13; we bought a $10 bond for D. A. R. Chapter House at University of Washington; were awarded the $10 Magazine prize given by Mrs. Walker for the Chapter having the largest subscription list according to membership and this $10 we also presented to the D. A R. Chapter House at the "U." We had eight members in attendance at Conference held in Yakima in April.

Our program for the year was a study of Northwest history. Mrs. L. J. Goodrich prepared a list of reference books which aided very materially. We closed our first year with a picnic luncheon on the lawn at the home of our Regent, Mrs. Coleman. At this time the outline for our next year's work was practically completed, which comprised the study of "Colonial America."

Mary Anne Gibbes Chapter cooperates with the American Legion Auxiliary in the observance of Memorial Day by placing flags on the soldiers' graves, the Auxiliary using flowers. Are raising money for the purchase of a set of books, "Chronicles of America," to be placed in the Public Library, and will make another donation to the University Chapter House. Will offer a prize to the student holding the highest scholastic standing in United States history in the local High School. Have recommended the observance of Franklin's Birthday in January by suitable program in local schools and have requested the local newspapers to stress observance of patriotic days. Mrs. W. F. Anderson represented the Chapter at the Conference held in Chehalis in October.

In the eighteen months since our organization our membership has increased ten, giving us a membership of 24, and we are now launching a membership campaign, our slogan being, "A new member for every old member." We are also putting on a Magazine campaign, and we won fourth prize of $25 in our division of N. S. D. A. R. Magazine subscription contest.

(Mrs. W. F.) Emma P. Anderson, Secretary.

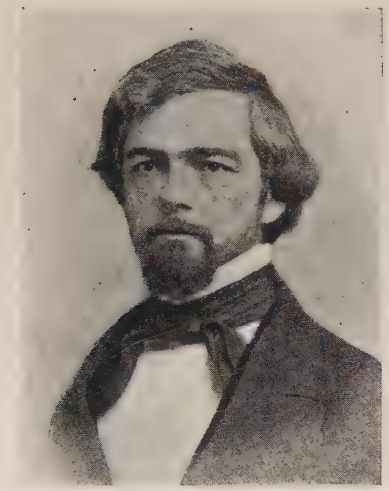
GOVERNOR ISAAC STEVENS CHAPTER

Anacortes

Organized May 24, 1922.
Number of Members, 20.
Dues, $3.00.



GOV. ISAAC INGALLS STEVENS

Isaac Ingalls Stevens, first territorial governor of Washington, was born in North Andover, Massachusetts, March 25, 1818. At the age of seventeen he entered West Point and four years later graduated at the head of his class. As a Lieutenant in the Engineer Corps he was sent to aid in the construction of Fort Adams, Newport, Rhode Island. Here he married Miss Margaret Lyman Hazard, a daughter of Mr. Benjamin Hazard, the leading lawyer of the state. Two years later a son was born to them and named "Hazard" after his paternal grandfather.

In 1841 he was put in charge of the construction of the fortifications in Maine, and six years later was sent to join the army in Mexico under General Winfield Scott. For gallant and meritorious services in the battles of Contreras, Cherubusco and Chapultipec he was twice brevetted. In 1849 Major Stevens became assistant to Professor Alexander Dallas Bache, Superintendent of the United States Coast Survey, and was appointed a member of the Lighthouse Board, a signal honor for so young a man.

In 1853 President Pierce appointed him Governor of the newly formed territory of Washington, and at the same time put him in charge of a party to explore a route for a Northern Pacific Railroad between St. Paul and Puget Sound. He was also ex-officio superintendent of Indian affairs. Governor Stevens and his party reached Olympia in November, just five months and nineteen days since leaving St. Paul. In February of the following year he made his opening address to the first legislature ever held in Washington Territory. During the four years from 1853 to 1856 Governor Stevens treated and dealt with over 40,000 Indians, occupying the whole vast region, now comprising the states of Washington, part of northern Oregon, northern Idaho and the greater part of Montana, and extinguished the Indian title to 150,000,000 acres of land. By thus paving the way for the white settlement of this region, Governor Stevens performed an inestimable service for his country, while at the same time he satisfied the demands of the Indians.

In 1857 he was elected delegate to Congress, and while in Washington City, he wrote a report for the Government of his great survey across the continent in which he strenuously advocated the building of three transcontinental railroads. This report has since become a regular reference book.

On the breaking out of the Civil War Governor Stevens, then in Washington Territory, at once offered his services to his country, and received the appointment of Colonel of the 79th Regiment, New York State Militia; popularly called the 79th Highlanders. Promoted a Brigadier General he was sent south to assist General Sherman in establishing a base for the blockading fleets on the coast of South Carolina. He was next ordered north to join the Army of Virginia under General Pope. At the Battle of Chantilly, September 1st, 1862, General Stevens seized the regimental colors, in order to rally his troops against the enemy and thus save Pope's army from an irreparable disaster, when he was instantly killed by the bullet of a sharpshooter entering his right temple. His son Captain Stevens was with him up to this time. Thus perished one of the ablest men of his day and one whom President Lincoln was planning to place in command of the armies of Virginia. He was promoted a Brevet Major General, the appointment to date back to July.

In recognition of his ability and valuable services to his country the City of Newport gave him a public funeral and erected an imposing monument to him in its Island Cemetery. He left a widow, son and three daughters, Sue, now Mrs. Richard I. Eskridge, Gertrude Maude, now deceased, and Kate, formerly Mrs. Edward W. Bingham, now Mrs. James Hervey Simpson Bates. A fourth daughter, Julia Virginia, died in her infancy.

KATE STEVENS BATES.

On the 9th day of November, 1921, fourteen women, all eligible to membership in the Daughters of the American Revolution entertained at luncheon, Mrs. Walker, State Regent, and the Chairman of Extension Committee, Mrs. Tilmont, who gave the necessary instructions toward Chapter organization and Mrs. C. Q. Adams was appointed Organizing Regent. On the 24th day of May, 1922, after several preliminary meetings, Mrs. Walker formally organized the Chapter.

The organizing members were: Mrs. C. Q. Adams, Mrs. H. C. Barney, Mrs. Austin Shaw, Mrs. Frank Wright, Mrs. W. T. Odlin, Mrs. P. E. Nelson, Mrs. Alvin March, Mrs. A. G. Mosier, Mrs. J. E. Trafton, Mrs. Lewis Howell, Mrs. Walter Keyes, Mrs. Young. Officers installed were: Regent, Mrs. C. Q. Adams; Vice Regent, Mrs. P. E. Nelson; Recording Secretary, Mrs. W. W. Keyes; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. W. T. Odlin; Treasurer, Mrs. J. E. Trafton; Registrar, Mrs. Austin Shaw; Historian, Mrs. H. C. Barney; Chaplain, Mrs. Frank Wright.

The name chosen for the new Chapter was that of Governor Isaac Stevens, first Governor of the Territory of Washington. A study of the character and achievements of Governor Stevens confirmed the opinion of the members that the name was wisely chosen, and was one of which they could be justly proud. At the organization meeting Mrs. Walker presented the Chapter with a beautiful flag and Mrs. Tilmont presented a book upon Chapter procedure.

Although but little more than a year old, Governor Isaac Stevens Chapter has had well attended meetings each month, has made contributions to the Organizing Secretary General's Room and other National calls, and to the D. A. R. House at the University of Washington.

The need for local work in Americanization seeming most imperative, the Chapter is devoting its energies toward the establishment of friendly relations with foreign families, and plans to do much work along this line during the ensuing year.

Every member of the Chapter is a subscriber to the D. A. R. Magazine.

(MRS. H. C.) MILDRED W. BARNEY.

ELIZABETH FOREY CHAPTER

Tacoma

Organized June 5, 1922.
Number of Members, 46.
Dues, $4.00.

Elizabeth Forrey (or Forey) was born in 1752 and died in 1826. In 1774 she was married to John Forrey. Her husband was one of six brothers, all of whom were extremely patriotic and served in the Revolutionary War. He served as private in the Lancaster Militia. Elizabeth and her husband had several children, one of whom, John, was in the Legislature and a director in the first bridge built across the Susquehanna which, at that time, was quite an accomplishment.

After two years of struggling and being known as the "Organizing Chapter," the Elizabeth Forey Chapter completed its organization June 5th, 1922, with a membership of thirty-one, and was confirmed by the National Board which met June 7th of the same year. The first officers of the Chapter were: Regent, Mrs. Frost Snyder; Vice Regent, Mrs. Hunter Kennard; Recording Secretary, Miss Cyrena Johns; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Frank Carnahan; Treasurer, Miss Helen Long; Registrar, Miss Allene Nash; Historian, Miss Jacqueline Noel; Chaplain, Mrs. George Long.

Our programs have been varied in character and most enjoyable. However, besides having interesting and pleasurable meetings, the Chapter is accomplishing quite a bit of philanthropic and patriotic work which has broadened very much since our formal organization. We are especially interested in the Cushman Hospital for disabled Soldiers of the World War. We have made several thousand bandages for the Hospital, and at Christmas time, we have helped with the decoration of the tree, remembered the bed patients with gifts, and have given clothing to the children of an ex-soldier. Our work for these men is always greatly appreciated and we shall continue to have their interests at heart.

On Washington's Birthday of each year we have a Patriotic Party at the Settlement House for the Foreign born. It is here we do our work in Americanization and hope to accomplish more along this line as our membership increases.

We are also very interested in the Parental Home and each year at Christmas time we have remembered each boy with a gift and have given lights and decorations for the tree and helped with the Christmas party.

Besides our local interests, we have answered to the best of our ability the appeals of the National Organization, and each year strive to accomplish more than we have in the preceding year.

Regents: Mrs. Frost Snyder, Mrs. Frank Carnahan, Mrs. E. C. Wheeler.

CYRENA JOHNS, Recording Secretary.

WILLAPA CHAPTER

Raymond

Organized January 23, 1923.
Number of Members, 16.
Dues, $3.00.

Willapa Chapter was organized at the home of Mrs. S. A. Sizer by Mrs. W. S. Walker, State Regent, with thirteen members. Its name "Willapa" commemorates the spot where an Indian Chief fell, and which was a fur trading point sixty-one years ago. Mrs. S. A. (Anne Lee Burson) Sizer was the Organizing Regent and was elected first Regent. We are as yet too new a Chapter to have accomplished much but have issued a Year Book and have a splendid program outlined for the coming year.

Our Charter members are: Mrs. Z. B. Brown, Miss Lulu Brown, Mrs. F. A. Hazeltine, Miss Lelia Hazeltine, Mrs. F. A. Hemenway, Mrs. J. H. Jeffrey, Miss Elizabeth Owens, Mrs. H. J. Owens, Mrs. M. E. Pagett, Mrs. L. E. Pope, Mrs. L. V. Raymond, Mrs. N. H. Ripley, Mrs. S. A. Sizer and Mrs. J. T. Welsh.

JAMES HUNTINGTON CHAPTER

Castle Rock

Organized February 23, 1923.
Number of Members, 22.
Dues, $2.50.

James Huntington, for whom our Chapter is named, was the third of that name and was born at Norwich, Conn., October 1, 1743, and married Hannah Curtis of Norwich in 1767. He was one of five brothers, four of whom served their country in the War of the Revolution. James serving as Sergeant of the 8th Co., 8th Regt. Conn. Troops under his cousin, Col. Joel Huntington. His ancestors were among the founders of Hartford and Norwich, being especially prominent in the more important business enterprises of that early day. After the Revolution he left his ancestral home and moved to Royalton, Vermont, where he died in 1808.

His descendants were numerous, being noted as public spirited and patriotic and contributing their full share toward the social and public life of the communities in which they have resided. Nearly thirty of his descendants have belonged to the S. A. R. and D. A. R.

James Huntington Chapter was organized at Castle Rock on February 23, 1923, with twenty organizing members. Winnie Huntington Quick had been appointed Organizing Regent by the National Board on December 13, 1916, and within a few months had eleven members in sight, all descendants of James Huntington. Then several moved to other localities and three were dropped from membership. There it rested until 1922 when Mrs. Tilmont, who had charge of Chapter Extension visited Castle Rock and owing to her inspiration and help things began moving. Then the help of Mrs. Ross of Sacajawea Chapter, who had moved to Kelso, was enlisted and she and her daughter, Mrs. Sainsbury were transferred to membership to help with the organization of the Chapter, but owing to delay in mails, etc., Mrs. Sainsbury's dues were not received in Washington in time for her to become an organizing member. Several other descendants of James Huntington had in the meantime applied for membership and the Chapter as organized had ten members of that descent. The following November Mrs. Elvira Huntington Hubbard of Alameda, Calif., was transferred from member-at-large to James Huntington Chapter.

The first action taken by the Chapter was to protest against ignoring historical and pioneer names in naming the streets of Longview, which is located on and near Monticello, an important historical settlement of pioneer days, where was held the Monticello Convention. In July the Chapter took part in dedication and Flag raising ceremonies at Longview and at the Hotel Monticello. We have appointed a committee on Historical Contests and are offering prizes in History in a county-wide contest in the schools. We are now taking up the History of the Thirteen Original Colonies, beginning with Virginia. Each member is to answer roll call with some fact of history from the Colony under study.

Early in December Mrs. Ross, Vice Regent, Mrs. Harris and Miss Sinclair asked for transfers to membership-at-large to assist in the formation of a new Chapter at Kelso; to offset this we have had two new members accepted at the last National Board meeting.

The Chapter has decided to mark historical spots or places in this county, including the site of Monticello, or as near as can be done the site of the Monticello Convention. We are also taking up the cause of the Cowlitz Indians in trying to secure their rights from the Government.

(Mrs. J. H.) Winnie Huntington Quick, Regent.

EXPERIENCE WOOD CHAPTER

Garfield

Organized March 21, 1923.
Number of Members, 14.
Dues, $2.00.

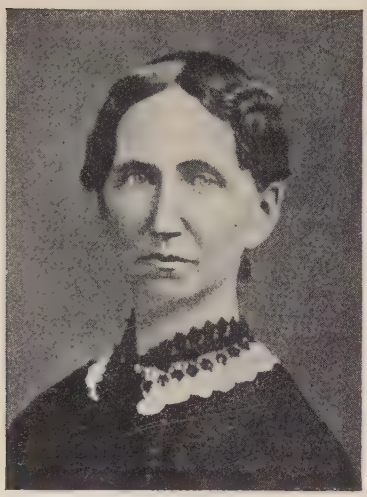
Experience Wood was the wife of Thomas Wood. She was born in 1722. They were the parents of Anne Wood who married Jedediah Elderkin, who served throughout the Revolutionary War with distinction.

Being a small Chapter, and so young, Experience Wood Chapter is making its prime work the obtaining of more members. Special programs have been given and interesting meetings held in the few months since organization.

MARY RICHARDSON WALKER CHAPTER

Kelso

Organized February 22, 1924.
Number of Members, 12.
Dues, $2.50.



MARY RICHARDSON WALKER

Mary Richardson Walker Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution was organized at Kelso, Washington, February 22, 1924. The name of the Chapter was selected to commemorate one of the five women whose names were chosen by the Daughters of the State of Washington to represent the women of their State in the Hall of Fame at Washington, D. C.

Mary Richardson Walker was born April 1, 1811, at Baldwin, Maine. She was descended from Colonial and Revolutionary ancestry. In 1649 seven families were sent to found the town of Woburn, Mass. Three of these were the Richardson brothers, who were ancestors of Mrs. Walker. Her mother's name was Charlotte Thompson. Charlotte Thompson was a descendant of Daniel Thompson, the 22nd man to fall at Lexington, April 19, 1775.

Over the entrance to the Old Woburn Cemetery is this inscription: "Bodies of ancestors of Pierce, Cleveland and Harrison lie buried here. In this cemetery lies the body of Daniel Thompson who was shot by a British Grenadier, April 19, 1775."

Mary Richardson showed a great zeal for knowledge, then so difficult for a young woman to acquire. She evidently had something of a reputation for adventurous doings for when it became known that upon her marriage she would go to the Far West as a missionary, one of the family friends remarked: "That is just like Mary Richardson to go galloping off across the plains on a wild buffalo."

On March 5, 1838, she was married to Elkanah Walker. Marcus Whitman had visited this vicinity in his search for more helpers on his mission field in the Northwest. Mr. and Mrs. Walker decided to go with him. Immediately after their wedding, they started on the long and venturesome journey across the plains. Much might be written about that trip, as Mrs. Walker kept a faithful diary but this is not the place for such reminiscence. Before starting on the last long stretch of the journey from the settled part of the country, she secured copies of a geology, a botany and a mineralogy, and made studies of the specimens which were all about her as she went forward into the unknown land. This interest in the objects of nature about her she maintained all through her pioneer life and traded many a yard of calico to Indians for the wild specimens they brought to her.

Their journey ended toward the close of August at the Whitman station at Waiilatpu, where they remained until the birth of her oldest son, Cyrus Hamlin Walker, the oldest native son of Old Oregon.

In the following spring, Mr. and Mrs. Walker went on to their own station at Tschimikain, meaning the place of springs. Here ten years were spent, in the midst of pioneer privations and hardships, in faithful endeavor to bring the white man's religion and his culture to the Indians.

The first independent organization of women in the Northwest and probably in America was formed at Waiilatpu, when the women of the missionary group banded themselves together in what they called a "Maternal Association" and what would be called today, a Mother's Club. The one hardship that seemed really to give them concern was the fact that their children had only Indians for playmates and would lack the Christian culture and environment of their own New England homes. They tried then to offset this by keeping in touch with each other, discussing in papers which they interchanged etc., their common problems and thus trying to have constantly in mind that they must try to make up to their children the lack which arose from the parents' sacrifice in coming into the wilderness. Mrs. Walker was Vice-President of this Maternal Association.

When the Whitman Massacre brought an end to the Missionary enterprise at Walla Walla it was decided that all the Missionaries should be taken to the Hudson Bay Fort at Colville. They were there for some months and then finally were escorted by Government troops to Oregon City, the then metropolis of the Northwest. After a few years here, they moved to Forest Grove and there Mrs. Walker died December 7, 1897.

(Mrs. J. S.) Ruth Karr McKee.

SARAH WILMOT CHAPTER

Auburn

Organized June 28, 1923.
Number of Members, 17.
Dues, $3.00.

Sarah Wilmot was a direct descendant of Matthew Gilbert, Deputy Governor of New Haven Colony in 1661, and of John Gilbert, an officer in the Colonial forces. David Wilmot, of Wilmot Proviso fame, belongs to this line also.

On June 28, 1923, Emma Wilmot Rogers (our Regent) attended a Daughters of the American Revolution meeting at the home of Mrs. Miles Winfer, Regent of Mary Ball Chapter, Tacoma, Washington, where she met Mrs. William Sherman Walker, Organizing Secretary General N. S. D. A. R., Mrs. Willis G. Hopkins, State Regent, and Mrs. Paul Tilmont, State Organizer, all of whom requested her to organize a Chapter of Daughters of the American Revolution in Auburn. As she was not a member she immediately looked up her genealogy and found it was almost or quite complete. February 7, 1924, she was accepted as a member of the D. A. R. and appointed Organizing Regent for the Chapter at Auburn.

We started with just one member, Mrs. Ella Boyd. On April 12, 1924, we had seventeen members and organized our Chapter.

We have given our Chapter the name of Sarah Wilmot, an ancestor of our Regent. We chose the name of this Colonial mother, whose six sons fought in the American Revolution, assisting in establishing our most cherished liberty, a service we are pleased to honor. Since organizing we have held our meetings regularly each month. Our members are very enthusiastic, but we are so very young that very little work other than the details necessary to organize has yet been accomplished. We have appointed our officers and the different chairmen of standing committees; also have written our constitution, and by-laws, two readings of which have been given at this time.

We remembered Mollie Pitcher Day by giving a delightful picnic at the home of one of our members at Redondo Beach. Our regular meetings are held on the second Friday of each month.

Clara Bash McLaskey, Assistant Historian.

CHILDREN OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION

The Society of "Children of the American Revolution" is a distinct incorporated organization with a national board of directors and local presidents are appointed by the national organizing secretary, and confirmed by the C. A. R. Board. All officers and presidents must be members of the D. A. R. in good standing.

We have been forced to believe recently that many of the best schools are expressly renouncing the questionable duty of teaching patriotism by means of history. Therefore there is need of every loyal D. A. R. to make an extra effort to bring before our children the fact that they are the "hope of the world" and that patriotism is not only love of country but love of honor and justice.

The motto of West Point which has been instilled in generations of American Officers, consists of only three words, DUTY, HONOR, COUNTRY.

In March, 1924, the first Chapter of C. A. R.'s was organized and assumed the same name that was originally given it, the "Elisha P. Perry" Chapter, a tribute given to the memory of the first Governor of Washington. This Chapter has flourished almost beyond the expectations of the organizer Mrs. Cyrus C. Phillips, under the leadership of Mrs. Chas. Page Bryant. It now has approximately fifty boys and girls on its membership roll. We have a number of interesting plans along patriotic lines outlined for the coming year. Our meetings have been well attended, our first program talk on our duty and respect for "The Flag," by Mrs. Phillips. "The privilege of being a C. A. R.," by Mrs. David Bowen, Regent, Rainier Chapter. "Duty to Our Country," by Judge Harry Denton Moore. Election of officers and a beautiful heart-to-heart talk by Mrs. Bryant, the president, after which a social hour was enjoyed and dainty refreshments were served. The meetings were held at the beautiful home of Mrs. Chas. Page Bryant, the president.

First steps of the formation of Seattle's second chapter C. A. R.'s were taken Thursday, July 10th, and was named in honor of a dearly loved member who died in September, 1923, Mrs. Ada L. McCleary. The organizer chose Mrs. Hampton Moran, president and leader for the new Chapter, which was called together in Volunteer Park for a picnic. The age limit for this young Chapter is from six to twelve, while the first Chapter is from twelve to eighteen. A program of informal talks and patriotic recitations and a Flag Salute followed the lunch. Mrs. Wm. Sherman Walker, Organizing Secretary General of the national D. A. R. and Mrs. Cyrus C. Phillips State organizer praised the work being done here in organizing children's chapters, and outlined briefly the story of some of the Revolutionary heroes. The recitations, "Your Flag and My Flag," and "I Love the Name of Washington," completed the program.

A third Chapter is being formed at Aberdeen, with Mrs. E. E. Boner as president, but up to this date I have received no definite report. A fourth Chapter is forming at Auburn, with Mrs. M. G. Rogers as leader, but reports are not ready at this writing.

The children of the American Revolution should appeal to every loyal D. A. R. That of enrolling our own boys and girls for future citizenship, so that when they have reached their majority they will be equipped for membership in the S. A. R. and D. A. R.
